Rodman Named Vice-President

GEARHART—(AP)—Max H. Landon of Sweet Home Saturday was elected president of the Oregon Association of Real Estate Boards in final convention sessions here.

Landon, a former state representative, succeeds Lloyd M. Carter, Portland.

Vice-presidents elected were James Rodman Jr., Eugene; Bert Stevens, Tillamook; and Elbert C. Tillman, Baker. Ralph Walstrom, Portland, was named treasurer and Taylor W. Trece, Portland, was re-elected secretary.

Named directors for two years were Edwin D. Van Tassel, Eugene; Joe Bourne, Salem; Albert Bullier, Portland; Jay Phillips, Astoria; Ted Holliday, Bend; Lee Stewart, The Dalles; and Irvin Shriver, North Bend.

A major resolution adopted gave unanimous approval to the proposed six-mill limitation on state property tax levies. The groups also voted to cooperate with a legislative tax interim committee.

Another resolution favored the Gwin federal tax law amendment limiting federal taxes to 5 per cent of the nation's income except for special defense levies.

Harriett A. Sheasgreen, Portland, was elected president of the Council of Women Realtors, succeeding Helen Stevens, Tillamook. Cordelia Evans, Eugene, was elected vice-president and Eva K. Stuart, Oceanlake, secretary.

Contempt Action Involves 2 Men

OLYMPIA—(AP)—Washington State's crime investigating committee has announced it plans to start contempt of legislature proceedings against two men who refused to answer questions at last week's hearing in Vancouver.

The two are John McGillivray, part owner of the Esquire Smoke Shop in Vancouver, and Frank J. Volterro, its manager.

They refused to answer questions on the advice of their attorney.

Outcome of the action against them is expected to determine the scope of hearings in other cities. Sen. Albert D. Rosellini, committee chairman, said times and places of other hearings will be announced later.

Lloyd Graham, Clark County chairman of the Democratic Party, appeared before the committee Friday at his own request to deny he had offered to serve as an intermediary in a $72,000 suit against a Vancouver bingo parlor.

At the Vancouver hearings, Attorney Walter H. Robinson had mentioned Graham's name in connection with his own efforts to recover for Mrs. Marie Young $72,000 she said she had lost playing bingo over several years.

Robinson testified that Graham had offered to act as intermediary to effect a settlement out of court. Graham denied he had discussed party finances with Robinson. He said other Vancouver law firms turned down the suit before Robinson took it.

Springfield Court Fines Man $25

Edward L. Sadowski, 28, of 1848 E. St., Springfield, was fined $25 and given a 10-day suspended jail sentence in Springfield municipal court Saturday morning by Judge William D. Bollenau.

City police arrested him at 1:03 p.m. Friday at 21st and Main Sts., on a charge of being drunk on the street.

Also in municipal court, Dollie E. Reese, 45, of 250 S. 43rd St., was given a $5 suspended fine on a charge of violating the basic rule near 28th and Main Sts. Oct. 14.

Allies Assault Kumsong Peaks

SEOUL (Sunday)—(AP)—Allied infantrymen assaulted two peaks before Kumsong on the Central Korean front today in the wake of a spectacular tank raid Saturday on the former Communist bastion.

AP Correspondent Sam Summerlin reported the United Nations foot soldiers met fierce resistance from the deeply-entrenched Communist defenders southeast of the smoking city. One of the peaks is the highest in the sector.

Earlier reports said the back of the Red's Kumsong defense was not broken as the Communists fought from three peaks.

B-29 Superforts Saturday night flew through bad weather to bomb troop positions and an airfield at Pyongyang, capital of North Korea.

MUNSAN (Korea) Sunday

(AP)—Allied and Communist liaison officers met today in Panmunjom in an effort to remove the last obstacle to an early resumption of Korean armistice talks.

The United Nations officers appeared optimistic.

At issue was the meeting got under way at 10 a.m. (5 p.m. Saturday PST) was whether Allied planes can fly over the neutral zone.

'Birthday Party' Will Honor UN

University Group Plans Observance

A community "birthday cake" in honor of the sixth birthday of the United Nations will be "baked" Wednesday night at a public pageant in the Erb Memorial Union Bldg. Sponsor is the University of Oregon International Relations Club, which has worked with the citizen's committee appointed by Mayor V. B. Johnson and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Directed by William Schlosser of Very Little Theater and Little Theater experience, the pageant will open with a huge mixing bowl on the stage of the Erb Memorial Bldg. ballroom. Through the program "ingredients" will be poured into the bowl.

Among the ingredients will be a dance from France for spice, a dance from Holland for "flower," and an address by Frederick M. Hunter for leavening. Dr. Hunter, honorary chancellor of the state system of higher education, will speak on "Toward Permanent Freedom."

Honor guests at the program will be children who were born Oct. 24, 1945, the day the United Nations was born.

Boy Scouts will carry the 61 flags of United Nations countries. The flags were made by Lane County school children.

Buttons to Be Worn
There will be no charge for the program, although persons attending will be asked to wear United Nations buttons, displaying crossed American and United Nations flags. The buttons are available in both downtown Eugene banks and in the Erb Memorial Union Bldg. Persons picking up buttons will have a chance to contribute to a fund to defray costs of the program.

Members of the citizens' committee include Mrs. Ella T. Edmunson, Ray F. Siegenthaler, Virgil M. Cameron, Dr. Frederick M. Hunter, Mrs. Paul L. Risley, Mrs. W. E. Nicholson, Ivan Ware, Fred M. Brenne, Roy C. McCall, Glen Stadler, G. C. Blohm, Mrs. J. Don Smith, Mrs. Tigge Thygesen and Kieth D. Skelton.

The University of Oregon band will provide music.

Churches have been asked to toll their bells at 11 a.m. Wednesday in observance of the organization's sixth birthday.

Meanwhile Mayor B. P. Larson has proclaimed Wednesday United Nations Day in Springfield, with Dean Stevens directing that city's observance of the day. Mayor Larson has ordered the United Nations flag flown from city hall that day. A program open to the public will be presented at the Springfield High School auditorium at 10:15 a.m.

PI ATTENDANCE DOWN
PORTLAND—(AP)—Attendance at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition slumped to 109,022 this year. That was 18,000 fewer than saw the show last year.

Prince Phillip will step from the destroyer. Special guards have been assigned everywhere. Mounties will parade in their red coats. Kiltie bands will play—guns are to fire salutes. Streets and harbor will be cleared of traffic for the arrival.

Elaborate Decorations
In the Empress Hotel, the whole staff buzzes. Potted palms and flowering plants are massed in the main lounge where the princess will pass on her way to the still more elaborately decorated dining room for the provincial luncheon Monday.

A dias is built in the dining rooms, so that the royal highnesses will be visible to all. Afternoon dress will be worn to the luncheon. The half-curtsey will be used by ladies who are presented, as more suitable to informal attire.

Canadians have learned that when first addressed, they will say "your royal highness." In reply: the second time, it's "Ma'am" and "Sir."

To Inspect Cadets
Two parades are planned, in addition to a civic reception at the city hall; provincial reception at government house and another for the navy at admirals house. Most colorful of all will be reception at Royal Roads originally Hatley Castle where Elizabeth will inspect cadets at Military College, Canada's West Point. The party also will pause at Thunderbird Park to greet Vancouver Island Indians. No ball is planned, as the royal personages are to be on holiday in B. C.

Newburn Asks For Amateurism

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—University of Oregon President H. K. Newburn told Oregon Alumni Saturday that big-time college football must be "amateur in the full sense of the word."

Speaking to 150 Oregon grads at a morning program commemorating the 75th anniversary of the school, Newburn said Oregon alumnus ready has embarked on a recruiting program "that emphasizes selling the university itself."

Believes in Athletics
"We're not de-emphasizing football, or anything like that," he said, urging the support of the powerful alumni group.

"We are taking the general position that we believe in competitive athletics and that competitive athletics can contribute to educational goals. We have got to reverse the trend toward professionalism."

Newburn said he thought no one school could by itself carry the load of trying to "de-professionalize" all college football.

Wants Good Students
He added that college football today isn't amateur and there's no better example of the bidding that goes on for players than Oregon's.

Honal goals. We have got to reverse the trend toward professionalism."

Churches have been asked to toll their bells at 11 a.m. Wednesday in observance of the organization's sixth birthday.
