Golden Wedding Is Third in Row For Compton Family

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton of Cottage Grove was observed Sunday when their two daughters, Mrs. W. R. Ashworth of Eugene and Mrs. J. B. Leonard of Cottage Grove, entertained in honor of their parents at the club house at Cottage Grove Golf Course. This is the third generation of Comptons to celebrate a golden wedding anniversary. Mr. Compton's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Compton, reached the fifty-year mark in 1897 and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Compton, in 1919.

A dinner was served to the family and a few friends including the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton; their daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ashworth and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Leonard; their two grandchildren, John and Kay Leonard; Mrs. Vena Wheeler Siringo, a niece from Los Angeles; the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Brown, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Short, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Land, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin. A reception was held in the afternoon at which the tea table was centered with a tiered cake surrounded by acaia, gold leaves and tiny gold rosebuds. The mantel was decorated with the wedding picture taken 50 years ago, gold leaves and daffodils, with two large baskets of daffodils at each side of the fireplace. Mrs. Siringo had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Land and Mrs. Mackin presided at the tea table and were assisted by the Misses Kay Leonard, Beth Peacock, Mary Bricher and Mary Lou Wiese.

During the afternoon vocal numbers were rendered by Mrs. Siringo and Kay Leonard accompanied by Miss Louise Walther, who also played several accordion numbers. Mrs. Compton read a poem she had written describing their years together and Mr. Mackin read an original poem written in their honor.

Nathan E. Compton and Cora E. Craven were married Feb. 8, 1899 at Earlham, Iowa and came to Cottage Grove in 1902 where they have since resided, except for a few years spent in Iowa.

Many congratulations and gifts were received.

Cottage Grove Pair Leave on Extended European Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Woodward of Cottage Grove left recently for an extended European cruise, going by way of Portland. They planned to sail February 11 and to disembark at Cherbourg, France. From there they plan to tour Spain, visit Gibraltar and southern France and sail from Marseilles to Egypt, where permission has been granted by the government to stay longer than the week allowed.

From Egypt they will visit Greece, Italy, Naples and Venice, in Italy. Several days will be spent in Switzerland and ten days or more in Paris. From there they will go to Luxembourg and will tour the low countries. Also included in the itinerary is a tour of Germany and Berlin via the airlift. From Germany they will go to Denmark, Sweden and Norway and return home across the North Sea by way of the British Isles.

ANTIQUE SHOW SET AT CORVALLIS NOW CANCELLED

Cancellation of plans for an Antiques Mart, scheduled for February 17, 18, and 19 by the Corvallis branch of the American Association of University Women, was announced this week by Mrs. Charles A. Mockmore, branch president. Weather conditions make it uncertain whether the ten dealers who had reserved space at the fair would be able to get to Corvallis with their loads of valuable antique articles, Mrs. Mockmore reported. The dealers had been booked from various parts of the state.
