

Yoncalla Church Scene of Wedding Sunday Afternoon

Miss Mona Maxine Raper, daughter of Mrs. Eola Raper of Yoncalla, was married to Allen Lancaster Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lancaster of Yoncalla, at three-thirty o'clock August 14 at the Yoncalla Church of Christ.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Vernon Raper. She wore a white satin gown with a fitted bodice and with a peplum in back. The back of her skirt formed a train. Her full-length sleeves came to a point below the wrists. A wreath of rosebuds held in place a finger-tip length veil edged in lace. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white carnations and white rosebuds. Her keepsake was a handkerchief sent from France by her father during the First World War.

Mrs. Warren Anderson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a yellow taffeta gown, and carried a bouquet of yellow snapdragons and lavender sweet peas.

Miss Joanne Brant and Miss Lila Brogg, both of Yoncalla, were bridesmaids. Miss Brant wore a lavender taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and lavender sweet peas. Miss Brogg wore aqua taffeta, and carried white rosebuds and pink sweet peas.

Flower girls were Misses Harlene and Marjorie Dow of Sutherlin, cousins of the bride. They wore full-length dresses of pink organza.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of bemberg sheer of floral design and corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore floral crepe and her corsage also was of white carnations.

Best man was Burton Lancaster, brother of the groom. Warren Anderson and Dallas Brogg were the ushers.

A bank of fern and fall flowers decked the altar and an arch of ivy and white sweet peas extended from the floral setting.

Si Wise sang "Because" and Mrs. Charles Henner sang "God Gave Me You." Mrs. Arne Bjock was the accompanist.

At a reception which followed at the Raper home, Mrs. Charles Henner, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Leroy Hartley cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Earl Brant and Mrs. James Smith poured. Autumn flowers decorated the home and two white candles were on the bride's table.

After a honeymoon at the coast and in Los Angeles, the couple will be at home at Yoncalla, August 21. The bride's going-away outfit was a two-piece, white, linen dress with white accessories. She attended Yoncalla High School and the bridegroom attended Elkton High School.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Harold Dow and two daughters, of Sutherlin; Mrs. W. G. Cool of Drain; Mrs. Earl Harris, Mrs. Henry Aveross, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lancaster of Scottsburg; Mr. and Mrs. James Brogg, Diana and Michael of Cottage Grove;

Mrs. Leroy Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith of Eugene; Mrs. Warren Harding and son of Prineville;

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Lancaster and daughter, Serris of Sacramento; Miss Virginia Cook of Fresno, Calif.; Mrs. Charles Henner, Ann, Carol and Beth Davidson of Los Angeles.

Garden Club Plans September Show, Festival of Herbs

Eugene Garden Club is making plans for the first fall showing of flowers, which will be held this year, September 10 and 11, and will include a festival of herbs. The horticultural side of the flower show will be stressed, according to Mrs. V. C. Morgan, general chairman, who was appointed by Mrs. C. F. Gregg, president of the club. A showing of fuchsias, begonias, and other fall flowers is planned. There is to be a special showing of some out-of-the-ordinary dahlias, as well as the English, or early flowering type of chrysanthemums. The show will be held in the clubhouse, 1645 High Street.

Mrs. Ralph Buck, chairman of the herb group will be in charge of the herbs. Cooked food, flavored with herbs, herbs growing in pots, catnip rice and gold fish, herb bouquets, vinegars, sachets and lavender in bulk, will all be offered for sale. Herb tea will be served with cookies and poppourri jars of fragrance will be included. Mrs. Buck will be assisted by Mrs. L. L. Erdmann, former chairman, and originator of the idea of a festival for Eugene, and Mrs. Fred Flock, secretary of the group.

Learns from Experience

She doesn't try experiments. She trusts experience. That's why her hormone cream is Endocrine, product of the specialist in hormone cosmetics. Originated and tested by doctors. Used and approved by many thousands of women since 1937. Many see results in 30 days—smoother, firmer, younger-looking skin. Why not you? ... Trust experience. ... Try Endocrine. $3.50 plus tax at
