Forest Fires Show Increase

SALEM —(AP)— The number of forest fires on state and private lands in Oregon is about three times the number last year.

Deputy state forester George Spaur said Wednesday there were 913 fires up to September 1. There were 368 in the same period last year.

Spaur said the increase was caused by tinder-dry forests during most of the summer.

He said there still is some danger of fires in high mountain areas, but said he isn't very much worried about it.

Spaur explained that the smoke which is over much of Oregon is caused by fires set in slashings, as well as in areas where they are purposely set to reduce fire hazards.

The "shot" in shot-putting originally was just that—a cannon ball.

Fair Schedules 4-H Style Show

4-H Home Economics activities at the county fair will be climaxed by a style revue set for Saturday at 8 p. m. in the 4-H exhibit building.

4-H Club girls will model the garments they have styled and made, including cotton wash dresses, cotton school dresses, "best" dresses, and wool dresses and suits. A number of girls will appear in the garments they have remodeled.

This year's style revue has the theme of the 4-H fashion calendar, according to Mrs. Melba M. Heide, county extension agent.

Eight half scholarships will be presented to high scoring contestants by J. C. Penney Co. and Chase Gardens will present a corsage to the champion.

In combination with the style revue, many awards, winners at the fair, will be announced. These will include 4-H scholarships awarded on exhibits by the County Fair Board, awarded by Eugene Farmers Creamery, beef herdsmanship award by Gene McKenzie, best livestock record book award, and award to the highest scoring individual livestock judge by Interstate Tractor Co.

Committee of leaders in general supervision of the style revue are Mrs. V. A. Forstrom, Eugene; Mrs. R. M. Seaver, Mrs. E. Voss, Mrs R. D. Carpenter and Mrs. A. M. Johnson, all of Cottage Grove.

The best "catgut" comes from the intestines of lean, ill-fed sheep, horses or mules.

PL Exposition 'Biggest Yet'

PORTLAND—The biggest beef cattle show in the history of the Pacific International Livestock Exposition already is assured for this year's P-I, Oct. 7-15.

"It's going to be a simply terrific beef cattle show," General Manager Walter A. Holt announced enthusiastically. "It will be the biggest ever."

Long entry lists have been received particularly in Aberdeen-Angus and Herefords. The big Aberdeen-Angus sale Tuesday, Oct. 11 undoubtedly had much to do with the enthusiasm in that breed. All sale animals must be entered in show competition to prove their merit before being offered to purchasers.

Largest Aberdeen-Angus entry to date is the 19 head of the Oxbow Ranch of Prairie City, Ore. Leonard Freeman of Central Point, Ore., is second with 18.

Leading the Herefords in numbers is Ray R. Thalman of Golden State Herefords, Oakdale, Calif. The Crowe Hereford Ranch of Millville, Calif., is second with 14 and Fred E. Vanderhoof of Woodlake, Calif., third with 12.

County Officials Meet in Eugene

Fourteen county officials from six western Oregon counties met in the Lane courthouse Tuesday for an all day conference on roads, garbage disposal, and timber problems.

Members of the Lane County court were hosts to the group, which with visitors totalled 25. After a morning session discussing federal aid to counties for road purposes (still largely in the planning stage), the conference repaired to the Danebo Lutheran Church where the ladies aid served a chicken dinner.

Following lunch the officials inspected Lane County's new shops, saw a movie on garbage disposal, and reassembled in the courthouse to discuss the county's share of the O. & C. and National Forest timber revenue.

Judge F. E. Gilkey of Lincoln County presided over the meetings, and Former Judge F. L. Phipps of Wasco County, executive secretary of the Association of Oregon Counties, led the discussions.

New York Markets

NEW YORK, Sept. 21—(AP)—A broad rally in today's stock market cut deeply into yesterday's large losses.

A sudden turn for the better in a tense labor situation created enough demand to lift prices fractions to around 2 points.

Steel, motor, utility, rubber, and radio and television stocks were among the strongest but buying spilled over into most other groups as well. Mail order issues held back.

Turnover was at the rate of around 1,100,000 shares for the full session.

Growing optimism that the steel pension controversy would be settled without resort to a strike was held mainly responsible for the rise.

Higher were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Studebaker, American Telephone, Goodyear, U.S. Rubber, Admiral Corp., Coca-Cola, Union Carbide, International Paper and Standard Oil (NJ).
