JOE TABBY starts in on a can of his favorite food—sauerkraut. To heck with fish and chips, milk or catnip. That's for sissies. The bitter cabbage, according to Joe, is good for his fur and besides, it conditions him to take on any would-be cat challengers in hsi Yakima, Wash., territory. (NEA Telephoto)

Bridge League Votes To Exclude Negroes

NEW YORK — (AP) — The 28,000 members of the American Contract Bridge League voted seven to five against admission of negro members.

Russell J. Baldwin, chairman of the membership committee and business manager for the league, said the findings would go to the board of directors for official action at the league's annual meeting in December.

Baldwin said the pro-negro vote carried New York, New Jersey and the New England states by a large majority, and showed smaller margins in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Washington.

Bags Nine-Pointer

BAKER — (AP) — George Van Arnhem of Newport bagged a nine-point buck here and said he is going to take the horns home for a hatrack.

Arnhem, hunting in the Greenhorn district, shot the 250-pound deer Monday from 100 yards. He brought the animal down Wednesday.

JUST TO MAKE SURE

SPOKANE, Wash. — (AP) — Charged with driving while under the influence of liquor, T/Sgt. John E. Wolek pleaded he would never drive again. Judge John Aiken thought it a good idea and revoked Wolek's driver's license for a year.

DOCTORS A BOTHER

HAVERHILL, Mass. — (AP) — Henry V. H. Champey celebrated his 71st birthday by bicycling 70 miles from here to Boston and back. His recipe for good health is to ride his bicycle 15 miles daily. "I don't have to bother with doctors that way," he said.

Astoria Legalizes Bottled Gas Use

ASTORIA — (AP) — The use of bottled gas in Astoria residential districts became legal Wednesday. The city decided to authorize the use of gas—previously forbidden as a fire hazard—after conferring with fire experts of other cities. City officials said they feared Northwest Cities Gas Company might abandon its service here, leaving gas stoves with no fuel.
