Iced Coffee Season Is Here

ICED COFFEE—Made strong and clear and served with sugar syrup, it's an ideal summer refreshment.

By Gaylor Maddox
NEA Staff Writer

Fresh, strong, clear and tinkling—that's the ideal iced coffee. To sweeten it, try using a syrup of sugar and water boiled together and chilled.

To be at its best, iced coffee must start with good hot coffee. There are two ways to prepare it:

Pre-Cooled Method
1. Make coffee regular strength—one standard coffee measure (two level measuring tablespoons) of coffee to each three-quarters of a measuring cup of freshly drawn water.

2. Cool in a non-metallic container for not more than three hours, or, if the container is tightly covered, chill in refrigerator.

3. Serve in tall glasses with ice, adding sugar or sugar syrup and cream to taste.

Quick Method
1. Make coffee double strength, by using half the amount of water to the usual amount of coffee.

2. Pour hot over ice cubes in tall glasses. The extra-strong coffee allows for the dilution caused by the melting of the ice.

3. Serve with cream and sugar or sugar syrup to taste.

Here are suggestions for several variations:
Combine freshly made double-

NEW HOME PLANNED
LONDON—George Hinkle of Springfield, a builder, and nephew of William Lively has purchased the Lively place and will begin construction of a new home in about two weeks. Mr. Hinkle has a wife and three children who will live here. Mr. Lively and his sister, Mrs. Beth Kells, will continue to live in the present house on the place. Another sister, Mrs. S. J. Swank is coming July 7 to live at the Lively home.

Mrs. D. E. Martin is in Portland caring for a niece who is bedfast.

Mr. and Mrs. James Flemming and family of Fall Brook, Calif., are here with a trailer house for the summer up Cougar Bend. Mrs. Flemming is a daughter of the D. E. Martins.

Mrs. Lynch Curran and daughter, Maxine, are attending summer school at the University in Eugene.

Merrill Abeene is here from Eureka, Calif., visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers of Spokane are visiting Mr. Rogers' sister, Mrs. E. M. McEwen.

Mrs. Lora Townsend is in Roseburg visiting her son, Clayton. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olds and daughter, Helen, of Berkeley, Calif., are visiting their son, Joe Olds.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Obene and Mr. and Mrs. Nash Hughes who are on an extended eastern trip have visited St. Augustine, Fla., on the Atlantic coast and now are on their way home. They will come by way of the Dakotas and stop in Montana and Yellowstone Park where Mr. Abeene expects to find specimens for his rock collection.

Capt. V. A. Powell who was here from San Diego for the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Emma C. Powell, last week at Cottage Grove, visited his cousin Mrs. Ivan Abeene at London.

Herman Cathcart of Modesto, Calif., spent an evening with his cousin, Nelson Rensis last week. It has been twenty-two years since the two had met.

BIG SHOW
More than 500 head of bucking horses, wild horses, Brahma steers, longhorns, cows and calves are used in the annual Frontier Days show in Cheyenne, Wyo.
