Wallowa Fills B Grid Slot; Meets Henley

The Oregon state prep gridiron semi-finals this week are going to be chummy little affairs — geographically, anyway.

The four prime elevens spent the season playing teams all around the state and wound up matched against schools right next door.

Jefferson is favored over the nearby Gresham Gophers in the Thanksgiving Day semi-final at Portland's Multnomah Stadium.

The other semi-final, between Grants Pass and Medford, sounds still simpler. The bitter Southern Oregon rivals played during the regular season with Medford winning, 7-6.

The state high school activities association board of control will select the date and site of the Medford-Grants Pass game and the two class "B" semi-finals on Monday.

Montana University Cops Grid Finale 47-7

MISSOULA, Mont. — (AP) — The Montana State University Grizzlies ended an otherwise dismal season in a blaze of glory, massacring the Sioux of North Dakota University, 47 to 7.

Only during the first half was the Montana team able to claim complete mastery, however, for a revitalized Nodak club played on almost even terms during the final two periods which were marked by some of the fiercest play on Dornblaser Field this year.
