

Amor's Darts Aimed for St. Valentine's Day, Sentimental Season of Hearts and Flowers

By Ann Connell

Love of St. Valentine's Day, this page yields its lead to the sentimental season of hearts and flowers, as seems proper.

Mrs. Paul R. Kloster of 2095 North 5th Street, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Enola, to Carl N. Nielsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jorgen Nielsen of Junction City. The couple's marriage is planned for June 20.

The engagement was told first to friends at a party given by Miss Kloster's parents, to honor her twenty-first birthday. News was contained in "valentines" given to the guests. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Spores, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nielsen, Misses Enola and Norma Kloster, Carl Nielsen and Mrs. Paul Kloster.

Mrs. Carroll M. Miller announced the engagement of their daughter, Carol Marian, to Chester Lee Stevenson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Lee Stevenson. Both families reside in Eugene. Mr. Stevenson is a senior at the University of Oregon.

The ceremony will take place June 20 at St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

Engagement of Miss Beverly Joan Gifford, daughter of Mr. Elmer S. Gifford, to Frank B. Anderson has been announced. Mr. Anderson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Lincoln, Nebraska. No wedding date has been set.

Gifford is a graduate of Eugene High School with the class of 1945 and she now is employed by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. Her fiancé is in the United States Army and is stationed at Fort Ord in California.

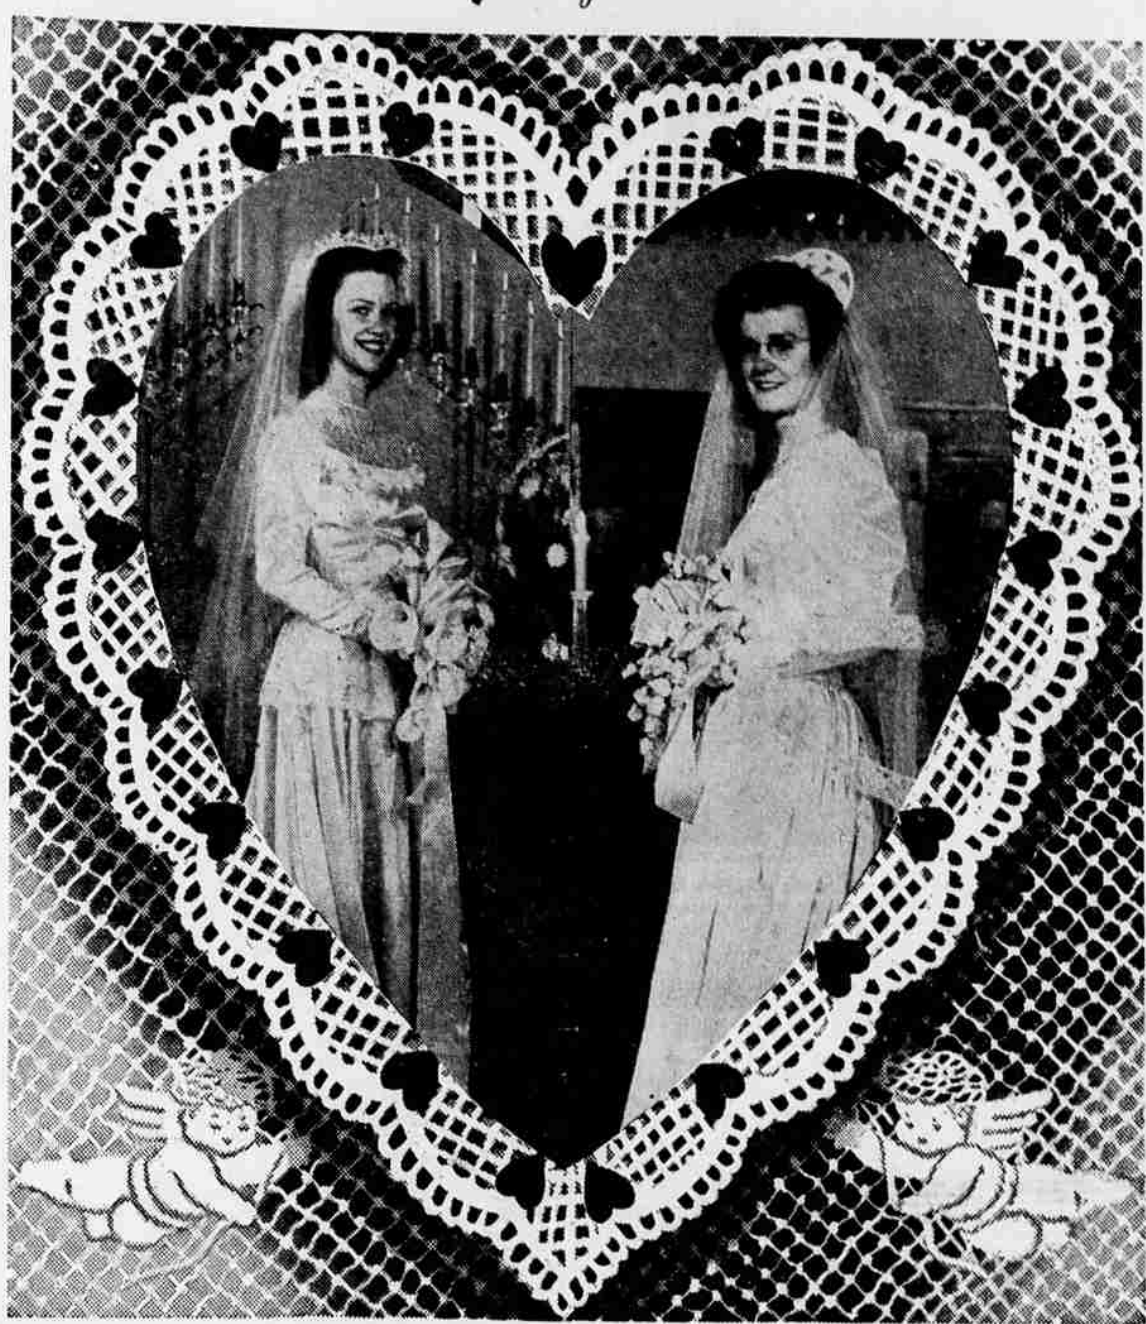

Mrs. Ralph Aubrey of Cottage Grove have announced the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, to Pfc. Melvin G. Kerr of the United States Air Corps. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Conn, also of Cottage Grove.

Miss Aubrey and Mr. Kerr are graduates of Cottage Grove High School with the class of 1948. He is stationed in Illinois and she is a student at San Jose Bible College. A wedding date has not been set.

Recent engagement announcement on the Oregon State campus at Corvallis was that of Miss Lois Schoth to Mr. McKee, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. McKee of Corvallis. Miniature newspapers distributed at dinner at the Phi Omega sorority house told the news. The wedding will take place in the early summer.

Schoth, a graduate of Corvallis High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schoth of Corvallis and a major in home economics. Mr. McKee is a graduate of Union High School and attended University of Oregon.

Mrs. John Striely have announced the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Paul Hopper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hopper. Both families live in Springfield. The wedding will take place February 28.

Willshire engraving

Febly Photo, Willshire Engraving

MRS. BILLY H. KINDRED (Patricia Heinrichs), recently arrived with her husband to make her home in Eugene, was bride in a Portland ceremony last month.

MRS. DALE FREDERICK (Clarice Wise) was married here January 30 at First Congregational Church, in an afternoon ceremony, and will live in Eugene.

New Church Is Wedding Scene Daffodils, Heather Deck Altar

Miss Patricia Ann Heinrichs of Portland became the bride of Billy Harold Kindred, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harold Kindred of Eugene in a candlelight ceremony at the new Cedar Mill Community Church in Portland early in January. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Irvin Heinrichs.

The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Simon E. Forsberg, pastor.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums and white tapers in candelabra decorated the church for the service, the first wedding to be held in the newly-completed church.

The bridal dress of white slipper satin was made with lace yoke and peplum and had a train. With it the bride wore a fingertip-length veil held in place with orange blossoms, and carried white calla lilies cascaded with ribbons.

Attendants of the bride were her cousin, Miss Virginia Heinrichs, as maid of honor and Misses Virginia and Joan Cote, bridesmaids. The maid of honor wore yellow tulle and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and ferns. The bridesmaids were gowned in aqua, made in the same style as the dress worn by the maid of honor. Their bandeaus and nosegays were yellow, tied with yellow.

The bridegroom's father, Mr. Kindred, was best man for his son, and the ushers were Elmer R. Moore, cousin of the bridegroom and Malcolm W. Billard, cousin of the bride.

Music was by an aunt and cousin of the bride, the aunt, Mrs. T. R. Flatley of Los Angeles, presiding at the organ and the cousin, Miss Marjorie Flatley, singing "At Dawning," "I Love You Truly," and "Because."

Garlands of evergreens around the walls decorated the church parlors for the reception and the refreshment table was centered with pink snapdragons and pink tapers. Mrs. L. M. Heinrichs and Mrs. M. W. Van Billard cut the cake. Mrs. Elmer Moore and Mrs. Bart Nevers poured. Serving were Mrs. Virginia Burt, Allene Amacher, Eleanor Mathews, Joan Saunders and Shirley Henson.

The couple went to San Francisco, via the coast route, for their wedding trip. The bride's going-away costume was a green gabardine suit with black accessories and hat and fur cape of caracul lamb. They are now at home in Eugene.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon where she was a member of Mu Phi Epsilon music honorary and the bridegroom attended Texas Tech and University of Oregon.

ORIDES ALUMNAE TO ENTERTAIN ACTIVES AT MONDAY DESSERT

Orides alumnae will entertain the active Orides girls at dessert Monday evening in Gerlinger Hall. Miss Betty Coe and Miss Patricia Hult are in charge of arrangements for the affair. A short business meeting for alumnae will follow.

Miss Neuenfeldt Bride in Portland Church Ceremony

Mothers Tea To Present Forum Talks

Miss Marion F. Neuenfeldt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Neuenfeldt of Eugene, became the bride of Virgil R. Butler in an evening ceremony at Moreland Presbyterian Church, Portland, last Saturday evening. The Rev. O. LeRoy Walter officiated.

Parents of Mr. Butler are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Butler of Vancouver, Wash.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown, Victorian in style. Her full-length net veil was trimmed with lace and fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid, which she wore later on her going-away suit.

Attending the bride were her two sisters, Miss Phyllis Neuenfeldt of Seattle as maid of honor and Miss Jewel Neuenfeldt of Portland as bridesmaid. The maid of honor's dress was of dusty rose satin and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses. The bridesmaid wore moss green satin and carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

Acting as best man for his brother was Robert Butler and the ushers were Norman Waters of Vancouver, Edward Neuenfeldt, brother of the bride and Larry Butler, junior usher and brother of the groom.

Mothers of the couple both were attired in gowns of blue, the bride's mother completing her costume with a hat of pink feathers and the bridegroom's mother with a pink flower hat. Both wore orchid corsages.

Assisting at the reception in the church parlors were Mrs. Earl Muir of Eugene and Mrs. Clelland Kretzer of Portland, pouring; Mrs. W. H. Crosby of Eugene and Mrs. Fred Ellet of Portland, cutting the cake. Mrs. Arthur Chenoweth presided at the punch bowl. The girls assisting were sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Robert Baldwin of Eugene, Mrs. Connie Arnold of Portland and Dana, Genice and Dorothy Butler. Mrs. Robert Butler had charge of the guest book.

Following a honeymoon trip to San Francisco the couple will be at home in Portland.

The bride is a graduate of

(CONTINUED TO PAGE 2-B)

A prepared panel dealing with questions most asked, relative to the standards, social rules and regulations of students on the campus, will be conducted by the directors of student affairs at the program and tea of Oregon Mothers Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, at Gerlinger Hall. Mrs. Eva Stevens Graves will act as moderator, and a period of questions will follow the talks.

Mrs. Kenneth Moore will preside at the meeting, and at the business session at two-thirty o'clock, which precedes the program.

A half hour of popular music will be furnished for the program by a trio of artists from the School of Music, Miss Claire Lewis, James McMullen and Wayne Sherwood.

Mrs. Blair Alderman will have the University of Oregon souvenir plates for sale, and Mrs. William M. Tugman will have the remaining Oregon Mothers cookbooks. There is but a limited number of these.

Faculties Newcomers To Meet for Tea

Newcomers Group of the University of Oregon Women's Faculty Club will hold its monthly tea Tuesday afternoon from three-thirty until five o'clock in Gerlinger Hall. A talk on sterling silver will be presented by Mrs. Leah Pell.

Mrs. Howard Dean is tea chairman, assisted by Mrs. George Andrews, Mrs. William Bowerman, Mrs. Milton Dieterich, Mrs. Robert Ferra, Mrs. E. D. Furrer, Mrs. Walter Koch, Mrs. Roderick Langston, Mrs. Viron Moore, Miss Josephine Newberry, Mrs. William Schlosser, Mrs. Lloyd Sorenson, and Mrs. Donald Willis. Mrs. F. L. Stetson and Mrs. E. G. Ebbighausen will pour.

There will be a nursery for small children during the tea hours.

PAN-HELLENIC MEETING IS THURSDAY DINNER

City Pan-Hellenic will meet at Seymour's Cafe Thursday evening at six-thirty o'clock for dinner and the regular monthly business meeting.

Kennell-Ellis Photo—Willshire Engraving

ENOLA KLOSTER has told her engagement to Carl N. Nielsen of Junction City. They will be married in May.

Febly Photo, Willshire Engraving

MISS CAROL MILLER will be a June bride, her marriage to Chester Lee Stevenson, Jr., set for June 20.

Horn photo, Willshire engraving

MISS BEVERLY JOAN GIFFORD is engaged to be married to Frank B. Anderson, no wedding date named.

MISS PATRICIA AUBREY has told her engagement to Pfc. Melvin G. Kerr, no date set for the wedding.

Cottage Grove Girl Wedded in Eugene

COTTAGE GROVE — Miss Doreen Annette Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Lyon, and Arthur Beddoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beddoe of Vancouver, Wash., were married in a double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Louis E. White in the Fire-side Room of the Congregational Church in Salem at seven o'clock Saturday evening, February 5. Yellow jonquils and sprays of heather decorated the room.

The bride chose a two-piece royal blue wool suit and grey accessories for her wedding costume. Her corsage was a single purple orchid.

Attending the wedding were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Lyon and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Asher, all of Cottage Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beddoe and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Claball, all of Vancouver, Wash.

The wedding banquet was served at the Colonial House in Salem immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Beddoe was graduated from Cottage Grove Union High School in 1948 and is a student at Willamette University. Mr. Beddoe was graduated from Vancouver High School and also is attending Willamette.

The new home will be at 1196 Chemeketa street in Salem. Mr. Beddoe will resume his studies following the honeymoon.

MISS MARILYN ELWOOD, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elwood, is engaged to William Pico, by recent announcement.