

Junior Miss Program to Resume

(See Story on Women's Page)

WORSHIP was the highest theme exemplified in the pageant presented by girls who participated in the six-weeks Junior Miss Program in the summer. The program will be re-activated with the opening of school next month. Themes demonstrated the projects and training of the program. The pageant was presented at the Y Center for parents and friends, as the program closed. Those taking part in the Worship episode of the pageant, shown above, were: From left, Tyrina Richter, Beverly Hanson, Sally Beals (since deceased), Susan Potter, Harriet Hall, Martha Guam, Kathryn Moore, Reva Ann Johnson, Virginia Lee, Barbara Ann Ranes, Barbara Hayden, Susan Kehrl and Alice Dormer.

Lane Grange

Dorena visitors at the regular meeting of Dorena Grange held Aug. 18 were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rogers (Lane County Pomona Grange Master), Mr. and Mrs. Tohien of Creswell, and Bill Ashley.

The following committees for the fairs were named by Mary Arne, chairman of the fairs:

South Lane County Fair (Sept. 16-17): Chairman, Edna Brumfield; helpers, Helen Cochran, Lois Giles, Rosalie Lake; builders, Larry Brumfield, Henry Snauer, Lee Thomson, Ed Finnerty.

Lane County Fair (Sept. 21-24): Chairman, Ellen Sherrill; helpers, Shirley Arne, Shirley Sherrill, Avanelle Wicks; builders, Raymond Wicks, Philip Lake, Ralph Plaisted, Claude Arne; vegetable washers, Hattie Spahr, Jeanette Kelly, Helen Cochran, Myrtle Lake, and Rosalie Lake.

The Youth committee reported that Jean Plaisted won third place in the Highway Essay contest in the state.

The meeting of Sept. 1 is booster night. This meeting is open to the public and anyone interested in Oregon activities is urged to attend. Charter members of Dorena Grange are also requested to attend. All Grange families are asked to bring two pies.

The serving committee for the meeting of Sept. 15 is Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelly, Bob and Joyce Kelly, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Spahr.

Next H. E. C. meeting will be Tuesday, Sept. 13, at the Grange hall with Dolah Plaisted and Jessie Vining as hostesses.

Mrs. McCormack gave a brief report on State Grange proceedings.

CROW — All grange women are urged to come out for the half cleanup Wednesday, Aug. 31, Potluck lunch at noon. Each woman is asked to bring pie on cake for the bakery booth or refreshment sale at the Crow fair, which will be held Sept. 15.

CRESWELL — A number of guests from Dorena, Hebron and Goshen Granges were present at Creswell Grange meeting Thursday evening. Worthy master, Roy Gear, of the Dorena Grange was honored.

The third and fourth degrees were exemplified for Mrs. Louise Dahl and Clarence Davis of Creswell and five candidates from Hebron. Two applications for membership were presented.

The group voted to give cash prizes for exhibits in the children's division of the Community Fair and donations from the members were taken for this purpose. An orchestra will entertain the evening of the fair.

The committee in charge of refreshments for the next meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Ed Graham, Mrs. E. J. Hengelbrok, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Quinn, L. S. Ayotte and Harold Parks.
