

Arrests
Three Gunmen
—UP—The FBI announced that one of three gunmen arrested for the July 25 slaying of a Chicago guard in Chicago had been arrested by sheriff's officers in Cheyenne, Wyo.
Cheyenne, Wyo. Russell, FBI Agent-in-Charge, said he identified the suspect as James J. Jankowski, 32. Kramer said Jankowski was arrested by police five days ago and sentenced to a 10-day jail term for vagrancy.
Jankowski was picked up by Cheyenne police when they found him in the Cheyenne railroad station on Aug. 18, Kramer said. He was sentenced to a 10-day jail term and was serving the sentence at the Cheyenne Jail.
Sheriff N. E. Tuck identified Jankowski from FBI circulars.
Kramer said Jankowski was arrested along with two other men on the July 25 slaying and robbery, which occurred as the two men were leaving the South Chicago Savings Bank with a sum of money.
Kramer said the three bandits, after killing the guards with tom-guns, got off with only $920.19 and $315,000 in checks.
Puddle Halts Traffic in Seattle
SEATTLE—UP—A large puddle of 10,000 gallons of oil on a North Seattle highway tied up traffic for several minutes.
The state patrol reported that an oil truck failed to make a turn and spilled its cargo over the roadway.
The driver, William H. Backer, was not seriously injured, but was arrested with oil. He said he apparently turned the corner too fast.
