

Portland Girl Wedded to Gordon Torrey

Baskets of white gladiolus and white asters were used to decorate the wedding of Miss Helen Henderson of San Francisco to Gordon Torrey of Eugene. The ceremony was solemnized at 10 o'clock in the afternoon by Rev. W. B. Maier. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Torrey. The bride's parents are not living. Miss Henderson wore a dress of blue in two tones, with a matching hat, and a blue sash which was draped under her left arm and attached to her left shoulder by a gold pin, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a white Testament topped with an orchid.

Miss Helen Henderson of San Francisco was bridesmaid. She wore a suit of deep rose, made in a modern style with paneled skirt and black and white accessories.

Neil V. Torrey, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Ushers were Roland and William Robert.

James Kays sang, "I Love Thee" (Grieg) and "Thine Alone" (Herbert).

A reception followed at the Theta Chi fraternity house, with Mrs. Olaus Moen pouring and Miss Ruth Swanson of San Francisco cutting the cake. Mrs. Neil Torrey served punch and Mrs. William Robert had charge of the arrangement of white and maroon gladiolus, and the table was decorated with pink rosebuds and pink and white asters.

Mr. and Mrs. Torrey went on a wedding trip to Mexico City, Mexico. They will live at 1332 Lawrence Street after September 15. The bride attended University of Oregon Medical School and the School of Nursing at Emanuel Hospital. The bride-
