

County Court Releases Roads

The Lane County Court Thursday turned jurisdiction of several roads in the Nicholas Gardens area of Springfield over to that city. The main thoroughfare to be under city jurisdiction is the southern part of Emery Road (28th St.) which is a connector between the Marcola Road and the McKenzie Highway.

Arthur McChesney and Ralph Nicholas, Springfield councilmen and City Manager Fred Cheatham asked the county to oil Emery Road south to the McKenzie Highway but the county court would agree to surfacing the road only as far south as Ash St.

County Commissioner Lee Raish estimated it would cost the county $2000 to continue the present oiling job north of the city limits to Ash St. in Springfield.

The city of Springfield will participate in the cost of the additional oiling to an amount of $300.

Neighbors Rescue River Road Barn

While Mr. and Mrs. John L. Mitchell, 560 Horn Lane, were at the Lane County Fair Grounds Monday night watching the big fireworks display someone "bombed" their property with a "sky rocket."

The rocket landed in a field of dry grass near the Mitchell barn, but neighbors reported the blaze which firemen extinguished before any damage was done.

Trailer Thefts Told

Kenneth W. Dunn, Rt. 2, Junction City, reported to city police Wednesday evening that a large soft chair worth $65 and a wool blanket valued at $9 were stolen from his trailer while it was parked at 717 Sixth Ave. W. between 7 and 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Mystified at the disappearance of the articles, Dunn told police it would take two strong men to lift the chair out of the trailer, and further, that the chair cushion was left behind.

Flames Raze Waterfront

BANGOR, Me. — (AP) — A $1,500,000 blaze laid waste a quarter mile of Bangor's waterfront early Thursday.

Penobscot River wharves carrying five fuel depots, a bus garage, a hardware warehouse and a plumbing supply house were destroyed.

The Bangor Daily News reported the blaze under control shortly before 1 a. m. It had been raging more than three hours.

Explosions of drums containing gasoline and oil heightened the fire's fury.

Although fire still was all around them, four big gasoline and oil tanks did not ignite.

Leaping high into the air, the flames were visible for miles. Thousands of spectators were attracted.

A battery of National Guardsmen kept the crowds from the fire zone, while five fire departments battled to the fire-front north of the Maine Central Railroad's freight houses.

There were no reported deaths or injuries. Several firemen were overcome by smoke, however.

The fire zone is wholly industrial and commercial. There were no residences in danger.

High School Music Concert Set Friday

The all-state high school chorus, formed of high school students from high schools all over the state who are on the University of Oregon campus for three-weeks intensive training in music, will appear in concert at 8 p.m. Friday.

This will be the second concert of the annual University High School Music summer session. It will be in the music auditorium.

Directing the chorus will be Donald W. Allton, assistant professor of organ and theory. Also included on the program will be several wind and string solos and small ensembles, performed by high school students. The public is invited to the concert, for which there is no admission charge.

Big Cauliflower Grown

A real "Route F" cauliflower found its way to the Register-Guard office this week, brought in by C. H. Eicher, the man who grew it.

Eicher's vegetable was 20 inches around, 22 inches over the top, and weighed three pounds and 11 ounces.

Junction City Girl Honored

Joyce Gribskov, Junction City, who was sent to the Red Cross Aquatic School at Bremerton, Wash., by the Lane County Red Cross, was voted the outstanding student at the school and received an engraved plaque, the Red Cross announced this week.

Miss Gribskov, one of five aquatic students sent this year, has been active in helping with the Red Cross swim program at Junction City for several years.

Others sent this year were June Beidler, Cottage Grove, Catherine Getty, Seaside, Marvin Jensen and Kenneth Petersen, Eugene.

This is the first time in the history of the local chapter that a Lane County delegate has won this honor. Mrs. Cora Pirtle, chapter manager, reported. It is given to the student who proves the greatest inspiration to others attending the school.

Car Overturns, Injures Three

Three persons were injured and four others shaken up when the car in which they were riding skidded in loose shoulder gravel and overturned eight miles north of Oakridge on Highway 58 Thursday morning.

The car was demolished.

Under treatment at Oakridge clinic are Mrs. Nathan Sears, of Fantana, Calif., her 12-year-old son, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Orrin Damram, of Los Angeles.

Injuries were not believed to be critical.

Nathan Sears, driver, said the group were returning from Newport to California. Three other children and Sears' step-father escaped injury.

Motor Scooter Rider Injured

Marion Bloomfield, 35, Rt. 4, Eugene, was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital Thursday morning with unknown injuries following an accident at 26th Ave. E. and Hilyard St.

Police reported Bloomfield was riding a motor scooter north on Hilyard St. and struck a car being backed out of a nearby driveway by Thomas W. Miltonberger, 65, of 1835 Jefferson St.

Grass Fire Stubborn

Eugene firemen battled for an hour Wednesday afternoon what they called "one of the year's worst grass fires," atop College Hill at 26th Ave. W. and Washington St.

The blaze, firemen reported, was started by two small boys playing with matches.

One truck was in service for 63 minutes, and nearly 300 gallons of water was poured into the burning grass. There was no damage.

Entries Still Open For Dog Show

"Do you own a pure-bred pup? Then step up and enter him in our dog show. Who knows, he might turn out to be a 'dog star,'" said Harold Thompson, president of the Eugene Kennel Club, Thursday.

He suggested that Lane County people take advantage of the situation in time granted by the Kennel Club, and enter their dogs, up to 1 p.m. Friday, for the forthcoming all-breed dog show, July 17, at the fairgrounds.

A call to Mrs. Ray Bond, 5-2721, by that time is all that is necessary; the entry blank can be filled out later.

Professor Tells Lions Club Of Adult Education Need

The importance of an adequate adult education program was discussed Wednesday at the Lions Club luncheon by Dr. James D. Logsdon, visiting professor of education at the University of Oregon.

Dr. Logsdon is principal of Shorewood High School in the Milwaukee, Wis. suburbs, and is the instigator of an adult education movement there that has received much public acclaim. This is the educator's second summer in Eugene.

"There are many problems which cannot be solved in the high schools today," Logsdon said. "They require the development of an intelligent and well-informed citizenry."

He listed the problems as disorganized world relationships, reestablishment of a peacetime

Sewer Hook-Ups Set For Nicholas Gardens

SPRINGFIELD — Home owners in the Nicholas Gardens area Thursday were instructed by the city building department they could hook-up to the new sewer system immediately.

Department officials said few people had hooked-up to the three-mile sewer network to date. A hook-up permit and an inspection of the connection and service line is required at the time of the hook-up, officials added.

The Nicholas Gardens sewer project was completed in record time enabling the city to speed up sewer surveys of the area north of Morning Drive. City Engineer Dean Hodges has been surveying the area for several weeks and preliminary sewer plans are near completion.

SAN DIEGO — (UP) — The metropolitan area of San Diego now has a population of 450,000, the Chamber of Commerce estimates. Population of San Diego proper was estimated at 392,000, a 100 per cent increase over the official government census of 1940.

Professor Tells Lions Club Of Adult Education Need

1922. He pointed out the competition that such a program has to face from many other nighttime activities.

An efficient adult education program should have no exams, no set curriculum that a student must follow, no credit given, and no subjects offered except those that are of interest to adults, the professor said. In all cases, the task of the teacher is to recognize the problem of human relationships involved.

The Lions plan at their next meeting to have present Frank
