By HEAL BOYLE
 Eugene, Ore. — The crown jewel of the radio giveaway shows is more than $1,000,000 worth of prizes.

Allen's campaign is only a reflection of the comedian's annoyance because "Stop the Music," aired over a competing network, knocked the companyman out of a top Hooper rating last spring. The most recent Hooper poll, however, showed Allen again ahead of the musical quiz show.

"Frankly, I was flattered to have one of America's best comedians throwing rocks at us," said Goodson. "But we aren't going to throw any rocks back at him over the air."

"We feel that the man at the dial is the one who should decide what he listens to—not a comedian or a federal bureau."

He denies that "audience participation" shows—he dislikes the term "giveaways"—are only nuisance programs that attract morons.

"Audience participation shows are about the oldest thing in radio," he said, "but only about twelve per cent of the network programs can be classed as this type."

"They all aren't bad, and they all aren't successful. As many so-called giveaway shows have failed as have succeeded."

"It's my honest belief that quiz show audiences are considerably above the national average in intelligence and educational background."

"The shows are competitive and appeal to eager, competitive people. Most people realize they have perhaps only one chance in 20,000,000 to win a prize. They tune in for the excitement and entertainment—and I don't think entertainment has to be justified."

Goodson believes he will win what he calls his fight against "the Goliaths of the radio industry."

"The right to tune in is as free as the American ballot," he said. "We'll have quiz shows over the radio just as long as we have baseball or any other game."

Mark is a boyish-faced, stocky, brown-haired man of medium size. He started as a kid actor but had planned to become a lawyer. Then he found there was more money in waiting for a radio audience to give the right answer than a judge. I asked him what his father was.

"A vegetarian," he said.

 Eugene, Ore. — The radio industry has under consideration a new set of rules for the KUGN-TV station.

Goodson says that the station is probably the most important radio producer in the area. Among his shows are "The Jackpot," "Time's Up," "Winner Take All," and "The Music."

Goodson's invisible British empire, has comedian Fred Allen. Federal Communications Commission is threatening to stop his private cash registration.
