Room Dinners at Frances Willard Attract Parents

Room dinners at Frances Willard School are proving popular for the second season. The room mother is chairman and she and her staff of helpers plan and serve the meal. Most of the dinners have been potluck affairs in the lunch room for the entire family of pupils in each room.

W. H. Atkinson, principal, and Mrs. David Campbell, president of Frances Willard P-TA, attend all of the dinners which are an opportunity for closer acquaintance between pupils, parents and teacher. Up to Thanksgiving vacation there had been eight dinners held with an average of ninety persons at each. Some rooms have had 100 per cent parent attendance. First room to achieve this distinction was the second grade room taught by Mrs. Josephine Hays.

Christmas meeting of Frances Willard P-TA will be held December 21 in the Woodrow Wilson Junior High auditorium. This change in the place of meeting was necessary because the Frances Willard auditorium is small and it was necessary to hold the meeting two nights for all who wished to attend.

Miss Frances E. Baker's sixth grade room was first to go over the top with all parents joining the P-TA. Besides having their picture taken in a group, they were entertained with a special educational movie and treats.

A large percentage of the parents in this district belong to P-TA, indicating the increased interest of parents in the school. In the third month of school there were almost 750 members, and the membership is open the entire school year, so all newcomers still have an opportunity to join.

Honey Fruit Cake Takes Time to Ripen

Start today if you want to make your own Christmas fruit cake. It needs at least two weeks for ripening.

Honey Fruit Cake
(Makes about a 7-pound cake)

One cup prunes, 1 cup dried apricots, 1 cup golden raisins, 2 cups seedless raisins, 1 cup blanched almonds, 1 cup walnut meats, 1½ cups finely cut citron, 1 cup finely cut candied pineapple, ½ cup thinly sliced candied cherries, 1 cup finely cut candied lemon peel, 1 cup shredded coconut, 2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1¼ teaspoons salt, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 2½ teaspoons allspice, ½ teaspoon nutmeg, 1¼ cups shortening, 1¼ cups honey, 6 eggs.

Rinse dried fruits and dry thoroughly. Cut prunes from pits into small pieces. Slice apricots fine. Chop almonds and walnuts. Combine dried fruits, nuts, candied fruits and peels, and coconut with 1 cup flour, baking powder, salt and spice. Cream shortening thoroughly and add slowly to creamed mixture, blending well. Beat in sifted dry ingredients. Pour batter over floured fruit mixture. Mix thoroughly. Pour into 10-inch tube pan which has been lined with two thicknesses of brown paper and one of waxed paper. Bake in slow oven (250 degrees F.) 4 to 4½ hours with shallow pan of water in bottom of oven during baking.

Remove from pan to cool. Allow to ripen 2 weeks at least before cutting.
