

Yanks Even Score With Tribe . . .

New Yorkers Drub Cleveland

Associated Press
 Larry Doby's "skull" and Poe DiMaggio's hitting have put the cooler on Cleveland's pennant drive—at least temporarily.
 Doby drew a fine of an undisclosed amount Wednesday night after he was thrown out trying to steal home with the bases loaded and nobody out in the eighth inning. Doby's Cleveland mates trailed the league-leading New York Yankees, 7-3 at the time. That turned out to be the final score.
 Lefty Joe Page, who had just replaced "steady Eddie" Lopat was having his troubles. He walked Manager Lou Boudreau on four straight pitches to force in a run. He hadn't found the plate in two tosses to Bob Kennedy. Then it happened.

Doby broke for the plate as Page walked back toward the resin bag. The pitcher whirled and threw to Catcher Yogi Berra, who tagged Doby as he dove head first across the plate. Page proceeded to walk Kennedy. Then he found his stuff to hit Jim Hegan and make pinch hitter Ken Keltner ground to Bobby Brown.
 There seemed to be no excuse for Doby. Thirdbase Coach Steve O'Neill didn't send him in, although the crowd of 75,340 booed him. Doby's club trailed by four runs. It definitely was not any situation for a steal.
 DiMaggio, who lifted the Yankees past Boston when they threatened in late June, drove in three runs with a triple and a homer and scored twice as the Yankees again stretched their lead to a 4½ game.

 The Boston Red Sox dropped 8½ games behind the leaders by bowing to the Chicago White Sox, 8-7. The White Sox won in the ninth on a triple by George Metkovich, two intentional passes and Eddie Malone's outfield fly, scoring Metkovich.
 Detroit pushed over three runs in the eighth to shade Washington, 6-5. Johnny Lippin's squeeze bunt single scored Hoot Evers with the winning run. Evers led the attack with three singles off loser Mickey Harris.
 Brooklyn lost a full game of its advantage in the National. The St. Louis Cardinals clipped Brooklyn's margin to 2½ games by a 10-inning night game decision over the Boston Braves, 6-4, after the Dodgers lost an afternoon 8-6 verdict to the on-rushing Pittsburgh Pirates.

 Ralph Kiner lowered the boom on the Brooks, driving in five runs with home runs Nos. 25 and 26. His second homer came in the top of the ninth with two men on and Brooklyn leading, 6-5.
 Lou Klein, one of the three Cards who returned to organized ball from the Mexican League, belted a two-run double off the left field wall that broke up the Boston game in the 10th inning. The Braves routed Howie Pollet with four runs in the second inning.
 Hank Sauer drove in all the Chicago Cubs' runs with two homers and a triple in their 11-inning, 4-3, victory over the Phillies. Sauer, who hit only four homers for Cincinnati, now has 14 as a Cub and 18 for the year. His triple off reliever Curt Simmons scored Andy Pafko who singled in the eleventh.

 The New York Giants set a new major league consecutive inning scoring record while whipping Cincinnati, 5-1. By scoring in each of the first three innings, they extended their streak to 14 innings. The old record was 12, set by the Giants in 1923.
 Philadelphia at St. Louis in the American League was postponed because of wet grounds.

American Aces Trek to Oslo For Track Meet

NEW YORK, July 21—(AP)—The biggest mass movement of American athletes since the 1948 Olympics took place Thursday when 42 track and field stars left by plane for Oslo, Norway, where they joined 10 other U. S. stars for a dual meet with the Scandinavian countries, July 27-28-29.
 The U. S. squad, headed by Olympic and U. S. decathlon champion Harrison Dillard, included 14 national AAU champions and 21 of Uncle Sam's 1948 Olympic squad members.
 The AAU, which is sponsoring the trip, selected the athletes on the basis of their performances in the recent AAU outdoor championship. Brutus Hamilton of California will coach the Americans against stars from Sweden, Finland, Norway, Denmark and Iceland.
 The squad: Andy Stanfield and Frank Fox of Seton Hall; Robert Work and Wilbur Thompson of the Los Angeles AC; Don Campbell and Dave Bolen of Colorado; Art Brown and John Cox of Rice; Hugh Maiocco and Irving Mondschheim of New York University; Bob Pruitt, Dick Attlesley, Ron Fraser, Henry Aihara and John Montgomery, all of the University of Southern California; William Brown of Morgan State; William McGuire of Missouri; Clarence Robinson of Bingham Young; Fred Witt and Sam Fenton of the New York AC; Horace Ashenfelter of Penn State; Warren Dretzler of Michigan State; Clarence Doak and Herb Douglas of the Kaufman Settlement; Curtis Stone, of the Shanahan CC; Forest Efav of Stillwater, Okla.; Browning Ross of Villanova; Gaylord Bryan of Stanford; Eric Koutouhen of Fitchburg, Mass.; Dick Phillips of Brown; George Rasmussen of Oregon; Tom Montgomery of the San Francisco Olympic Club; Stan Lampert of the Pioneer Club; Victor Frank of Yale; Taylor Lewis and Cy Young of UCLA; Delfs Pickarts of Santa Barbara; William Albens of North Carolina; Johnny Kelley of Boston Edison employees; Lou White of the Boston AA; Mathias and Dillard.

SMU's Gil Johnson To Learn T-Formation

By Oscar Fraley
 United Press Sports Writer
 NEW YORK, July 21—(AP)—For a man who found Pacific submarine duty "monotonous," you wouldn't expect S.M.U.'s Gil Johnson to worry about clinching a job as a pro football player—but that's his chief mental exercise Thursday.
 A tall Texan who is a dead ringer for baseball's Dixie Walker, Gil explained it this way:
 "I played single wing at S.M.U. the last two years as we won the Southwest Conference championship. With the New York Yankees of the All-America Conference we will use the T-formation. It will take a lot of patience on the part of the coaches while I shift over."
 Regarded as one of the best passers to come out of the cow country since Slingin' Sammy Baugh, the six foot, two inch Johnson has plenty of competition for aerial duty with the Yanks. The squad includes seven passers and somebody has to go.
 Other Yankee tossers are Notre Dame's Angelo Berteli, Texas Pete Layden, USC's Dean Dill, San Francisco's Don Panciera and Nevada's Al Tabor. It's a tough league to crash, but Johnson is expected by Coach Norman "Red" Strader to wind up as the Yankee "wheel horse."
 "Of course, the Mustang can make the difference," Strader argued. "There's no team can't!" Strader argued. "Paul Christman and Gil Johnson will have excellent while he is 'figuring out' the T-formation. For his tutor will be Masterson, former Nebraska coach who schooled Frank Albert Bob Waterfield in the days of T-quarterbacking.
 Drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles of the rival National Football League, Johnson left school with the Yankees even though still had a year of college eligibility.
 Johnson said flatly that without his throwing arm Mustangs should sweep the third straight conference title. "They've got Doak and Albert, it, too, and Kyle Rote," he explained. "That will do it."
 Gil will go back to school spring and summer to finish his physical education degree. Somebody asked him how he would make more money than the Yanks than he had at S.M.U. "Of course not," he said. "They give you an oil well each touchdown."
 But he'll still get the $13,000 he'll get this year.

Saltzman Blanks Seattle For Portland 3-0

Fourteenth Win For Bevo Hurler

Hollywood Splits With Los Angeles

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21—(AP)—Youthful Hal Saltzman, experienced Ken Holcombe and Journeyman Lou Tost all came up with pitching beauties in the Pacific Coast League Wednesday night.
 The three hurlers tossed almost identical games, each shutting out the opposition and each allowing but three hits. Their combined efforts represented the best night pitchers have had in the loop this year.
 Taking them in order of seniority, Tost pitched the Oakland Oaks to a 3-0 win over the San Francisco Seals; Holcombe blanked the San Diego Padres to give Sacramento a 4-0 win; and Saltzman and his Portland Beavers whitewashed Seattle 3-0.
Angels Win Nightcap
 The first game of the Los Angeles-Hollywood doubleheader was also a pitching battle with the Stars winning out 3-2 in eight innings. Not so the second game. The nightcap was a wild affair that saw eight hurlers in action and also saw the surprising Angels clout the Twinks 10-5.
 Tost almost had to pitch a three-hitter to get a win from Al Lien as the Aces and the Seals put on their third straight hurlers' duel. Lien and his reliever, Cliff Melton, limited the Oaks to five blows. But one of them was a two run home run by Mel Duzabou in the second inning. Melton was seeing his first action since April 8 when he broke his foot in a game with Seattle.
 The rampaging Sacramento Solons made it 13 wins out of the last 15 games as they got to the Padres' Al Jurisich for eight hits and four runs. Holcombe needed only the two runs the Seals furnished him in the opening frame as he kept the Padres away from the plate for the entire distance. It was Holcombe's 13th win of the campaign.

Williams Meets Bolanos Tonight In Title Bout

LOS ANGELES, July 21—(AP)—Champion Ike Williams gives Mexico's Enrique Bolanos his third crack at the world lightweight crown Thursday night in a bout billed for 15 rounds at Wrigley Field.

Winner of the first two matches, the Negro clouter from Trenton, N. J., is generally favored to turn back the third challenge.
 But Bolanos' legion of admirers, here and in his native Mexico, are equally confident their terrors of the prize ring will pull an upset and become the first fighter of his native land to hold an undisputed title.
 Matchmaker Charley MacDonald, a veteran in fight matters, predicted a turnout of 18,000 to 20,000 fans and gate receipts of $100,000 up.
 The fight is being staged for the benefit of a youth foundation founded by Comedian Lou Costello.
 Referee for the bout, services gratis, will be Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight king.
 Ike won a somewhat unsatisfying split decision in 15 rounds of action in their last encounter. If the strategy pattern is repeated, Williams will be looking for a chance to slip over his deadly, counter punching right and Bolanos, normally a "head hunter" as the saying goes, will work on Ike's mid-section, hoping to soften him up.
 Bolanos bounced a couple off Ike's iron profile last time out and nothing happened. He shifted to the stomach regions and it is no secret that Ike was glad when the thing was over and he was helped to his dressing room.
 In their first battle Williams stopped Bolanos in eight rounds.

Eugene to Meet Albany Nine in League Series

ALBANY, July 21—Cummings third game is necessary the site will be determined by the flip of a coin.
Poles Triple
 Cummings exploded in the seventh and eighth innings to put the whammy on Corvallis. Catcher LeRoy Babcock slammed a triple in the seventh that drove in two runs and he scored when Corvallis hurler Von Summers balked.
 Albany put the game on ice in the eighth when Dick Heins scored on a ground ball, and Ron Radford came home on Bud Gibbs' triple.
Loose-Hitting Game
 It was a rugged, loose-hitting contest, and both clubs appeared tense under the strain of the play-off. They were tied for the northern division championship. Corvallis committed five errors and two of Cummings' runs scored as a direct result of errors by Catcher Mike Weatherbee of Corvallis.
 Heins led the hitting with three singles in four trips to bat.

14th Victory
 Saltzman, who used to belong to the Seattle Rainiers, gained a bit of revenge by shellacking the team that let him go. The Beavers spotted the young University of Oregon athlete a single run in the opening inning and then got two more in the ninth off Bellefer. Herb Karpel, Charles Schanz went the first eight innings and gave up but six hits as he got his 10th loss of the campaign. Saltzman's win was his 14th.
 Hollywood scrambled from behind to catch the Angels in the first game when Jim Baxes hit a seventh inning home run. Then in the eighth the league leaders potted the winning run off Angel Booker T. McDaniels who went in as a relief pitcher in the seventh. The Angels did the uphill climbing in the second contest, overcoming a four run Hollywood first inning to catch the Stars in the fifth. Wayne Terwilliger led the contest with a three-run homer in the ninth.

Records Cracked In Oregon AAU Swim

PORTLAND, July 21—(AP)—Three records were cracked as Multnomah Athletic Club and Portland Aquatic Club dominated the opening events of the Oregon AAU swimming meet Wednesday night.
 One of the record smashers, however, was unattached. He was Traver Campbell whose 38.4 for the 50-meter backstroke broke the old record for boys under 14. The other new records were set by Multnomah Club's 150-meter trio and by Johnny Good, PAC, in the 100-meter backstroke for boys 16 and under.
 Goode's time of 1:22.1 erased the 1:23.6 set in 1938 by Jerry Mulkey of Salem.

Olimpo Jr. Makes Grade at Longacres

SEATTLE, July 21—(AP)—It took Gilbert Simons, currently the Longacres race track's leading jockey, to get Olimpo Jr., home in front after several frustrating tries by other riders.
 But the son of Olimpo won the six furlong feature in 1:12 Wednesday to pay his faithful $20.60. Loumann and Derby Diem were second and third. The favored Happy Valley and Kelly's Rose were away back.
 The daily double of Sam Flower ($147.40) and Monomee ($12.50) was good for $95,140.
 The estimated crowd of 2110 contributed $114,390 to the mutuels.
