Snead Western Open Winner

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 1—(AP)—Sam Snead, the White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., professional who says he's "tired of golf" had something Monday to relieve that tired feeling.

It was the $2600 he won Sunday by taking first place in the 48th annual Western Open with a 72-hole total of 268. That score bettered the Western Open record of 270, set in 1947 by Johnny Palmer, Badin, N. C., and equaled the record for the 6557-yard Keller Course, set in 1946 by Henry Ransom.

Cary Middlecoff of Memphis shot a 65 Sunday to boost himself to a four-round total of 272 and take down $1900 second money.

Snead's first-place money increased his winnings in the professional golfers' list to $23,560.83, with Middlecoff staying right behind him with a total of $21,924.57.

Lloyd Mangrum, Chicago; Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., and Chick Harbert, Detroit, finished Sunday's round with 273s. Mangrum shot a 70, Demaret a 67 and Harbert a 71 in the final round. They each won $1183.34.

Ted Neist of Walla Walla, Wash., finished in a two-way tie for 18th place and Ed Oliver, Seattle, was grouped with six others for 20th. Neist had a 283, Oliver 284.

Confident Aussies Await Italian Team

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 1—(U.P.)—A confident Australian tennis team Monday took aim at Italy, the next stepping stone in its quest for the Davis Cup.

The Aussies, paced by Frank Sedgman, Billy Sidwell and the veteran John Bromwich, made a clean sweep of their five-match meeting with Mexico in the American zone finals, which ended with two singles matches Sunday.

The triumph qualified them to meet Italy, winners of the European finals, in the inter-zone finals at Rye, N. Y., Aug. 12-14. A victory against the Italians would make them eligible to chalenge the United States for the cup later this month.

The Australians refused to let up against their Mexican opponents Sunday, although they had clinched the best-of-five series with previous victories in two singles and a doubles match.

Bromwich, two-handed veteran of Davis Cup battles since 1937, had little difficulty in setting back Mexico's Armando Vega in straight sets, 6-0, 6-1, 6-4.

Sidwell also proved his worth as a Cup contender when he gave Australia its final victory by defeating Miguel Reyes Varela, 6-2, 6-2, 6-1.

Harold "Whitey" Lokan, University of Oregon righthanded pitcher in 1948, has signed a contract with Bakersfield in the fast class "C" California State League. Lokan, who won three and lost two with an earned-run average of 0.97 for Oregon, plans to remain in California as a high school coach next fall. Lokan joins a club that already boasts two former Webfoots — Outfielders Wimpy Quinn and Johnny Kovenz.

Negotiations Started For Salem Club's Sale

SALEM, Aug. 1—(AP)—Assistant Secretary of State William E. Healy was in Portland Monday negotiating with the Portland Beavers for the sale of the Salem Western International League baseball club.

Healy did not identify his backers, who he said have put up $60,000 to make the sale.

The Portland management, however, has said it would like to sell for not less than $75,000.

Healy long has been interested in baseball. He used to be a part owner of the Bellingham WIL club before the Bellingham franchise was transferred to Salem.

Hollywood Take Pair From Bevos

Sacs Lose Two, Gives Twinks Big Loop Lead

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1 — (U.P.)— Top notch pitching moved the Hollywood Stars a couple of notches further ahead of the pack in the Pacific Coast League race Sunday, but it was Los Angeles pitching that did it.

Los Angeles pitchers turned the fire hose on the flaming Sacramento Solons and gave them a lone run to remember the day's doubleheader by. The Angels shook Sacramento's first place aspirations by winning two games, the first 7-1 and the second 3-0.

Others Split

Meanwhile Hollywood got good enough pitching and timely hitting to beat Portland 12-3 and 5-2 to move six and a half games out in front of the Sacs.

None of the other teams challenged Hollywood as they all split their twin features. San Francisco murdered San Diego 13-0 in the first one and then bowed 4-1 in the nightcap. Oakland racked up a 13-7 win first and then was wrecked 6-4.

Don Watkins held the Solons to five hits in the opener and was helped along by Clarence Maddern and Johnny Ostrowski who hit home runs for the Angels. It was Ostrowski's 32nd round-tripper.

Sacramento got even less in the second game. Don Carlsen went six innings and allowed only one hit, then gave way to Cal McLish who let the Solons have another in the seventh frame. All the Angel runs came in the sixth, while they only got four hits off Orval Grove and Dick Conger.

Hollywood snowed the Beavers under a 15-hit attack in the first game. Jim Baxes hit a home run for the Stars and Chuck Stevens hit one with the sacks full. Leo Thomas clouted one for the Beavers.

In the second game Glenn Moulder scattered six Portland hits as the Stars made the most of five blows and two Portland errors. Frank Kelleher homered for the Stars.

Spins Four-Hitter

Harry Feldman pitched a four-hit masterpiece for the Seals in the opener, accompanied by the home run hitting of Roy Jarvis, Walt Judnich, Frank Shofner and Brooks Holder. The Seals got 19 blows for the day's top output. In the second they dropped to three hits and dropped the game also when Al Rosen homered in the eighth with two men on for San Diego.

Oakland and Seattle put on a couple of hit parades as the pitchers marched to the mound in close order drill. In the opener Seattle used five and Oakland three, but the Oaks outpitchered Seattle six to one in the second game.

Chief Hurlers Skimpy With Bremerton Hits

(United Press)

The Wenatchee Chiefs, who have doled out only three runs in the last 25 innings to skidding Bremerton, slapped them down twice Sunday, 2-1 and 9-1, plunging the 'Jackets from fifth place to the threshold of the Western International League cellar.

The twin win came on the heels of the Chiefs' 4-1 victory over Bremerton Saturday.

In Sunday's doubleheader, Wenatchee allowed Bremerton batters only four hits in each contest.

The only other games played Sunday were the two between Tacoma and Spokane. The Tigers broke up a fifth inning 4-4 deadlock with a four-run splurge to take the nightcap, 8-5, after dropping a close decision in the opener, 2-1. The Spokes' ninth inning rally snapped a tie in that first game. Tacoma swept both ends of a Saturday night twin bill, 3-1 and 5-4.

Vancouver trailed Victoria by four full games after copping a doubleheader from Salem Saturday, 12-4 and 8-7 while the league-leaders salvaged a split decision from Victoria. The Athletics blanked the Bears 5-0 on three hits in the opener and barely lost the nightcap, 2-1, when their ninth inning rally fizzled. The split put Victoria in fifth place.

Two More Teams Out Of State Semi-Pro Tournament Play

PORTLAND, Aug. 1—(AP)—Two more teams tumbled out of the state semi-pro baseball tournament Sunday night.

They were the Odell Firemen, ousted, 10-2, by Albany's defending champions, and Sweet Home, eliminated, 3 to 1, by the Portland Red Sox. That left 19 clubs still in the tourney.

Tam O' Shanter Opens In Chicago This Week

CHICAGO, Aug. 1—(AP)—Golf reaches the realm of the fantastic this week with presentation of the Tam O'Shanter $66,200 variety show.

The gold rush starts Friday and continues merrily for 10 days.

In addition to being the world's richest golf outing, it is the longest, has the biggest field (about 500), and, without a doubt, is the screwiest.

Any golfer who can hear the tinkle of a dime during a stampede of longhorns will be there.

The Tam, which has been a confusion of golfing traffic in the past, will be more so this time. Promoter George S. May, club president and former Bible salesman, has a new package deal for his estimated average of 15,000 daily customers.

He offers seven tournaments in one. Running the first five days are the All-American men's pro tourney, the All-American Men's amateur and the All-American Women's Open.

When all this is over, it's only the beginning.

Then starts the world championships of golf (promoter May's world).

On a 72-hole medal basis, these tournaments fall into four classifications—men pros, men amateurs, women pros and women amateurs.

Charles Hurls Words At New York's Eagan

"What does that man want?" demanded Charles, who is recognized as heavyweight champion by the National Boxing Association. "Why doesn't he recognize me as champion? What is a champion? A champion is the best in his class, and that's me. I've licked everything except Eagan's second guess."

Monarchs Here Against Locals

19th and Lawrence Scene of Contest

The world - renowned Kansas City Monarchs were due in Eugene late Monday afternoon preparatory to their Monday night engagement with the Eugene All-Stars at 19th and Lawrence.

Game time will be 8 p.m., with tickets going on sale at the gate at 6:45 p.m. Prices are $1.00 for a limited 200 reserved seats, 75 cents for general admission and 25 cents for children.

The local team made their first appearance as a unit in Eugene last Saturday night when they dropped a 2-0 decision to the crack Harlem Globetrotters. But Manager Dick Bishop has announced his team has every intention of making the second contest a winning one—thereby finishing their abbreviated season with a 1-1 record.

Bishop's biggest concern is his pitching. Cocky Brewer is the only member of the All-Star staff who didn't work a game Sunday and undoubtedly will have the starting nod fall to him. For insurance Bishop has young Bud Stoltz, an importee from Bandon in reserve.

The rest of the All-Star lineup is pronounced "fit". It'll line up with Del Koch behind the plate, Allie Cooper on first, Jack Fassett at second, Don Kirsch at short, Ray Stratton at third. In the outfield will be Pete Taylor, Cahlrey Mickleson and Ted Wilson.

The Kansas City Monarchs boast the best record of any traveling team, having won over 86 per cent of their games. Although their ranks have been depleted somewhat by the promotion to organized baseball of such players as Jackie Robinson, Satchel Paige, and Booker T. McDaniels they still have a club that could hold its own in almost any competition.

Manager "Cool Papa" Bell has a pitching staff of six to choose from and any one of the ace flingers are apt to set the All-Stars down with little difficulty.

Talbert Tops Pancho In Tourney Finals

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 1 —(U.P.) — This year's U. S. Davis Cup team will not be formed for another month, but a berth on the four-man squad practically was assured Billy Talbert Monday.

Talbert, who is 31-years-old and considered past his peak by most experts, pulled one of the biggest upsets of the season Sunday by turning back Richard "Pancho" Gongales of Los Angeles, 6-4, 5-7, 3-6, 7-5, 6-2, in the finals of the Meadow Club invitation tournament.

It was the third important title gained by Talbert in the last month. The New York veteran previously copped the Eastern clay courts championship and the New York state crown.

Talbert teamed with Gardnar Mulloy of Miami to defeat Gonzales and Hugh Stewart of San Marino, Cal., 6-4, 6-4, 6-4, in the finals of the men's doubles.

Meanwhile, at nearby East Hampton, Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Cal., won the maidstone women's invitation championship by defeating Doris Hart of Jacksonville, Fla., 6-1, 7-5.

In the doubles finals, Miss Brough and Mrs. Margaret Osborne Du Pont of Wilmington, Del., whipped Miss Hart and Shirley Fry of Akron, O., 6-2, 6-4.

Drain, Medford To Clash For Junior Legion Tourney Berth

BY Bill Stratton
Register-Guard Sports Writer

DRAIN — Aug. 1—The Junior Legion teams of Medford and Drain will meet here Monday night to decide the Southern Oregon entry in the state playoffs, to be held Aug 6-9 at Albany.

The Medford team, superbly coached by Al McDonald, forced the state semi-final tournament into the seventh game here Sunday night with a 9-6 victory over the host Drain club. Medford had lost in an 11-inning second round game to Drain, 5-4 but collectively found a batting eye and waded through two games Sunday to stay in the running. In an afternoon game Sunday, the Southern-most entry of the tourney eliminated Coos Bay with a free-hitting 10-3 win.

Uses Breaks

Eugene, the pre-tournament favorite was eliminated by dropping its first two games to Drain, 3-2, and Coos Bay, 1-0.

Medford took advantage of every break to upset Drain in the Sunday night contest. Medford drilled two Drain hurlers for nine hits, and received help by eight Drain bobbles.

It was the reverse of what was expected, however. Drain which is one of the two teams sponsored by Floyd Githen's Motors of Cottage Grove, had a full day's rest and Medford was fighting an uphill battle after dropping one game in the double elimination tournament. But the local team appeared nervous throughout, and not only was consistently sloppy in the field, but was unable to account for tallies with runners on bases.

Medford took a quick lead over Drain by scoring three runs in the first two innings on four hits and two errors. But Drain paraded seven men to bat to score two runs in the third inning and make the score 3-2 for Medford. After Medford tallied one of its three earned runs in the fifth, the Drain club put together two hits and two Medford bobbles to score three runs and take their first and only lead of the game.

Medford came back to tie the score at 5-5 in the seventh and put the game on ice with a four-run rally in the eighth. Earl Simpson rattled one of his two triples to start a rally for Drain in the ninth, but it netted only one run.

Alternates Pitchers

McDonald used good strategy in the climactic game by alternating his pitchers, thus saving talent for the show-down game Monday. He used three hurlers, three innings each. Don Joslyn started for the Drain team, but was driven from the mound in the eighth after giving up four runs and three hits.

Mickey Coen Finished the Game

In the afternoon game Medford ganged up to hammer two Coos Bay hurlers for 12 hits and 10 runs. Medford used up two pitchers from the coastal entry. Pat Simmons led the Medford attack with four hits, including a double, in five tries, and Don Maddox had "three for four."

Vallejo Ends FWL Activity By Losing

(Associated Press)

The Vallejo Chiefs bowed out of the Far West baseball League with only token resistance.

Medford's Nuggets subdued them 13-2 Sunday night. It was the final feeble effort for the Chiefs, who were without a home park and had been ordered disbanded by the league. The circuit will finish the season with seven teams.

The Pittsburg Diamonds stretched their league lead to seven games by taking both ends of a doubleheader with Klamath Falls.

Diamond Hurler Blair Simpson shut out the Gems 5-0 in the opener for his 11th straight win against no losses. Successive doubles by Vince DiMaggio and Tony Filippo gave Pittsburg the margin in a 4-2 nightcap.

The Willows Cardinals took Santa Rosa for two games. They staged big third and fifth frames Saturday night to take an 11-7 decision and, sparked by Gene Painter's and Burt Bonomi's homers, scored a 6-3 win Sunday night. The double win gave the Cards the series 2-1.

The Marysville Braves edged the Redding Browns 7-6 Saturday night and then lost to the Browns 11-7 Sunday night. The Braves took the series, 2-1.

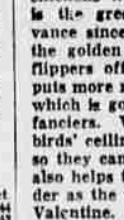
NEWS VIEWS



by H. F. "Mac" McDANIEL

An Iowa man has developed chickens without wings, which is the greatest farmyard advance since the goose that laid the golden egg. Trimming the flippers off the fantastic fowl puts more meat on the fuselage, which is good news for chicken fanciers. Without wings the birds' ceiling is about two feet, so they can't fly the coop. This also helps to keep them as tender as the sentiments on a lacy Valentine. No matter what happens on the international front, this proves the world is progressing. Now if we can cross a wingless chicken with a centipede there'll be drumsticks for everybody.

A Boston judge told a ventriloquist he'd have to choose between his dummy and his wife. He chose the dummy. Probably just wanted the last word in any argument. Williams Wins, Title Chance

The fight will ...be held in Vancouver, B. C.

...In his victory, Williams used a ...hammer lock on Stojack's left arm ...continuously while the lat-...ter maneuvered for his airplane ...

Williams wasted little time as ...he started hostilities by execut-...ing a shoulder throw and a head ...lock but Stojack replied with a ...body scissors, an arm lock, a pair ...of arm scissors, another arm ...lock and a drop kick before the tattooed man began to operate with his hammer locks. A series of hammer locks climaxed with a jumping hammer lock won the fall for Williams in 25 minutes.

As the second round began, it appeared that Williams would get the hammer lock hoodoo on Stojack again but the Tacoma bone-bender whipped his elbow back and caught Williams on the chin to thwart the hold. The ex-champion fololwed up with his famous and spectacular airplane spin to gain the fall in three minutes.

With Stojack protecting that left flipper and Williams protecting his equilibrium, the pair sparred until Stojack unraveled a body scissors and pile driver.

The Tacoma strong-boy proceeded to grind Williams down to size with several flying mares and was hoisting him in the air for the dreaded airplane spin when Williams frantically grabbed the ropes with both hands in the middle of a spin. While referee Georges Dusette' tried feverishly to unlock the desperate hands, Stojack's strength was ebbing and he crumpled when William's hands had finally been wrenched clear. Williams seized his advantage and applied a jumping hammer lock to win the match.

French-Canadian Georges Dusette' strong-armed his way to a draw with roughhouse Tony Ross in the 30-minute semi-final. Ross was the aggressor in the opening round as he used a battery of hammer locks and a choke hold. He took the first fall in eight minutes with a jumping hammer lock.

Action became a little more torrid in the second stanza as Dusette' unleashed a headlock hip roll, key arm scissors and body scissors. Ross then began to throw Dusette' into the corner post by his hair when the bruised Canadian came alive and racked Ross' frame with a full Nelson to take the fall in 10 minutes. The two wrestlers fought to a draw in the remaining 12 minutes.

Ernie Piluso, popular local restaurant-night club operator, decisioned Tony Falletti, Brooklyn meanie with a rather unusual fall in the opener. As Falletti made a flying lunge at Piluso, the latter caught him on his back and fell on him backwards for a body press in nine minutes. Piluso weighs 196 pounds.
