

Swimmer Saves Two Girls

KETCHIKAN, Alaska —(AP)— After a human chain formed by children failed to reach two young girls swept to sea by a riptide, a young man swam to their side and rescued them.
Another would-be rescuer, Conrad Ryan, 24, tried to buck the tide but blacked out and had to be rescued himself. A portable iron lung was flown from Ketchikan by the Coast Guard to revive Ryan.
The girls, Claire Guthrie, 12, and Lillian Ryan, 13, were picnicking at Metlakatla Beach 20 miles south of here. They were swept out by the tide while swimming.
Other children on the beach formed a human chain but were unable to reach the two girls.
Everett Hudson Jr., finally made the rescue.

Consul's Departure From China Delayed

NANKING —(AP)— A delay in the departure of American consular personnel from Mukden was reliably reported Wednesday to have caused U. S. Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart to postpone his trip to the United States.
Stuart has said he wants to see the Americans free of Mukden before he goes to Washington for a conference.
The Communists reportedly have agreed to permit Mukden Consul General Angus Ward and his staff safe conduct from the Manchurian city but a new hitch in the plans of the Americans was reported Wednesday. There was no amplification.

Earl to Marry Commoner Girl

LONDON —(P)— King George's nephew, the Earl of Harewood, will marry his Vienna-born fiancée, Miss Marion Stein, in the autumn.
The earl announced this soon after formal announcement of the nobleman-and-commoner engagement. The ceremony will be in a Church of England chapel.
The earl said Miss Stein, like himself, is a member of this official state church.
Miss Stein, a pianist, is 22. The earl, 26, is the son of the princess royal, Mary, sister of King George. He is 11th in line to the British throne.
ENOUGH TO SCARE A MAN
ST. LOUIS —(AP)— John W. Thompson plopped a loaded 15-pound bomb into his truck and nonchalantly drove to the naval airport station. He told officers he had loaded. He was informed that the bomb was the anti-personnel type and would have exploded if the truck had gone over a severe bump.
According to Homer, steel axes were valued prizes in Grecian games.

Social Burglar Gets 18 Years

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. —(AP)— Gerard Graham Dennis, the dapper, 29-year-old socialite burglar who rifled jewel boxes of more than $1 million to support his coast-to-coast network of love nests, was sentenced to 18 years to life in Sing Sing Prison.
When he is released, Dennis will be turned over to Toronto authorities to complete a Canadian prison term which he was serving when he escaped in 1943.
The handsome Raffles showed no emotion as Judge Albert T. Gallagher sentenced him to 18 years to life on each of seven counts of burglary, the sentences to run concurrently.
As he turned to leave the courtroom, Dennis mopped his forehead with a white handkerchief.
Dennis' million-dollar jewelry robberies stretched from coast to coast. But he was sentenced on the seven counts of three indictments to which he pleaded guilty in Westchester County Court. Officials said nothing would be done about nine other indictments against him here.

Jerries Want Stronger Beer

HAMBURG, Germany —(AP)— German brewers, faced with a declining market at home and abroad, are petitioning Allied authorities for permission to put some pre-war pep back into their beer.
German beer has come a long way from the watery brew turned out just after the war. Last autumn's improved grain supplies made it possible to increase alcoholic strength to 75 per cent of the pre-war brew. But Germans, and foreigners, still are not drinking it in large quantities.
British zone brewery directors at a meeting in Dortmund, found that "German consumption of beer is way below pre-war standard and there is no hope of better business in the near future."
The directors announced that they were working at only 25 per cent of capacity. They asked the German economic council to release another 350,000 tons of grain to brew 350,000,000 gallons of peace-time quality beer.
One thing besides the quality that keeps Germans from drinking beer is the price. Pre-war a pint cost the equivalent of three American cents. Now it is twenty. Beer hall waiters no longer automatically set a pint before a newly-arrived customer with the certainty that that's what he wants. Now they wait until the customer orders one.

Governor Backs Free Indians

PHOENIX, Ariz. —(AP)— Gov. Dan E. Garvey has proposed that the state take over supervision of reservation Indians because it is "high time they became citizens in the true sense of the word."
Garvey, chief executive of the state with the largest reservation Indian population, said he favored a bill proposed by the South Dakota congressional delegation to give the states physical control of the reservations. But he said he "would go even further."
He said states could operate the reservations more efficiently and for "considerably smaller appropriations" than the federal government, but that they could not carry the financial burden of supervision for "some time."
Garvey suggested that federal appropriations be made directly to the states and that the states take over education, road construction, policing and other administrative problems of the reservations.
He pointed out that the Navajo and Hopi reservations were rich in natural resources and that the Indians would be able in time to pay taxes like all citizens. Then, he said, the states would assume financial responsibility for the public works in the United States and abroad during the war. I died Wednesday, July 13, 1949, in New York City. I was born in New York City. Libia is the ancient name for Africa.

AT WORK OR PLAY:
Unbreakable Glasses Mean Vision Safety

The serious danger of injury to the eye is now minimized by the new Unbreakable Lenses, featured by the Semler Optical Offices.

Glasses with Unbreakable Lenses are particularly recommended as an industrial safety measure for shop or factory workers. They are also becoming more and more popular as an added protection and convenience for men and women who take part in active sports, where ordinary glasses are frequently broken.

At the Semler Optical Offices, the new Unbreakable Lenses are scientifically-ground to the exact prescription of Registered Optometrists. For those who now wear glasses, it is necessary to have an accurate refraction; simply trying on glasses to the Semler Optical Offices. There is no delay in obtaining unbreakable glasses as they are ready in only one day (no tinting required). It is not necessary to pay for new glasses at Semler's; the known Semler Liberal Credit and purchasers are invited to their own reasonable credit carrying charges, and terms of 10c a day can be arranged.

The Semler optical offices are located at the corner of Williams Street (Phone 3-2121) and in offices in Salem & Portland.

Silver Dollars Found After Plane Crash

SEATTLE —(AP)— Seattle police are holding for safekeeping two cardboard cartons of silver dollars found scattered in the wreckage of a C-46 transport plane Tuesday night. Police said there was about $5000, largely in silver dollars, in the two boxes. Firemen scooped up the coins with their stiff hats.

Mayor Polishes Apples For Daughters of West

SAN JOSE, Cal. —(AP)— Sweet-talking Mayor Fred Watson knows how to make a hit with the ladies.
He was talking to about 1000 of the Native Daughters of the Golden West when he paved one foot in the dirt and belted: "You California women are the most beautiful in the entire nation."
The girls just sat there and beamed. And then Watson really warmed up to his subject. He gave them all a wink and said: "I'm delighted, simply delighted to find myself the only male in this room—with the doors closed!"
The ladies like that, too. Then, still giggling, they finally got down to conference business.

Young Speeders Get Handwriting Chore

SUFFOLK, Va. —(AP)— Two young Virginians had to work out sentences imposed by Justice Marshall Bowden. Instead of the usual $50 fine for speeding or reckless driving, the judge fined Lewis Belote, 20, and George Salmon, 25, each $25, plus a chore of twice copying, in longhand, a "teenicide" article in the July Reader's Digest.

Hitch-Hiker

LONDON —(P)— This is a tale of a bird in (not on) the wing.
An airliner, returned from a roundtrip to Corsica, developed a twitter. Mechanics opened a wing and discovered a bird had built a nest inside.
The Western Hemisphere produced 77.8 per cent of the world's oil in 1948.
