Three Reedsport Weddings Reported

REEDSPORT—The marriage of Miss Georgia Moller of Corvallis, and Roy Henderson of Reedsport was a recent event at the parsonage of the local Baptist church. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Henderson, who is a graduate of the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, was an instructor in music at Oregon State College. They will reside in Reedsport.

Miss Natalie Adelaide Schumacher of Winchester Bay, became the bride of Roy Edward Johnson of the U. S. Coast Guard Stationed at Winchester Bay, at a Ceremony in late June at the Reedsport Community Church, manse, Rev. George Mortenson, officiating. Witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Norris.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Furney (Mary J. Divine) both formerly of Reedsport, announce their marriage which was an event of June 18th, at the Washink Lake home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Spencer of Florence.

BRIDE TO BE GUEST AT WESTFIR PARTY

WESTFIR—A "get acquainted" party, honoring Miss Charlotte Galloway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Galloway of Beaver, Rehwalt, was given by Mrs. Charles Goss at her home this week end. The evening was spent in talking over old times and games were played. Refreshments were served. Old friends of the family who attended were: Mrs. Gilbert Nelson, Mrs. Oral Woodruff, Oakridge; Mrs. William Parker, Mrs. B. Wier, Mrs. H. Wessner, Mrs. M. Elam and daughter, Marlene, Mrs. Arthur Bullis, Mrs. Harry Anthony, Mrs. Ken Sorenson, Mrs. A. T. Long, Mrs. Ralph Love, Mrs. A. E. Gerimonte, Mrs. William McMahon, Mrs. Floyd McVay and Mrs. Ed Allen.

SHOWER AT SWISSHOME

SWISSHOME—A shower for Miss Arlene Frazier, who is to be married to Floyd Watson of Portland July 15th, was held July 8 at the Evangelical Church. It was sponsored by the missionary group and a large number were in attendance. She received many gifts.

YOUNG MATRONS PICNIC PLANS INCLUDE BRIDES

Young Matrons Group of the Young Women's Christian Association will have an old fashioned family picnic supper Wednesday evening at six-thirty o'clock at the picnic grounds behind Skinner Butte. Special invitations have been sent to members of the Foreign Brides Club and their families to join the young matrons for the picnic.

Coffee and watermelon will be served by the committee in charge of the picnic and other dishes, as well as table service, are to be brought by individual members for each group.

OREGON ROSE THIMBLE CLUB PICNIC JULY 20

Oregon Rose Lodge Thimble Club will be entertained Wednesday afternoon and evening in the yard at the home of Mrs. Curtis White. Guests are to come at five o'clock and a picnic potluck dinner will be served, dessert to be brought by one potluck dish as well as table service. All members of Oregon Rose Lodge and their friends are welcome.

Mrs. E. L. Beall is cohostess.

HALSEY COUPLE WED

HALSEY—Miss Elsie Hamilton was married to James Tumlin recently in an outdoor ceremony at the home of the bride-groom's mother, Mrs. Victor Sweet, at Albany. Miss Mary Jane Hughes and Richard Hughes, niece and nephew of the bridegroom, were attendants. Mrs. O. L. Covalt officiated.

Others from Halsey attending the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Hughes and Mrs. Andrew Patapoff.

BRIDGE CLUB TO MEET

MRS. FIRSCH TO SPEND SUMMER WITH DAUGHTER

Mrs. Jessie Whitfield Pirsch of Lincoln, Neb., is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Anderson, 1415 Golden Avenue. She will be remembered by friends here, and is spending the summer.

RECIPE HINTS

Savory Pot Roast of Beef (6 servings with leftovers).
One-quarter pound beef suet, 4 pounds rump beef, in one piece, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon water, 6 tablespoons flour, 3 cups cold water.
Saute suet in a Dutch oven or large kettle until all the fat is fried out. Remove suet and brown the beef on all sides in the remaining fat, adding the salt and pepper while meat is browning. Add the 1 tablespoon water; cover and simmer over low heat for about 4 hours, or until meat is tender, turning meat occasionally during the cooking.
Then remove meat to a hot platter and keep warm. Remove all but 6 tablespoons of the fat from the Dutch oven. Stir in the flour, then add the cold water slowly while stirring. Cook, stirring until gravy thickens. Add more salt and pepper if necessary. Serve with the meat.

Cross Family Annual Reunion Is Held

Eighty-one friends and relatives gathered at Hagens Grove Sunday, July 10, for the annual reunion of the family, descendants of William R. and Sarah A. Cross. For the first time in the history of such family gatherings, all but one of the original sons and daughters were present at the reunion. Owing to illness in the family of Mrs. Thomas York of Oakland, Calif., she was unable to join the others.

Allen Cross of Modesto, Calif., one of the brothers, came from the farthest distance. Visitors who were present for the first time were Dr. and Mrs. L. O. Clement, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lee and son, Mrs. Dan H. Cross and Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Salem.

The group gathered for a potluck picnic dinner at noon, with tables bountifully spread, and the afternoon was spent at swimming, games and races. It was reported that one death had occurred in the past year, that of Mrs. Alice Swanson, mother of Mrs. Lee Cross. Highlight of the day was introduction of Mrs. Dan H. Cross, the former Majorie Talbot of Idaho Falls, Idaho. The couple was married July 8.

Church Members Greet New Pastor

CRESWELL—The Congregation of the First Methodist Church honored their new minister, Rev. Alexander Hawthorne and Mrs. Hawthorne at a reception on the church lawn Friday evening.

Mrs. E. C. Fisher gave the welcome and Rev. W. Lee Gray of the Presbyterian Church and Rev. Ronald Osborne of the Christian Church also spoke. Rev. Hawthorne responded graciously. Warren De LaVerne entertained with an accordion solo and group singing was led by Howard Walton.

Mrs. Dora Martin and Mrs. Irma Ogram of the fellowship committee of the Womens Society for Christian Service, were general chairmen for the evening and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Walton were hosts. Mrs. J. M. Walkup and Mrs. Evan Rand, Mrs. H. N. Traxler, and Mrs. George Ross assisted in serving refreshments.

Bride-elect Feted At Galvin Home

Miss Mary Lou Cairns was honored at a bridal shower given in the home of Mrs. J. P. Galvin, with her daughters, Mrs. George D. Hirtzman and Miss Patricia Galvin as co-hostesses.

After the gifts were opened, the hostesses served refreshments to the following, Mrs. W. L. Cairns, Mrs. A. C. Goethee, Miss Cecelia Cairns, Mrs. George Francis, Mrs. Jack Douglas, Mrs. Ray Twitty, Mrs. Thomas Breeden, Mrs. E. D. Furrer, Mrs. Don Furrer, Mrs. Rose Edison, Mrs. B. Horrell, Mrs. J. Loring, Mrs. John Rissberger, Mrs. Clara Heap, Mrs. William Bristow and Mrs. Bud Chase.

WOODMEN CIRCLE TO INSTALL NEW GROVE

Plans for initiation and installation of the new grove of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle at Roseburg were made Thursday evening at the meeting of the Springfield grove at 242 North Fifth Street. After the business session the members retired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis for a watermelon feed.

Next meeting of the Springfield grove will be Thursday evening also at 242 North Fifth Street. A rummage sale will be held Saturday at Gray's Second Hand Store in Springfield.
