Miss Anderson Is March Bride

Miss Doreen Ellen Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Anderson, became the bride of Myron LaMar Henry of Ogden, Utah, March 5 at First Congregational Church. The Rev. Wesley Goodson Nicholson, pastor, officiated at eight o'clock in the evening. Mr. Henry is the son of John A. Henry, also of Ogden.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin made with train and with a full peplum, hip-length. The bodice was fitted and had a net yoke and long fitted sleeves. With it she wore a fingertip net veil held by a headress of lace and seed pearls and carried her white Bible and an orchid.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. William C. Koepke of Port Townsend, Wash., whose dress of celestion green brocaded satin was made with fitted bodice and floor-length full skirt. She also wore net mitts and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations and wore white carnations and gardenias in her hair.

The two bridesmaids, Miss Mary Lou Spaulding of Vancouver, Wash., and Mrs. Phyllis Copinger Scott of Eugene, wore pink brocaded satin made like the dress worn by the honor attendant. They also carried pink and white carnation nosegays.

John A. Henry of Klamath Falls, brother of the bridegroom, was best man for his brother and Nelson J. Gellant of Portland and Leonard E. Lonigan of Eugene served as ushers.

The altar of the church was decorated with baskets of pink carnations and white stock, at either side and with white tapers in candelabra. James Kayes sang "I Love Thee" and "Because."

Mrs. Anderson was attired in navy blue crepe with which she wore an off-face navy lace straw hat, navy accessories and a corsage of pink Talisman rosebuds.

For the reception in Wheeler Room of the church, Mrs. R. N. Copinger, Mrs. L. R. Hickenbottom and Miss Lillian Melby served at the bride's table, assisted by Miss Dorothy McClintie and Miss Shirley Robinson. Miss Joan Thorson attended the guest book. Decorations on the table were white tapers and a circle of maiden hair fern about the cake.

For her going-away costume on a ten-day motor trip to southern California the bride wore an electric blue dressmaker suit with grey straw cloche and grey accessories. The couple will be at home in Eugene after March 15.

The bride is a graduate of Eugene High School and has been active in music circles in the city. The bridegroom attended University of Utah and now is with Zellerbach Paper Company.

Guests from out of the county were: Mr. and Mrs. Amos Crook of Longview, Wash., Mrs. Dale Dotson of Kelso, Wash., Mrs. Fay Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Gellant and Edward Yapp of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. John Henry and son of Klamath Falls and Misses Mary Lou and Marjorie Spaulding of Vancouver, Wash.
