

Ice Cream Fete At Creswell Friday Eve

CRESWELL—The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will hold their annual ice cream social at the manse Friday evening, Aug. 19. Serving will start at 7:30.

The menu includes ice cream by the dish or cone, cake, pie, watermelon, and coffee.

Those who are furnishing card tables and cloths for serving are asked to have them at the manse by 2:30 p.m. of that day.

Committees in charge are: napping, Mrs. A. J. Gabriel... pie cutting, Mrs. C. L. Dickerson, Mrs. Thomson and Mrs. K. C. Schwerling; cake cutting, Mrs. A. W. Bartel, Mrs. G. L. Decker, Mrs. David Francis and Mrs. R. F. Scott; watermelon cutting, Mrs. H. H. Dersham, Mrs. E. W. Hoagland and Mrs. Loren Lind; coffee, Mrs. Richard Campbell and Mrs. W. Lee Gray; waitresses, Miss Wilma Dickerson's class and Mrs. Decker's class with Miss Dickerson in charge.

Ice cream dipping, H. A. Simons, Conan Olson and William Thomson; decorations and tables, Mrs. Lilly Schwerling, Mrs. Barney Doyle, Rev. and Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Gabriel; clean-up Mrs. W. B. Gillespie, Mrs. Olive Parlin, Mrs. Conan Olson, and Mrs. Annie Harold; cashier, Miss Shirley Harrold; menus and posters, Mrs. Thomson, Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Norman Skaggs.

Everyone is invited to come and have dessert at the manse.

Creswell News

CRESWELL—Mrs. E. O. Smith and Mrs. R. G. St. Clair were elected to membership at Rebekahs Wednesday evening.

The annual Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, and Theta Rho picnic was planned for Aug. 21 at the Robert Franklin ranch.

Games will be played in the afternoon and a picnic dinner will be served at 6 p.m. Mrs. Harold Johnston is in charge of punch, Mrs. Loren Westrope is in charge of coffee.

Mrs. E. W. Rand and Mrs. T. R. Graham will serve refreshments at the next meeting.

James Swale Club has planned a food sale for Sept. 9 with the place to be announced later. A quilt will also be sold that day. Mrs. George Hayes and Mrs. Elsie Regis will entertain the club at the Hayes home in September.

Rev. and Mrs. Ward Wood have purchased the home on North Fifth Street which was owned and occupied by Mrs. Genevieve McCarrison and Mrs. Vivian Klinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Weber of Coulee City, Wash. are visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. Sellers and family. Mrs. Weber is the former Henrietta Allen and made her home with the Sellers several years ago.

Picnic Postponed At Sweet Creek

SWEET CREEK—Due to the serious illness of Mrs. Rose Mason, who is in the Eugene Hospital, the picnic scheduled for Sunday, Aug. 14, at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. John Searer Jr., has been postponed indefinitely.

Point Terrace Garden Club meets Thursday, Aug. 18 for an all day meeting at the clubhouse. Mr. Albert Ellingson, Mrs. Joe Ellingson and Mrs. Merle Crump will serve dessert. All members are asked to bring a sack lunch and wear old clothes, as it is to be a work day to clean the grounds surrounding the clubhouse.

Veneta Personals

VENETA—Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flick were his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carter from Cotton Plant, Ark., and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riddle from Shellsburg, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Kruse of Portland are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Elliott.

Double-Barreled Fete Featuring Flowers, Food, Thursday at Blachly

BLACHLY-HORTON—Thursday, Aug. 18, at Triangle Grange Hall, the Community Club will have a flower show and the Ladies' Aid will have a cooked food sale and also sell their fancy-work.

The greater share of the proceeds from the sales will be given to the Crippled Children's Hospital in Eugene.

Further details on the flower show will be given later, and in the meantime get out your best recipes and brush up on your flour arrangement technique. The affair will be open to everyone—with potluck at noon.

AT LORANE—Blaine Addison is driving a new Ford pickup.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibbons have moved from the Elmer Crowe place to the small house which they have purchased from S. W. Wise, near the old Schneider mill site, recently vacated by the Havel Davis family.

ALONG MOSBY CREEK—MOSBY CREEK—Ada Overton tripped over a wire at home, recently, and will be on crutches for a time.

George Layng entered a Eugene hospital Monday.

Flower Show At Westfir Next Friday

WESTFIR—Westfir Garden Club announces its big flower show, for Friday, Aug. 19, at the Westfir Show Hall.

All exhibits are to be at the hall by noon, and the show opens to the public at 2 p.m., until 4:30, and 7-8:30. All kinds of flowers are acceptable, club not to be responsible for the containers. Arrangements are to be by one, three, six, or 12, or bunches of small flowers. All flowers are to be grown by the exhibitor.

There will be educational exhibits by the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, and Brownies.

Further details, names of judges, etc., will be published.

Meeting List At Creswell

CRESWELL—Veterans of Foreign Wars meets Tuesday evening, Aug. 16 at Odd Fellows Hall. The Auxiliary will join the men for a social meeting.

FL Club of Rebekahs meets with Mrs. Leonard Young Monday evening, Aug. 15.

Women's Society for Christian Service of the Methodist Church meets at the annex Wednesday, Aug. 17 for a 12:30 pot luck dinner. Mrs. E. W. Rand will lead the lesson and Mrs. Wellington DeLaVergne will be in charge of devotions.

AT BLACHLY 1—BLACHLY-HORTON—Lynch's Store at Blachly has recently installed both refrigerated vegetable and meat cases.

Snow's store at Horton has also installed, in addition to its fresh vegetable case, a refrigerated meat case.

The community appreciates the efforts of its storekeepers in giving up-to-date services.

Rolling along toward Ohio and Michigan, the Coy Bennings and Tom Minters who are on a six-weeks tour, write: "We thought Oregon very dry when we left there (July 11); now we know it wasn't—have seen so much dry, parched earth, and so little water. However, we have seen nice farms, and now here in Illinois and Ohio—towns, towns, and towns. Will Oregon ever look good to us when we get back!"

Mr. and Mrs. Millard McVeigh and small sons left this week in their car and trailer house for a month's trip, the greater part of which will be spent in Canada.

From California visiting relatives are Mr. and Mrs. Titus Wear. Mrs. Wear is a cousin of Mrs. Ross Myers, and Bob and Charlie Slayter.

Back from two years in Okinawa are Lt. Col. and Mrs. Kenneth Addison and young son Johnny. While here they were at the home of Mrs. Addison's parents, the Charles Slayters.

The Addisons left here Sunday for Ft. Leavenworth, Kans., where he will attend the command and general staff college for a year.

AT COLLEGE CREST—COLLEGE CREST—The Rev. Paul Sisler property on Ingalls Way has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon L. Corner of Eugene, who are remodeling and enlarging the home preparatory to occupation sometime in October. Corner holds a master's degree from U. of O. and is now principal of the grade schools at Santa Clara. He is attending the summer session at U. of O. Mrs. Corner (Elinor H. H. H.) is a graduate of the U. of O. and has taught in several high schools in eastern Oregon.

Rev. and Mrs. Sisler and son Phil have just returned from a two weeks attendance of the annual Oregon and Washington Conference and Camp Meeting of the Evangelical United Brethren Church at Jennings' Lodge, Oregon.

At this conference Rev. Sisler received his appointment to the pastorate at Veneta, Oregon.

Rev. Sisler has served as pastor's assistant at the Evangelical United Brethren Church of Eugene for the past two years. Previous to this, he had four years' experience preaching at Florence, Mapleton and Oregon City. He is a graduate of the U. of O. in 1932 and has recently completed his conference course of ministerial studies.

Mrs. Sisler, a graduate of Monmouth Teacher's College has taught the past three years at Goshen.

AT MALABON—Joseph Silliman, 15-year-old sophomore who will attend the new Willamette High School this year, is now recuperating at Sacred Heart Hospital, Eugene, from an appendix operation a week ago. He was visited Thursday by Merl V. Ploghoff, assistant principal of the new school.

DEXTER—David Allen Stubert, 20 mos., was bruised but seriously hurt in an odd mishap Sunday afternoon when his grandfather, Ralph Cline, backed a truck over him in the yard of the Cline home on Upper Lost Creek.

Little David and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stubbert, were visiting at the Cline home.

LAURA HARPER HOME—RIVERVIEW—Miss Laura Harper is at home after spending two months on a trip to Niles, Mich.

RUSSIA JOINS RC PLAN—GENEVA, Switzerland—(U.P.)—Russia has joined the United States and 47 other nations in approving a new Red Cross convention to protect civilians in wartimes.

Big Picnic for Swisshomers

SWISSHOME—Don't forget the Evangelical Sunday School picnic Saturday, Aug. 13, at Clearwater Park. Everyone in community invited. Bring pot-luck dinner and your own table service.

Women's Society of World Service meets Wednesday, Aug. 17 with Mrs. August Sommers at Waldport.

It will be a pot-luck and if you can go or furnish a car, please let Mrs. Dollor or Mrs. Thomason know.

Each member remember to bring 50c for your share of expenses for the recent shower on Mrs. Floyd Watson.

Charles Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Douglas, and Harold Holcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holcomb, are home on leave from U. S. Navy. Charles has to report back to San Diego for a different assignment. He will leave next Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. John Karutz and children of Stockton, Calif. visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walt Ransdell. Rev. Karutz preached at the Evangelical Church taking the place of Rev. Dollor, who was at Jennings Lodge. The Dollors and the young people returned home Monday.

Junction News

JUNCTION CITY—Members of the American Legion and its Auxiliary are being asked to remember the joint picnic with the American Legions of Monroe and Harrisburg, to be held Aug. 28 at 12:30 p. m., in Alderwood Park. The picnic will be potluck and all are to furnish their own table service. Coffee, sugar and cream will be furnished by the hosts, the Junction City Post and Auxiliary.

Visiting at the Phil Ryan residence are Mrs. Ryan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wodell of Yakima, Wash.

Miss Ella Fay Simpson, employe at the telephone office, is taking a week's vacation.

Mrs. Dale Ross has returned home following an extended stay in California.

Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong have moved to Corvallis to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ditto have purchased a new home on Washburn St. and moved in this week.

At Santa Clara

SANTA CLARA—The local Boy Scout troop will return Sunday from a week at Lake Melakwa, at the McKenzie Pass summit area.

Scoutmaster Cecil Wicks, after working hard with the boys all year so that all would be able to make the trip together, was unable at the last minute to go along himself, on account of illness.

Truck for the trip was donated by Paul Wilson, and driven by Carlyle Craig. Santa Clara Grange, troop sponsor, donated food and some equipment. Extra transportation was provided by Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Whipple with their jeep and trailer, and Robert Brown and Mr. Holzapple with their cars. Holzapple was to be in camp until Wednesday, then M. L. Tolverton took his place until Friday, and Alyn Crocker was to finish the week and bring the boys home.

Making the trip: Steven Conant, Dennis Maltzan, Jerry Maltzan, Don Maltzan, Teddy Barbee, George Rosso, Jerry Bendshader, James Bornhoff, Bob Patterson, Ray Wicks, Don Daughtry Truman McManis, Lamor Martin, John Thompson, John Kilburn, Sandy McCready, Jerry Hedding, Jim Crocker, Randy Holzapple. A guest from River Road, Phil Neusom.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Tank and sons Richard and Robert, from Holdrege, Nebraska, are now staying at the Eugene Auto Court while visiting friends in Santa Clara their former home.

Little Janit Klien daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Klein of Portland is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cadore, for the week.

ELKTON PERSONALS

ELKTON—Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Hamrick have returned to their home at Sawyer Rapids after a trip to West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jones and daughter Betty of Berkeley, Calif., are visiting Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fernie Davis. The Jones came to Oregon especially for the Jones family reunion held at Oakland, Ore.

Mrs. Cecil Beale underwent a major operation Tuesday at the Eugene Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George Warner have moved to Powell Butte, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. John Wenneberg are leaving Tuesday for Sundance, Wyo., where they intend to make their home.

AT WILLAGILLESPIE—WILLAGILLESPIE—Joseph Harris, from a Rochester New York seed company, will arrive soon for an inspection of James Brothers Seed Co. He will be a house guest of Wm. James.

Tommy Howell recently fell from the back of a pick up truck and broke his arm.

Donald Kingsley is still very ill at a local hospital where he was rushed for an emergency appendectomy.

AT GOLDSON—The next meeting of Goldson Birthday Club will be at Alderwood Park, Aug. 25, with Irvadell Brown and Stella Powell hostesses.

New Briefs Of London

LONDON—The state agent for the eradication of Canadian thistle was in the community last week and warned that persons not cooperating, may be subject to fine.

The old community threshing machine is being put back into use again this year with Ed Routhage already finished and other threshing in line are for Jess Hill, Carl Small and Dick Gorman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Sheets are busy gathering fir cones, which are used for re-seeding old timber burns.

Bean picking has started at the Dick Gorman field and picking is well under way at the Gene Campbell field.

Jim Quigley's little dog "Oakie" a valuable registered cocker spaniel, was found dead Saturday, by woodsmen in the timber back of the Nelson Bemis place, caught in a government coyote trap.

Mrs. Jess Hill has returned from eight weeks summer school at Ashland, Ore. Mrs. Hill is a teacher at London school this fall.

Like a huge bouquet is the garden of Mrs. T. M. McEwen with several thousand gladioli blooming in riotous colors, some blooms six inches across and many colored dahlias, some as large as dinner plates.

The McEwens built a specially constructed deer fence this year around their garden after an electric fence failed to keep out the tricky marauders.

News Briefs Of Harrisburg

HARRISBURG—Acme Construction Co. of Eugene, has completed their work on Second St., and several more streets are being prepared for a dressing up.

Cement has been poured for the foundation of the new American Legion Hall.

Kenneth Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Murphy of Junction City, has purchased the Miller-Sherman Funeral Homes at Harrisburg and Junction City.

M. A. Nix, of Eugene is the new partner of Roy Larson in Larson's Chevrolet. Mr. and Mrs. Nix have four children. Three boys, Stephen, Crist, and Michael, who will attend grade school, and a small daughter, Peggy Ann. They have rented the Roxana Clark residence north of town.

Larson's Chevrolet has purchased the corner lot adjoining them, formerly owned by the Walker Nicholson estate from Rodney Busey. It will be landscaped, and used for a new and used car lot.

Mrs. L. L. Gooding arrived home Thursday night from St. Louis, Mo., where she has been visiting her son and daughter.

At Dexter

DEXTER—Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hong have guests from Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. They are Mrs. Hong's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hill and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crile and children.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Roberts had a pleasant surprise this week when her son, Gene Walton, arrived in Dexter.

Gene has received his discharge from the Navy. He was stationed in Manila the past two years.

A friend, Jimmy Smathers, came with him, but has now gone to Roseburg to work.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mahan are remodeling the small house on their place. Mrs. Mahan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sappingfield, have sold their home in Pleasant Hill and will occupy it as soon as it is finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Weber of Sacramento, Cal., are visiting his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Weber. They are returning home after a three months visit in the Dakota's.

BIG PICNIC FOR WILLAKENZIE

WILLAKENZIE—The Willakenzie Grade School Parent-Teachers Assn. is having a picnic at Benton Lane Park, Sunday, Aug. 23, 2 p.m. Each family is to bring own basket dinner. Pot and ice cream will be sold by the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts of Willakenzie.

All families with children in the Willakenzie GS are urged to come, especially those with children starting next year.

RIVERVIEW SCHOOL OPENS SEPT. 12

RIVERVIEW—School opens Monday, Sept. 12, with teachers the same as last year: Mrs. Casper Grupp in charge of the first four grades, and Mrs. Carrol Johnson having the upper grades.

AT VENETA

VENETA—Children who will be entering school in the first grade are required to have an examination and a health certificate filled out by their physician, also to ninth graders and to children of any grade, entering school here from another state.

Mrs. Alva Ferabee has the necessary blanks, or they may be obtained from the county school superintendent's office at the courthouse.

