

MRS. PAUL HOPPER (Dorothy Striyle) was married in late February at First Congregational Church.

Miss Striyle Bride Of Paul Hopper In Church Rites

Miss Dorothy Striyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Striyle of Springfield, became the bride of Paul Hopper in an evening service at First Congregational Church, Eugene, February 26. The pastor, the Rev. Wesley G. Nicholson read the service, which was by candlelight, at seven o'clock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of traditional slipper satin fashioned with a long train. The dress had been made for her by her mother. The lace fingertip veil which she wore fell from a coronet of seed pearls, and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid arranged with pink rosebuds and tied into streamers. She wore an heirloom diamond necklace.

The maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Robertson, wore a gown of pink dotted swiss and in her hair a halo of pink carnations. The three bridesmaids, Misses Ophelia Nave, Suzanne Brookhart and Evelyn Spears, wore identical dresses of pastel dotted swiss and their headaddresses were halos of carnations.

The flower girl, Martha Holt, niece of the bridegroom, wore a pastel frock and crown of carnations. Candelighters were Misses Jeanne McGee and Beverly Allen who wore floor-length dresses in pink and blue.

Jack Jones was the best man and the ushers were Don Newcome, Robert Nave, Marlin Jenkins and Robert Williams.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Vivian Aune sang "Because" and "For You," with organ accompaniment by Miss Mary Grubbs. At the reception immediately following the service the bride's sister, Mrs. Wilford Bennett, had charge of the guest book. Mother of the bride was attired in a grey dress with brown accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a wine afternoon dress with grey accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopper are now at home in Springfield. Both are students at Springfield High School where Mr. Hopper is a senior. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hopper.
