49'ers, Browns Tie 21-21 In Pro Contest
CLEVELAND, Aug. 20—(P)—A desperate, last-minute 33-yard pass from Frankie Albert to Full-back John Strzykowski enabled the San Francisco 49'ers to tie the Cleveland Browns' 21-21, Friday night in an All-America Conference exhibition game before 31,157 gasping fans.

The tie snapped the conference champion Browns' winning streak at 16 games.

Cleveland spotted the 49'ers 14 points, but came roaring back to score three times and lead until the final minute of play when Albert's heave connected with Strzykowski's outstretched arms.

The Browns outdistanced San Francisco handily in the rushing and passing department.

Eddie Waitkus Has His Baseball 'Night'
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20—(P)—Eddie Waitkus was showered with gifts Friday night as 25,000 fans packed flag-draped Shibe Park to welcome him back from a narrow brush with death last June 14.

Wearing his uniform for the first time since he was shot by a crazed girl fan in Chicago, the Philadelphia Phillies' slick first baseman was overwhelmed by the collective "speedy recovery" his rooters wished him.

"I don't know what the future has in store for me," Waitkus spoke into a microphone at home plate before the game with the New York Giants. "But you have given me something to look forward to in the future. I'll remember this for the rest of my days."

Waitkus did not play, but he hopes to make the final western trip with the team and work out when he feels able.

Eddie received a 1949 automobile, a television set, two radios, luggage, golf clubs, two suits, a wrist watch and a box of shirts, the gifts of Philadelphia merchants.

Manager Eddie Sawyer, acting for National League President Ford Frick, handed Waitkus an award as a member of the All-Star team. Waitkus was unable to play in the classic but at the time he was shot he was leading the first baseman poll.

Springfield Shooter Qualifies for Meet
WASHINGTON, D. C.,—William Schlitzkus, of 660 E. St., Springfield, has qualified to shoot in the 1949 National Rifle Championships at Camp Dodge, Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 4-5. It is the 65th renewal of the event.

Schlitzkus makes up part of the challenging field of 249 of the nation's best marksmen who will compete for the national title now held by 21-year-old Arthur Cook, of Washington, D. C.

The Air Force said the men were forced down off Stephenville, in St. George's Bay.

Using rubber boats and life rafts aboard, they rowed ashore in the pre-dawn darkness. All were reported to have suffered bruises and shock from immersion in the icy waters of the bay.

Officials said the plane had left Frankfurt, Germany, made one stop in the Azores and then took off for Harmon Field, Newfoundland. It was to have flown from there to the United States.

The pilot had ample time to warn his passengers of the impending crash, according to word received here.
