CITY NEWS NOTES

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Michel have returned from a week's fishing at East Lake where they had limit catches of fish, all at least 15 inches long. Dr. and Mrs. Louis Clark, of Salem, accompanied them.

The Eugene Drive-in Theatre, Inc., Portland, filed articles of incorporation in Salem Wednesday, with 150 shares of non-par-value stock. Shareholders are listed as M. M. Tonkon, G. William Mead and M. Babcock.

The University of Oregon faculty concert scheduled for Tuesday night, July 5, has been cancelled. It was to have been in the music auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

Progressive 22's will meet for degree staff practice at 8 p.m. Friday in the Springfield IOOF Hall.

Many thanks to all the people who offered hearing aids to an elderly lady, Mrs. S. S.

McKay Backs Refugee Aid

Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd (U. S. Navy, Ret.) has sent his congratulations to Governor Douglas McKay for his participation in the sponsoring committee of the Iron Curtain Refugee campaign.

The campaign, sponsored by the International Rescue Committee, Inc., is raising funds for the purchase of 100,000 CARE food packages and other essential relief items for the refugees from behind the iron curtain who are currently streaming into western Europe.

Governor McKay is one of the 24 American governors who are members of the sponsoring committee, of which Admiral Byrd is national chairman.

Admiral Byrd called upon the people of Oregon to support the efforts of their governor for the Iron Curtain Refugee Campaign.

He pointed out that the campaign committee wishes to send as much aid as possible to starving refugees in Europe, and it had therefore decided to avoid the sometimes excessive costs of setting up offices in many cities. All contributions, he said, should be sent to the International Rescue Committee, 103 Park Avenue, New York 17, N. Y. Contributions to the campaign are tax-deductible.

R. T. Stingley
R. T. Stingley of Junction City died at a Eugene hospital Tuesday at the age of 75. He was born in Ravenwood, Missouri, in 1874, and had lived in Oregon most of his life — the last 54 years in and near Franklin. He was married to Rose Lemley in 1900.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, Orrie of Castle Rock, Wash., and Elvin of Junction City; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Miller-Sherman Funeral Home of Junction City.

Health Officers' Replacement Named

CHEHALIS, Wash. — (U.P.) — Dr. Ross Galvin, Centralia, Wash. Tuesday was appointed temporary health officer for Lewis County by the county commission.

The office had been vacant since July 1 after the resignation of Dr. Stillman Hathaway.

The commissioners said no permanent officer had been selected yet, but that a conference had been scheduled with state health officials later in the week.

Ellsworth hasn't had a fire in three years.

CUTTING CLASSES O.K.'d
DENTON, Tex. — (U.P.) — A new plan inaugurated at North Texas State College here provides that students in courses of sophomore level or higher may cut classes if they are making satisfactory progress in the course.
