ARE PARENTS PEOPLE..... by Betty Bif

Is your Susie a Stay-at-Home or a Play-at-Home

• That's a mighty important question when Susie's sixteen—more or less. It's all right to browse through Mom's blue-ribboned love letters in the attic on a rainy day, but Susie'd much rather have some gaiety with the gang that might rate a few tender sentiments for herself. Well, listen, Parents, did you ever think that a little "doing over" might turn your mopey stay-at-home into a happy play-at-home? Maybe all Susie needs is one place in the house to call her own, a place where she'll be proud to entertain her friends. Speaking of that attic, you could toss out a few trunks and bygone mementos, add a "coke" bar, a sofa, a radio-phonograph and some bright curtains, and lo and behold, your house will be the favorite gathering place of Susie's favorite chums. While you're about it, take a look at your living room. Wouldn't a new rug, a pair of chairs and some good prints work wonderful wonders? So off with the old and on with the new, and a brand new shiny day will dawn in Susie's life.
