Morse Opposes Power Sales

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Morse (R-Ore) is opposed to selling to private utilities at the dams power generated by the government hydro-electric projects.

He made the statement in a telegram to Henry Hansen, of the Capital Press of Salem, Ore.

"I am opposed to the idea that after the great power dams of the Pacific Northwest have been built and paid for by the taxpayers private utilities should be given special privilege priority by way of taking all the power they want at the Bus Bar (dam) sites," Morse said.

"I think private utilities are entitled to fair consideration in respect to negotiating contracts with the government for sale of power, but I think the people of the area are entitled to have the power distributed to them over the Bonneville Power Administration transmission grid system if they want to obtain their power that way.

"I shall oppose any attempt on the part of the private utilities to block the BPA transmission grid system."

Columbia Basketball Coach Tells Rotarians of Playing

Gordon Ridings, basketball coach at Columbia University and a former basketball star at University High School and the University of Oregon, spoke before the Eugene Rotary Club Tuesday noon.

Ridings, who is attending a summer coaching school in basketball at the university, attended Eugene schools and the university before taking his master's degree in the east. After serving in the Navy during World War II he took the coaching position at Columbia. He turned out two championship teams, and last year his team was runner-up to Hobby Hobson's Yale team.

The Columbia coach described the playing of Tony Lavelli, star player on the Yale team, and spoke of his experiences in playing against him. He also told of his experiences in playing at Madison Square Garden, and gave Rotarians a word picture of how the garden operates.

Columbia will play the University of Oregon early next year at Eugene.
