Emma Knowles Osborn
 Emma Knowles Osborn, of Leaburg, died Tuesday at the age of 75. She was born Jan. 3, 1874 in Pennington, N. J., and married George I. Osborn Oct. 13, 1902 in Los Angeles. They moved to Long Beach, living there until moving to Leaburg in 1940.

She is survived by her husband and five children: Lewis of Whittier, Cal.; Betty Carlson of Leaburg; Irving of Long Beach; Edwin of Compton, Cal.; Marjorie Goodpasture of Leaburg; ten grandchildren; one great-grandchild; two sisters, Miss Alice Knowles and Mrs. Marjorie McGuire, both of New Jersey.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m., Saturday, in the eVatch Hollingsworth England Funeral Home with burial in Rest Haven Memorial Park.

'Hairy-Shested Man' Tough on Eating
 SANTA MONICA, Cal., — (U.P.) — The sight of "a nearly naked, hairy chested, sandy, oily man" is enough to take away the appetite of one woman resident of this beach city.

Mrs. William Kent Cooper made this complaint in a letter to the city council, requesting a law regulating the amount of clothing worn in public places. She said customers in a restaurant can't eat with sun-tanned bathers in sight.

The council ordered her letter filed.

Ivan J. Clark
 Ivan J. Clark, 44, 115 Elkey Drive, passed away at the Sacred Heart Hospital Thursday, August 11, 1949. He is survived by wife and three children: daughters, Lulu Marie, Eva May Clark, and one son, Ivan Clark, all of Eugene. Notice will be published. Burial arrangements have been made by the Leary Funeral Home.

Farm Storage Loans
Applications Open
 PORTLAND — (P) — Applications may now be made for farm storage loans under the new government program.

Loans will cover up to 85 percent of the cost of building grain storage space or 45 cents a bushel of the rated storage capacity, whichever is smaller, J. R. Spence, Multnomah County Agricultural Conservation Committee chairman, said.

The Commodity Credit Corporation will either guarantee loans from local lending agencies or make loans direct.
