

Mrs. Barnhart Leads Session of Board Of Business Women

Mrs. David Barnhart wielded the gavel for the first time as president of Eugene Business and Professional Women's Club at a meeting of the executive board Wednesday noon at the Eugene Hotel. The luncheon was largely attended for a board meeting, with twenty-five present. New members of the board were introduced by the president.

Reports of finances were given, and other routine business was transacted.

It was reported the next meeting will be a luncheon June 14, at the Del Rey Cafe, at which Mrs. J. Prosser Stewart, hospitality chairman, and Mrs. C. A. Wintermeyer, courtesy chairman, will be co-hostesses. There will be a speaker.

A special meeting of the board also was called for Monday evening, at the home of the president, to discuss some problems.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Glenn E. Pirtle, past president, reported in brief on a recent trip to Atlantic City, where she attended a session of American Red Cross.

Eugene Girl Works On Wardrobe Staff Of Portland Theatre

PORTLAND — This summer, Portland Civic Theatre's wardrobe mistress, Mrs. Maybelle Preble, is being assisted by Miss Ellen Stephens, a young student from Eugene. Miss Stephens is interested in professional costuming. In Eugene, she and two other girls executed the costumes for the 1947 Oregon Trail Pageant. Last year she worked with the wardrobe department at the University of Oregon, although still a high school student. Now, at Civic Theatre, she continues adding to her experience by working with Mrs. Preble.

The two are searching numerous costume racks to find suitable garments for students appearing in the sixth annual drama festival. They must find more than one hundred and fifty costumes for the six plays and two ballets to be presented July 23-30. Included in the list of characters to be clothed are a magician-cat, a group of islanders, many princes, and a nutcracker.

THREE WOMEN ARE APPOINTED

District Seventeen, Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, was successful in having three local women appointed to state offices at the recent state convention at Coos Bay. Mrs. John Ashworth, Springfield Auxiliary 3965, was appointed department flag bearer. Mrs. Lloyd Cameron, Willamette Auxiliary 395 of Eugene, was made department assistant conductress and Mrs. Lester W. Hill, also of Willamette Auxiliary 395, is department audit chairman. Appointments were made by Mrs. Stanley Tripp of Corvallis.

Green Cabbage Now Plentiful

By Gaynor Maddox
NEA Staff Writer

Those green cabbages rolling to market combine deliciously with other foods. The Bureau of Home Economics and Human Nutrition of the Department of Agriculture has experimented. Here are some of their appetizing and thrifty results.

Long-time favorites among meat-and-cabbage duets are stuffed cabbage and cabbage rolls. Mexican cabbage rolls are a novel variation of the latter—a mixture of chili con carne and rice wrapped in cabbage leaves and placed in a casserole. On top, add a combination of tomatoes, vinegar, salt, water and brown sugar. Bake in a slow oven (300 degrees F.) for about 30 minutes.

A stuffed cabbage, made "company style," starts with ground meat such as sausage or beef. Brown it with diced onions. While the meat is cooking, cut out the heart of the cabbage and some of the cabbage around the heart, to make a good-sized hole.

Chop up the cabbage removed and mix it with toasted bread crumbs. Then add it to the browned meat and onions. Fill the hole in the cabbage with the mixture, salt the cabbage, and set it in a pan with a little hot water and a tight lid. Bake until the cabbage is tender.

Cabbage-Cheese: Cabbage and cheese combinations offer a choice as to type of cheese and method of serving. One of the popular dishes in this category, tasty, nourishing concoction, combines the cabbage and cheese with spaghetti in a scalloped dish.

When you make this, cook less spaghetti than usual. Make a white sauce, and to it add ½ pounds of cheese shaved thin. Arrange the spaghetti, sauce, and shredded cabbage in layers in a greased baking dish. Cover with a mixture of crumbs and table fat. Bake for 20 to 30 minutes in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.).

For cooler eating, use cottage cheese and a salad bowl. Use one head of lettuce or endive, 3 medium carrots, 1 cup of chopped cabbage, 1½ cups of cottage cheese, salt, pepper, salad dressing and one tomato cut in wedges. Shred the lettuce, cut the carrot in tiny, thin strips or shred it. Combine with other ingredients just before serving. Season and add dressing. Serves 6 to 8.

yarns, crochet hooks, knitting needles, embroidery hoops, patterns, stamped materials, needlework books, sewing kits, scissors, etc., manicure equipment, cosmetics (colors and texture suitable for young people), scented soaps, hair ribbons, clips, pajamas or nightgowns, dolls, ankies, slacks, sweaters, housecoats.

For Boys (ages 5 to 16)

Shop tools, knives, coin purses, wallets, shaving sets, creams, lotions, hair oils, combs, brushes, undershirts, briefs, pajamas, dress or school socks, sport or polo style shirts, dress shirts for older boys, caps, rain hats and coats, belts, sweaters, dentifrices, shampoo preparations.

For Either Boys or Girls

House slippers (larger sizes), bathing suits, warm gloves or mittens, rubbers and galoshes (low heels), handkerchiefs, any good used clothing (including coats), art or handicraft material of all sorts, good used musical instruments, new books or clean used ones, game or card tables, Eversharp style pencils, stationery, fountain pens, autograph books and diaries, snapshot and stamp album, blank scrap books, note books, games and toys, corn poppers, roller skates, fishing tackle, any athletic equipment.

For the Home in General

Comforters, 60x84 inches (tie closely), mirrors, pottery, casseroles, pitchers, attractive flower containers, vases, braided rugs (we can furnish material), pillow slips, dresser scarves, various types of towels, wash cloths, dish towels, flour or feed sacks, table napkins, Indianhead or cotton damask, new yardage, muslin prints, rayon fabrics, attractive children's pictures, comforters, 72x90 inches, small glasses for fruit juices, cotton blankets or sheets, bulis, plants, seeds, etc., light-weight rugs for bathrooms, wool blankets, rubber canary aprons, various sizes butcher-style aprons.

Among needs of a larger nature, in which organizations may be interested, or which may serve as community projects, are these: Table or floor lamps, sewing machines, chairs and davenport, bedside tables or stands, a motion picture projector for using sound films.

Gifts of money for magazines or other needs always are appreciated. Those writing may address communications regarding material gifts to William B. Schnebly, Superintendent Children's Farm Home, Corvallis, Oregon. Communications regarding monetary gifts may be sent to the Children's Farm Home, Corvallis, Oregon, or Children's Farm Home, 224 Park Bldg., Portland 5, Oregon.

Reception For Pastor Is Friday

First Methodist Church is holding a reception for its new minister, the Rev. Berlyn V. Farris, and Mrs. Farris, Friday evening, July 8 at eight o'clock. Mrs. Arthur Ruhndorf, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, is in charge of the arrangements. Dr. Dean Lobaugh, secretary of the Board of Trustees, will be the master of ceremony for the program. Others on the program will be Mrs. Paul Means, representing the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and Mayor V. Edwin Johnson who will give the welcome from the city.

The Eugene Ministerial Association will also be represented. The Rev. David Seaman, director of Wesley Foundation, will sing a solo, and Miss June Kelso will play a violin solo.

The receiving line will include Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Ruhndorf, Dr. and Mrs. S. Raynor Smith, the Rev. and Mrs. David Seaman, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd DeLess, and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Brown. The reception will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. All members and friends of the church are invited.

Minister and Wife Are on Vacation

Dr. and Mrs. Wesley G. Nicholson are vacationing this month, he from his pastorate of First Congregational Church, and she from her position as supervisor of child welfare services for Lane County. They are spending much of the time touring the state, visiting Congregational churches in several areas, in Dr. Nicholson's official capacity as state moderator. During the week following the Fourth, they visited churches of Portland, Salem, Oregon City, St. Helens, Scappoose and Astoria, and a new church which is building at Wecoma Beach.

They returned to Eugene for a few days, and Sunday will leave again to travel up the Columbia River to Central and Eastern Oregon. They will go as far as Enterprise and the Wallows Mountains. Later in the month, Dr. Nicholson is to direct activities for one week at the Congregational summer camp for high school students, at Camp Adams, near Mollalla.

Charles Lindbergh's famed flight to Paris in 1927 took 33 hours and 39 minutes.

Better Built Bathing Suit Needed Badly

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Actress Virginia Mayo is hunting for a better-built bathing suit. She says the one she wore was peeled off by an inconsiderate wave, in the surf near Malibu, leaving her attired only in salt water and embarrassment. Miss Mayo was rescued by a friend, Mrs. Audrey Kirschbaum, and a beach towel. A photographer happened to be near by and got two or three pictures of the scene, after the towel was in place. Press agents of the actress' studio vowed they had nothing to do with the accident.

NICE VISITS FROM NEW YORK

Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Handshuh have had as visitors from New York City the past week their niece, Miss Pearl Handshuh, who teaches government administration at Hunter's College and her friend, Miss Gloria Silverstein. For their guests' pleasure the Handshuhs made up a party of two carloads of friends Monday for a trip up the McKenzie River and on Tuesday they entertained with a skating party for twelve, with refreshments served later on the top of Skinner Butte.

Miss Handshuh visited in Eugene three years ago, having been given a two-weeks trip west for a graduation present. She was so impressed with Eugene that she remained for nine weeks and has planned to return ever since.
