SOCIETY, WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

By ANN CONNELL

Fairmount Women Form Presbyterian Church Association

The Women's Association of Fairmount Presbyterian Church was formed and officers elected at a meeting in the sun room of the church Thursday afternoon. The newly organized association replaces the Fairmount Presbyterian Women's Union.

Elected to the executive committee of the association were: Mrs. O. E. Bannison, president; Mrs. J. E. Pieron, first vice-president; Mrs. Wayne Jamison, second vice-president; Mrs. H. G. Carter, third vice-president; Mrs. E. H. Hall, recording and corresponding secretary; Mrs. Theo Zehrung, treasurer; Mrs. G. R. Atkins, secretary of literature; Mrs. Albert Warnock, secretary of missionary education and spiritual life and stewardship; Mrs. Carl Beiser, secretary of social education and action; Mrs. Frank Elliott, secretary of membership.

Foremost in the projects for the coming year will be helping to complete remodeling the sanctuary. Work is going forward rapidly and it is hoped that it may be opened for the Eastern services.

Dessert was served at one o'clock on Thursday. Devotions were led by Mrs. John H. Vanlierop with song responses by Miss Rose Young. A resume of the planning committee's activities was given by Mrs. Wayne Jamison, followed by a question and answer board covering all phases of women's associations. Mrs. Glenn Sanders of Central Presbyterian Church gave the benediction.

Girl Scout Council To Elect Officers

Dr. Eva Seen, director of the women's physical education department in Oregon State College, will be guest speaker at the annual meeting of Three Rivers Girl Scout Council Thursday. Topic of Dr. Seen's address will be "Camping Builds a Better Girl Scout."

Theme of the annual meeting is centered around camping. New officers will be elected. The meeting, to be held at Veterans Memorial building at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, is for all adult Girl Scout workers in the council. A luncheon at noon will be included in the program.

Herb Group Members To Make Broadcast

A committee from the Herb Group of Eugene Garden Club under the chairmanship of Mrs. Galin Jordan has prepared to broadcast which is to be presented on the program of State Federation of Garden Clubs over Radio Station KOAC, Thursday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock. Assisting Mrs. Jordan are Mrs. L. L. Erdmann, Mrs. L. M. Watson, Mrs. Charles Adamson, Mrs. Dudley Holland and Mrs. Nell Banks.

The group met in the home of Mrs. Jordan, Wednesday afternoon for rehearsal, at which time Mrs. C. F. Gregg, state radio chairman for the federation was present. Mrs. Jordan served a cake topped by an herb-flavored frosting and herb tea. Following this the women went through the greenhouse, admiring the many spring blossoms.

Monday morning the women of the committee went to the vocational school, where a tape recording was made of their program—a conversational piece about herbs, written by Mrs. Jordan. This will be sent to Corvallis, where it will be broadcast on the program, "Especially for Women," put on each Thursday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock during the winter months.

La Junta Bridge Club will meet with Mrs. Ira E. Lynds, 1717 Washington Street, Friday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock.
