Paris Fashion
Shows Include
New Features
By Florence Mills

PARIS—(P)—Three important features have emerged from the Paris fashion shows which are likely to influence women's clothes this year.

- 1. The introduction of flying overskirts and the continuance of the super-narrow skirt.
2. The extensive use of the stole.
3. The shortening of skirts.
Flying overskirts comprise separate, pleated, flared or gathered panels attached to a tight waistband and set over a narrow "drainpipe" skirt. They are what Christian Dior calls "eye foalers," because they look like ordinary full skirts until the wearer twirls around and shows the narrow skirt beneath.
Stoles are put on both day and evening wear. French designers show them sprouting from shirt sleeves, then entwining the
the waist or slung over one shoulder.

Women's knees seem to be gradually emerging from their two-year retirement. Dior, who first imposed the "new look" length in 1947, has pushed many hemlines up to two inches below the knees. Other designers are more conservative and average some thirteen to fourteen inches from the ground.

Recipe Hints

Cherry Cobbler (Serves 6)
Two cups canned red pitted cherries, drained, 1 tablespoon flour, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 3/4 cup cherry juice, 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup shortening, 1/2 cup milk, 2 tablespoons sugar.
Place cherries in greased 8 x 10-inch baking dish. Sprinkle flour over cherries. Combine sugar, salt and cherry juice and pour over cherries. Meanwhile make cobbler dough. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together. Cut in shortening fine. Add milk, stirring with a fork into a soft dough.
Drop dough by small spoonfuls on cherry mixture and sprinkle with sugar. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 25 minutes. Serve warm with cream.

Baked Lemon Pudding
(Serves 4)
One-half cup sugar, 5 teaspoons sifted flour, 1/4 teaspoon baking powder, 1/8 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, separated, 1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon rind, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 1/2 tablespoons melted butter or fortified margarine, 1 cup milk.
Sift 1/4 cup sugar with flour, baking powder and salt. Beat egg yolks until light, then add lemon rind and juice, melted butter or margarine and milk and beat well with spoon. Stir in sifted dry ingredients and beat until smooth with hand beater or electric beater.
Beat egg whites until quite stiff, then gradually add remaining 1/4 cup sugar, while continuing to beat until stiff. Fold into first mixture, pour into greased one-quart casserole and place in pan of warm water. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) 45 minutes, or until firm on top and nicely brown. As the pudding bakes, it separates into a thin bottom layer of lemon sauce with a thick, fluffy cake-like layer on top. Serve cold.

1 quart vanilla ice cream
1/2 package mince-meat (3 oz.) 1/2 cup water
1 1/2 tablespoons granulated sugar
1/4 cup lemon juice
Grated rind of 1 lemon
1/4 cup chopped nuts Break mince-meat up with fork into small pieces; add water and sugar, and cook over low heat 3 minutes. Remove from heat; add lemon juice and grated rind. Stir in nuts and serve atop ice cream.
Serve 4.
