ment that 28 B-50 Stratobombers have arrived in England from their Tucson, Ariz., base. In a year, the Third Air Division has grown from a skeleton staff of specialists to emorace a supply depot, a major overhaul depot, three B-29 bases and a complete headquarters in London.

Penland to Leave For GAR Meeting

PORTLAND—(P)—Grand Army of the Republic commander-in-chief, Theodore A. Penland, leaves Wednesday night for what is expected to be the final encampment of the Union veterans. Oregon Daughters and Sons of Union Veterans have chartered a special car to send a record delegation of the affiliated groups to the national assembly in Indianapolis. Penland was 100 years old Jan. 23. He expects only four other Civil War veterans at the encampment. There are 16 living members of the G.A.R.

Potato Growing Area May Be Enlarged

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Department of Agriculture has given a preliminary okay to a proposal to increase the membership and the production area within the jurisdiction of the Oregon-California Potato Committee. The proposal would add Jefferson and Lake Counties to Crook, Deschutes and Klamath Counties in Oregon and Modoc and Siskiyou in California. Committee membership of six producers and three handlers would be enlarged by one producer member under the plan. The committee administers rules as to grade, size and marketing programs. A final decision will be made by the Secretary of Agriculture. A referendum among growers is necessary after the secretary's approval. Two-thirds of the members must approve. Juneau, Alaska, has an annual average snowfall of 105.7 inches.
