

Men Deny 'Fix' Anti-Trust Action

WALLA — (P) — An anti-trust action against the Yakima Valley grape growers, which was filed in federal court here last week, was vigorously opposed by the growers' attorneys.

statement added, but in 1948 the price sagged to $40 due to "over supply and a marked slackening of consumer demand."

Officials Amazed
Expressing "amazement" at the action the attorneys for the anti-trust division to the fair request of our officers to testify before the grand jury is evidence of their complete lack of any desire to consider our side of the case. Revelation of all the facts, the statement concluded, "can only result in complete vindication."

Waiter Learns About Prison The Hard Way

SEATTLE — (P) — Frank Fong, Chinese waiter and one-time magician's helper, learned a new trick the hard way.

He was enroute from Clallam County to the state penitentiary at Walla Walla to serve a forger sentence. He was lodged temporarily in the county jail here.

Dep. Pros. F. A. Walterskirchen found out about it and halted Fong before Superior Judge Howard M. Findley. The judge revoked a two-year deferment of sentence on a 1948 burglary charge here and sentenced him up to 18 years in prison.

Fong will serve both terms at the same time, but Walterskirchen said the double rap might result in a higher maximum set by the board of prison terms and paroles.

WRONG PENNY

PITTSFIELD, Mass. — (P) — John C. Penny of Dalton didn't pay a cent when brought into district court on a minor traffic charge. Police said they had the wrong Penny — John C. didn't own a car, come acting manager.
