Pvt. Donald L. Baker, son of Paul V. Baker, 1190 14th Ave. W., Eugene, has been graduated from the basic airborne course of the Infantry School at Ft. Benning, Ga., as a qualified parachutist.

Miss Loraine Grider, daughter of Mrs. Lora Lee Grider, 710 Monroe St., is the first non-veteran Eugene girl to be sworn in as a Wave in the local Naval Reserve according to Commander R. E. Kerr, Jr., USNR. She is studying laboratory technique which will fit her for Naval service in the event of a national emergency.

Keith W. Clarke, a University of Oregon student, has been promoted to Storekeeper Third Class in the Naval Reserve. Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Clarke, Portland, won the promotion through competitive examinations in the 13th Naval District.

Hank Nilsen, Eugene High School football coach, will show pictures of the Eugene High-Springfield High game to members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Thursday at 7 p.m., in the Eugene Hotel.

I SAW one of Eugene's merchants come into his store from a coffee shop — with coffee spilled all over him. — A. B.

A number of dogs are now available at the city pound, Dog Control Officer John Cornutt reported Thursday. The list includes a male black Cocker, 1 year old; a female red Cocker, 8 months; a purebred Samoyede, male, 1 year, with registration papers; two young part-Shepherds; two part-Terrier pups; several three-month-old part-Cockers and a litter of part-Wire Haired Terrier pups.

State police Thursday were investigating the reported theft of a $150 vending machine from a Creswell service station operated by Dowell H. Hockett.

I ALSO SAW the look on my nine-year-old boy's face when his bike was stolen from the bus stop at Howard Lane Monday night. He had carried papers to buy the bike and it was less than a week old when it was taken.—Ova Crowe.

Edna Horton

Edna Horton, 74, died Oct. 12 at her home in Harrisburg. She was born April 14, 1875 at Junction City, and lived in Oregon all her life. She was married Jan. 28, 1931 to Samuel Horton. She was a member of the First Christian Church and active in Eastern Star and Rebekah Lodge.
