

Vagrants, Reckless Drivers Punished in Eugene Court

A host of "gentlemen of the road"—vagrants, a man on a drunken driving charge who swore he'd "never live your honor," and numerous persons involved in traffic cases, filled Eugene Municipal Court Wednesday evening.

The vagrants—15 in all—had been picked up in a Eugene Police raid on "jungles" near the Southern Pacific railroad yards.

Judge John L. Barber, Jr., dismissed one man who had a job to go to; gave 10-day jail sentences to two; held one awaiting foreign police records, and gave the others 30-day suspended jail sentences, warning them to tell those they met in their travels that Eugene is not a good town for vagrants.

A man charged with running a red light was asked if he hadn't been giving more attention to the police car standing across the street from him than to traffic lights. He laughingly admitted that possibility.

Russia Withholds Shipments to US

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia withheld manganese and chrome shipments to the U.S. in May for second consecutive month, the Bureau reports.

Both metals, essential in turning out high grade steel, are considered so vital by the government that it buys them for stockpiling against a war emergency.

A Russian cut-off of manganese to the U.S.—in retaliation for the month U.S. ban against shipment of "war potential" goods to Russia—had been threatened last fall in Soviet dealings with private importers.
