Following the opening of the gifts by Mrs. Marsh, refreshments were served to Mrs. Robert Farmer and Vernon, Mrs. Ralph Wheatcraft, Mrs. Sidney Jenkins, Mrs. Lee Jenkins, Melba, Maria and Dean; Mrs. Carl Jeffers, Mrs. Russell Jeffers, Mrs. Harold Shaw and Dale, Mrs. Ben Jeffers, Mrs. Joseph Tark, Mrs. Marie Butterfield, Mrs. Zeane Butterfield and Mrs. Bennie Marsh.

she will spend on the university campus. There will be a luncheon at noon and a dinner at five-thirty o'clock, in the Y-Bungalow, at which time the YW will entertain the YM, at a Round Table session with Miss Anderson as guest of honor.

Mrs. E. E. DeCou gave an interesting talk on the background of YW work, dating back to the year 1906, at a meeting of the Membership enrollment committee recently. She said that the association is most democratic, since the members come from all walks in life. All work together for a single purpose—the welfare of young women, with particular emphasis on good housing, employment, better wages, good food (beginning of the cafeteria), business courses and many other activities.

Mrs. DeCou spoke also of the National Convention being held in San Francisco this year. Mrs. C. H. Michel gave out supplies and instruction to the committee. Next meeting will be March 16, at which time the members will report the results of their work.

New Water Color Class to Meet at Recreation Center

A new Arts and Crafts class, with special attention to water color, will be conducted on Thursday afternoon from one-thirty to three-thirty o'clock at the Washington Street Recreation Center. Anyone interested in the class, which will start Thursday, is to bring a paint cloth, water pan, and Number 8 Prang or Artiste school water colors with brush.

A large number of persons doing craft work at the center are working with metals, making wall brackets, trays, candle holders and other items. Many are creating their own designs as well as put on metal. Others are engaged in textile painting and still others have been making timely holiday decorations, particularly for St. Valentine's Day and Washington's Birthday, and using, for the most part, simple materials which might be found in almost any home.

Firemen Have Annual Banquet and Dance

JUNCTION CITY—Each Thursday evening of the year, the wives of the firemen of Junction City are left as "firemen's widows" while the men attend the weekly fire drills. Each year the "brave fire ladders" try to make it up with a party at which the women are the guests of honor. This year the annual Ladies Night banquet and dance was held Saturday evening in Greenwood Hall.

Valentine decorations were used in the banquet room and dinner was served cafeteria style at small candle lighted tables. After the dessert Marvin Krenk of Eugene entertained with an hour of magic, sleight-of-hand and mind-reading tricks. Remainder of the evening was spent dancing to the music of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wildrich.

Those attending the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Borgard, r. and Mrs. Merle Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Arno Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Vard Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Borgard, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Maloney, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Don Baebler, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stegner, Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Danleisen, Mr. and Mrs. Windsor Graville, Clarence Mortensen, Miss Phyllis Brown, Frank Gates, Miss Betty Taylor, Marvin Wood, James Jensen, Henry Peterson, Dale Ross, Victor Hendricksen, Clifford Mortensen, Don Adams, Ralph Graveson, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Day and Miss Velma Thornton.

PUPPETS and the puppeteers who control them from above and behind the scenes are shown here. They are the Merry Puppeteers from Springfield who will perform for the Young Business Women's Club Wednesday evening in the auditorium of Woodrow Wilson Junior High School, at the Benefit Variety Show the group is giving for the John Phetteplace Memorial Hospital for Children.
