 A gown of ivory bro-Mabel Freeman was
 On Howard Nov-
 at ten o'clock in the
 at St. Rose Catholic
 of Monroe. The Rev.

William Maher officiated.
 The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ben Freeman of Junction City, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Howard of McMinnville.
 Miss Freeman's gown was complemented by a fingertip veil of net, fastened by a cornet of orange blossoms formed from seed pearls. She carried pearls which were a gift from her late father, and for tradition she carried a pearl rosary which was old, and also a handkerchief which had belonged to her paternal grandmother.
 Miss Mary Freeman was her sister's attendant, gowned in light blue taffeta. She also carried a rosary. Arthur Remm-ington was best man.
 The altar of the church was decorated with chrysanthemums.
 Only members of the families and a few friends were present for the service. The couple will be at home at Oregon City following a trip to California.

Bayless-Denney
Wedding Recent CRESWELL — Miss Della La-vaun Denney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Denney of Creswell, was married November 6 to William Henry Bayless, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Bayless of Mill City. The ceremony took place at the Cottage Grove Methodist church Saturday morning, November 6. Rev.
 Frank Brown of that church read the services at ten-thirty o'clock.
 The bride wore a green suit, with brown accessories and a carnation corsage.
 Miss Betty Denney, her sister, was bridesmaid, wearing a gold-colored suit with gardenia corsage. William Bayless, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man.
 The church was decorated with chrysanthemums. Mrs. Cecil Rhodes, sister of the bride, played the wedding marches.
 The bride carried a handkerchief which had belonged to her maternal grandmother and traditionally is carried by all Den-ney girls at their weddings.

 A reception was held afterward at the Denny home, with Mrs. Arthur F. Denney, Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs.
 Rhodes and Fred Cline in charge of serving.
 The couple left for a short trip to the coast and will be at home at Mill City.

Is Married Here
In Home Ceremony

An evening ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Bussell, married Mrs. Nancy T. Wil-lamson of Eugene, to Warren Reid Bussell, November 12.
 The Rev. Claude O'Brien of the First Christian Church of Springfield read the candlelight service before the fireplace, at six-fifteen o'clock.
 Rooms of the home were bright with fall flowers, and arrangements were placed upon the mantel.
 The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Carter of Sunderland, England, whence she came in May of 1946. She has no relatives in this country.
 Mrs. Williamson wore an ankle-length dress of dusty pink, trimmed with bronze velvet ribbon at the hipline. She wore bronze baby chrysanthemums in her hair, and carried a bouquet of bronze "mums" and stephanotis, tied with streamers of brown velvet ribbon.

 Attending the bridal pair were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Jasper. Mrs.
 Jasper wore a bolero suit in black and grey, and a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.
 An informal reception in the home followed the marriage.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bussell will be at home at 1293 Pearl Street.
