Olympian Named Scout Executive

Max B. Jensen, since 1940 scout executive of the Tumwater Area Council, with headquarters at Olympia, Wash., has been appointed as scout executive of the Oregon Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America. He will replace Roger Bates, who has accepted another position in Scouting in Portland.

J. R. Bruckart, president of the Oregon Trail Council, announced the appointment, and pointed out that Jensen has been in Scouting since the age of 12. He is an Eagle Scout, having served in all leadership positions in his home troop in Kansas City, and as assistant and later scoutmaster of the troop. He will be a 27-year veteran April 11.

Before going to Olympia Jensen served as assistant executive of the North Central Montana Council, the Western Montana Council, and the Inland Empire Council of Spokane.

Jensen was educated at Kansas City Junior College, and is a graduate of Park College. He did resident graduate work and two years of research at the University of Kansas. He is a graduate of the National Training School for Professional Scouters, and is now working for the Fellowship Degree in the Scout Executive
