Mother of 14 Has Triplets

PITTSBURGH — (U.P.) — A 34-year-old housewife with 14 little income tax exemptions scrambling around her home has added three more—this time triplets.

Mrs. Erma Griser gave birth to two boys and a girl in her home at suburban Pitcairn. Her flock already included three sets of twins.

The births put Mrs. Griser's number of offsprings past her total years of marriage. Her last birth had made 14 children in 14 years. The new windfall brings the record to 17 in 15 years.

Husband Arthur, 42, is taking things in stride this time. Said the family physician: "He's getting used to it."

The girl was the first of the triplets to arrive. She weighed 6 pounds. The boys scaled 7 and 6 respectively.

SQUARE DANCING CLICKS

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — (U.P.) — Interest in square dancing mounted so fast during the summer term at the University of Michigan that quadrille dances were featured four nights a week.

Married Teachers Defended in Talk

PORTLAND, Ore. — (U.P.) — Miss Mary Condon, Montana's superintendent of public instruction, spoke out Tuesday in behalf of married teachers.

Miss Condon told a group of educators that, while the teachers' union opposes employment of married teachers, she herself "would rather have married teachers than no teachers at all."

That, she said, might be the alternative in these days of shortage.

She cited a case in which single teachers, without college education, were given $250 a month jobs provided they went to summer school.

Hiring such untrained women to teach, she said, meant paying $250 a month "to a baby sitter, and not a good baby sitter at that." She urged schools not to lower teachers' educational requirements.

Miss Condon spoke at the opening of the Western regional conference of the council of state governments here.
