

Plans Out For Monroe's Picnic At Yachats Park

MONROE — The fourth annual overnight community picnic for Monroe and all South Benton County will be held Aug. 20 and 21 at Yachats Forest Park.

Take your own basket lunch and blankets. Coffee will be furnished. The picnic is sponsored by the local American Legion post. Further announcements will follow.

Monroe Fire Department was called out to two stubble fires this week: one late Thursday afternoon to the Clyde Starr ranch in Monroe vicinity; and the other Friday afternoon to the George Fissure place in Alpine vicinity. No damage was reported in either case.

Hundley's Market and the Marion McCallum Furniture Store were brightened up this week with a coat of new paint on the outside. Don Thorn of the Monroe community was painter.

Dwain McCallum, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion McCallum, has returned here from a several days' vacation spent with relatives in Longview, Wash.

Rev. and Mrs. B. E. Young and family have moved into the downstairs apartment of the Louise Bowen house for the duration of the summer. They are here from Parkdale, Arizona, where Rev. Young is pastor of the Free Methodist Church there. He wanted to take his vacation in a cooler climate.

Rev. and Mrs. Young have three children: Jean, 16, a junior in high school this fall; Melvin, 13, ready for his freshman year in high school; and Judy, four. They have their little Boston Bull Terrier, Perky, with them. They plan to be here until Oct. in September, taking in bean harvest to earn trip expenses.

Florence News

FLORENCE — Peter Thorby and son, Ray, of Cottage Grove, are new Florence residents. Roy has opened a radio shop next to the Florence Frozen Food Market. A veteran of the recent war, Roy Thorby has ten years radio experience, both as a civilian and serviceman.

The elder Thorby is an experienced restaurant operator, and plans to be operating a restaurant here soon. He is awaiting sale of his Cottage Grove farm before bringing his wife here.

Educational, instructive and social meetings are planned for the next six months by Sunset Rehearsal Lodge. At its recent meeting, proper posture and salute to the flag when presented at the lodge ceremony were demonstrated.

A series of progressive luncheons have been started in the interest of funds for new upholstered seats in the lodge hall, with the first of the series being held at the home of Mrs. Merle Hanson.

The meeting of the club will be held at the hall until further notice, on the second and fourth Mondays of each month, at 8 p. m.

A daughter, Joyce Lynn, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver La Duke Jr., at Eugene, July 27. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Crain of Florence and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver LaDuke Sr., of Cushman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harris and Mrs. Chester Lee are vacationing in southern California for two weeks.

A son, William James, weighing six and one-half pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. William J. Carson, July 22, in Florence. Leslie Thompson of Tiernan and Richard Thompson of Glenada are uncles.

Mrs. Ivan Anderson of Eugene has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Striker in Glenada.

Visiting her daughter, Mrs. Zephia Burgess is Mrs. Margery Cresson of Noti.

THREE LINKS MEETS AT MAPLETON

MAPLETON — Three Links Club meets Wednesday with Mrs. Walter Camp, Mrs. Gordon Camp and Mrs. Marvin Chesebro will help serve refreshments.

Teen Dances At Florence

FLORENCE — Siuslaw Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles is holding open-house each Friday afternoon for the teen-age group. There will be music for dancing, or games. Pop, candy and gum can be purchased. A chaperon will be on hand for the Eagles, who have arranged this community service.

A cordial welcome is extended to all boys and girls of the community.

News Briefs Of Reedsport

REEDSPORT — At a special election in the City Hall from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Aug. 23, Reedsport voters will decide whether or not they wish to annex three tracts of land lying adjacent to the city on the southwest.

The property involved is known as the former CCC tract, the Longbell property and the new high school property. Petitions requesting the special election were accepted and a resolution authorizing the same was adopted at a special meeting of the City Council recently.

Present at the meeting were Mayor Lillebo and councilmen Richard Simpson, John Unger, Irving Johnson, T. H. Richmond and Earl Baltazar. The special election board will consist of Mrs. Juanita Halliday, judge-chairman; Ruth Sullivan, judge; Maude Wright, clerk; Wilhelmina Gay, clerk and Violet Franklin Birdsell.

Plans are nearing completion and much interest shown in the Western Douglas County Fair to be held Aug. 13 and 14 at Winchester Bay Grange Hall.

Several hundred people attended the grand opening and open house held Saturday at the recently completed Love Pontiac sales room on Highway 101.

Approximately 80 boats carrying approximately twice that many fishermen were reported on Winchester Bay Sunday. Salmon catches were poor throughout the day but improved considerably toward evening.

The fishing boats "Res" and "We" were damaged considerably Monday evening when rammed by the lumber freighter Karen Olson, which was caught in the current of the river as it was leaving the Bridge Mill dock on route to the Gardiner Lumber Mill. The Karen Olson is due back in port on Sunday, July 31 where it will take on another lumber cargo at the E. K. Wood, Bridge and Gardiner Lumber Co. mills.

Swimming classes for western Douglas County residents are being held each day this week at Lake Cleawox under the direction of Jan Parker, life guard at the lake. Buses for senior swimmers and those wishing life saving instruction leave the American Legion Hall each morning at 8:45 and for beginners and intermediates at 12:45 p.m. Cost of transportation tickets for the ten days is $3.

AT ALDERWOOD PARK

ALDERWOOD PARK — Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cliney, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thomsen, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Amason, children and Mrs. Nettie Amason attended the Lane county state highway employees' annual picnic at Lake Cleawox, south of Florence, Sunday.

Sam Borling Jr. has been very busy the past week hauling hay and grain for the farmers near here.

Your news reporter Mrs. Clarence Cox would like to hear from you about your visitors, visits you make and any other news of interest you have. This district takes in from Alderwood park to Dandy's mill and out lying road sides and farms. Please cooperate so we may have news every week.

Mrs. A. G. Cliney is spending a few days visiting her son Richard Cliney and family of Bally Hill.

Many enjoyed picnicking at Alderwood State Park over the weekend. We are very glad to have you help us enjoy our recreation spot.

WE MISS YOU, PINKY

BLANCHY — A certain "tang" seems to be lacking in Blachy and Horton these days. Gordon Wilsonne, "Pinky" to you, has accepted a position with the Lumber Cooperative at Swisshome and has set up housekeeping there. However he will continue to come back on Tuesday and Saturday evenings with his movies—P.T.A. sponsored.

Roman soldiers had weapons and armor of iron and steel. The swords carried at one time by Roman soldiers were of Spanish steel.

enjoy it while you work

WRIGLEY'S PEARMINT CHEWING GUM

HEALTHFUL · REFRESHING · DELICIOUS

News Briefs Of Creswell; Water Pipes In

CRESWELL — Eight inch pipes are now being laid from the site of the new city reservoir to the city limits and along Fifth Street to Oregon Avenue where it connects with the present pipe line. The reservoir is nearing completion and should be done by the middle of August.

Floyd A. Everson is planning a complete body and tender department in his Creswell Garage. Del B. Pitzer, who is experienced in body and tender work, painting, upholstery and glass installation, will be in charge of the department. Pitzer was formerly in this work in Bandon.

Sergeant Clay Hubbard left Thursday for Fort Sill, Oklahoma after spending several weeks leave with his mother, Mrs. Mary Hubbard.

Jack Crisp, son of Ralph W. Crisp, has enlisted for a three year training course in the United States Navy. He will train in the electronic field.

Mardell Cartwright and Donna Hoodenpyle are spending a week at Girl Scout camp at Lake Cleawox.

Willie F. Powell has purchased the Ogram tract in the West Creswell heights district.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Traxler and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith are spending the week at the Traxler cottage at Heceta Beach.

Junction News

JUNCTION CITY — The fire department answered a call at 12 noon Friday, to the Alvin Renta place where a stubble fire was burning. Only a small amount of grain was lost.

Mrs. May Gardner has returned from a two weeks vacation with her son and family, the Clyde Deals of Empire. While she was visiting they took a motor trip to Crater Lake, through southern Oregon, into northern California, and back home up the coast and through the Redwoods.

Mrs. Henry Carlsen and daughter arrived home this week from Dwight, Ill., where Mrs. Carlsen was called by the death of her mother, Mrs. Ida Haag.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gilmore will leave Monday by train for Kenosha, Wis., for an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Morgan of Junction City, accompanied by Mrs. Morgan's nieces, Mrs. J. P. Nielsen of Lebanon and Mrs. Dorothy Longmire and children of Eugene, have returned from attending a reunion of Mrs. Morgan's family, the Hunts, in South Dakota. While there they were privileged to attend the Passion Play held in the Black Hills of South Dakota each year.

AT HALSEY

HALSEY — The 4-H Club picnic, advertised last week to be held on Aug. 31, is to be held instead on July 31, Sunday at Avery Park, in Corvallis. The livestock clubs are to furnish ice-cream and punch. All other club members, parents, friends and leaders attending bring picnic lunches.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Vannice and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vannice visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gillis at Newberg Sunday.

D. H. Sturtevant visited his daughters, Mrs. Jack House and Mrs. Ruth Wright in Portland over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harding, Marlene and Martin spent the weekend at the coast.

Mrs. Ben Holt enjoyed a visit last week from her uncle, Lester Ludwig of Gillespie, Illinois, whom she had not seen for about 30 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Quimby visited Mrs. Quimby's father, Ernest Albertson at the Veteran's hospital in Portland Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Vannice have received word of the birth of a new granddaughter, their first born to their son and daughter-in-law, Navy Aviation Chief Mechanic James Vannice, stationed at Whidbey Island. The little girl was born July 20 at Mt. Vernon, Wash. and weighed eight pounds. Her name is Jacqueline and she has a brother Jimmy. The Vannices have two other grandchildren.

AT WILLAGILLESPIE

WILLAGILLESPIE — Mr. and Mrs. George Hammock are the parents of a son, Mrs. Hammock was formerly Karen Kuntz.

Mrs. Harris Hurd is the counselor for the Junior Miss Camp at Arrah Wauna this week. She will also have the handcraft class. Charmalee Spencer and Mary Ellen Hurd are attending from this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Means are proud grandparents of Richard Allen, new son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Brown (Billie Jean Means) former residents now living in Texas.

Mrs. Elmer Gustafson and daughter Brenda and Nancy Foster are vacationing in Wisconsin.

Circus Soon At Florence

FLORENCE — Seal Bros. circus and trained animal exhibition is scheduled to show in Florence for two performances on Aug. 6. The huge tented city will be erected on the high school grounds.

Among the many features are the highly trained "liberty" horses presented by Bud E. Anderson; the Bantis, presenting their new sensations of the tight wire; the DeKohl Trio, a class in the art of juggling; Lloyd Center, contortion routines; Chief Keys and his company of Choctaw Indians, presenting knife throwing, shooting and roping, attired in colorful Indian regalia; Wilhelmina, ponderous elephant, tops the greatly enlarged animal exhibition, which includes educated ponies, monkeys and dogs, with fun making clowns delighting the children.

Performances are scheduled to start at 2 p. m., with doors opening one hour earlier.

Meeting List For Florence

FLORENCE — Three Links Club will meet Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 3, at 1 o'clock at the Odd Fellows Hall, with Mrs. Harlie Stewart and Mrs. Wayne Waite being hostesses for dessert luncheon. Business meeting will follow.

The Siuslaw Pioneers will hold an all-day picnic and reunion, Saturday, Aug. 13, at the American Legion Hall in Florence, with the Windsor Wells family to be honored.

This is the 28th annual picnic to be held and the public is extended a cordial welcome by President Mrs. Laura Dahlin Erlanson.

A donkey ball game will immediately follow the regular town team league baseball game here Aug. 14, under auspices of the local Lions Club.

Players are needed and anyone interested in participating in the fun is asked to sign up with any Lions Club member.

Don Smith is editor of the Lions Weekly Bulletin during the absence of Harold Anderson.

Jerry Medcalf, principal of Siuslaw High School, will be guest speaker at the next meeting of the Lions Club, scheduled Aug. 3, at the YW Hall. Medcalf will discuss local schools, how they are operated, what comprises the school district, and improvements in the immediate future.

Families At Crow Have Busy Summer

CROW — Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Sikes are giving their store a new coat of paint on the inside, and other improvements.

Delmer Gates has started logging this week on his own place. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sellers and Sheryl Ann have been staying with her stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Anle Smith will live in a house near the Smith mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Frazier and small son have moved to be near his logging work for Frank McCulloch. They live in a trailer house back of Robert McDaniels at Hadleyville. He will also be a watchman for fires in the woods.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Fleck celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary July 21 at a dinner at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Liles. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Liles and W. R. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gibson of Tillamook spent a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Gibson. R. R. Gibson was recently hurt while helping haul hay on the Ray Bower farm when the tractor came unhooked from the tractor and caught his ankle against a post. He is able to get around but has a very sore ankle. Mr. Bower, who is well known here, is quite sick and away taking treatments.

HAISEY NEWS

HAISEY — The Christian Church will observe fifth Sunday with a potluck dinner July 31.

Mrs. Phil Forster is ill at her home here. Her daughter, Mrs. Herman Steinke of Sandy is visiting her and helping care for her.

Jerry Leeper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Leeper, had the misfortune to fracture his left shoulder when he fell down the stairs in his home here about 3:30 a.m. Saturday while walking in his sleep.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koonitz and sons, Herman and Jimmie spent the week-end at Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Leeper and Jerry went over on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Isom and their granddaughter, Marilou Meadows spent Sunday at the Carl Price home near Swisshome. Marilou, who had been spending the past two weeks with her grandparents, returned to her home near Florence Sunday evening, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Meadows, who were also at the Price home.

FROM MARCOLA

MARCOLA — The Parsons Creek Women's Club meets Wednesday, Aug. 3, with Mrs. Cecil S. Hammond at the Circle C and S Ranch. Everyone on Parsons Creek invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hopkins have purchased the Frank Cowan home on Main Street, and are moving in this week.

QUITE A DOG

OAKVILLE, Tenn. 428 — Mrs. Ernest S. Vesco's dog, Mickie cracks pecans with his teeth and gets the meats out all by himself.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

REX MORGAN, M. D.

ALLEY OOP

BUZZ SAWYER

STEVE ROPER

HA! WHADD'YU KNOW!

WHY... DOESN'T SHE... ANSWER?

ISN'T THAT MRS. WESCOTT, JAY-DEE?

TO HECK WITH THE BUNCH! IT'S THE MOON THAT INTERESTS US!

CRASH!

AT THIS MOMENT IN RIVERSIDE Sanitarium!

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Tele-fun by Warren Goodrich

"There's someone on the line, but I'll interrupt if you really think this is an emergency!"...To make emergency calls over busy lines, simply explain the circumstances to the other person...Pacific Telephone.