

Texas, California, Ohio State Major Victims . . .

Tennessee, Michigan State Remain Unbeaten

NEW YORK, Oct. 20—(AP)—California, the No. 1 team in the country fell before the sledgehammer second half blows of Southern California Saturday, 21-14, for its first regular-season defeat in four years—but Tennessee and Michigan State, No. 2 and 3, respectively, continued their unbeaten streaks.

Tennessee had a good workout at the expense of Alabama, one of the big Southeastern Conference disappointments, and won it with no trouble, 27-13. The game was close for the first half which ended in a 7-all standoff, but the Vols rushed over three scores in the second half.

Spartans Behind

Michigan State played its usual game, which means the Spartans had to come from behind to pull out a 32-21 verdict over Penn State. The Nittany Lions led, 14-13, at one point in the third period but Jim Ellis and Leroy Bolton sprinted for two scores and Don McAuliff threw for another and that added up to the Spartans fifth triumph in a row. Except for Texas and Texas A&M, all the teams in the top ten came through without a scratch. Georgia Tech, No. 5, knocked Auburn from the ranks of the undefeated, 27-7. Maryland, No. 7, had trouble, but prevailed over North Carolina, 14-7. Illinois No. 8, whipped Washington, 27-20; Princeton, No. 9, slaughtered Lafayette, 60-7, for its 17th straight, and Baylor, No. 10, stopped Texas Tech, 40-20.

Ohio State Humbled

With the exception of Southern California's surprise win and underdog Indiana's 32-10 victory over Ohio State, which had high hopes of winning the Big Ten championship, there were no upsets of note.

Defending champion Michigan polished off Iowa, 21-0, and Wisconsin beat Purdue, 31-7, in other league games.

Notre Dame and Army went in opposite directions, but neither result was a surprise, while Penn served to be counted out of the Ivy League race by dropping Columbia, 28-13. The Lions, up to Saturday, were the only undefeated on major team in the country.

Notre Dame ran up a 33-0 margin over Pitt, and Army reached the post-war depth in its football fortunes by bowing to Harvard, an Ivy League team that has been consigned to the bottom of the heap, 22-21.

Cornell, the heir-apparent to the Ivy League crown, took care of one of its threats, Yale, 27-0. Brown and Dartmouth both went outside the league for their action, the Bears going down before Colgate, 32-14, and Dartmouth recording a 14-0 victory over Syracuse.

Navy Sunk

In the Midwest, Oklahoma triumphed over Kansas, 33-21, and Colorado overcame Kansas State, 20-7, in Big Seven games, while Minnesota defeated Nebraska — Bobby Reynolds-less Nebraska — 39-30. Northwestern, which has developed into one of the Big Ten favorites, sunk Navy, 16-7, and Iowa State turned back Missouri, 21-14.

Mississippi topped Tulane, 25-6, in another southern headliner, and William and Mary outscored North Carolina State, 35-28. Virginia defeated VMI, 34-14, and Duke slapped down Virginia Tech, 55-6.

San Francisco rallied Fordham, 32-26, and Holy Cross took care of New York U., 53-6, in the east.

Pros Suspend Groza, Beard

CHICAGO, Oct. 20—(AP)—The spreading collegiate basketball fix scandal engulfed the University of Kentucky's fabulous 1948-49 team—one of the greatest in the history of the sport.

Investigators from the New York District Attorney's office seized the two former All-America greats, Alex Groza and Ralph Beard, in Chicago, and ex-Kentucky team captain Dale Barnstable in Louisville.

After questioning, the investigators said, the three admitted accepting $500 bribes each to shave the point spread in a 1949 Invitational Tournament game March 14, 1949 in Madison Square Garden, New York.

Groza and Beard, now stockholders and mainstay players on the professional Indianapolis Olympians of the National Basketball Association, were suspended from professional basketball after their arrest.

Kentucky coach Adolph Rupp declared: "The whole world has known for years how I feel about gambling on athletic contests and my stand has not changed."

Monday, addressing the Chicago quarterback club, Rupp said the public should show more leniency with players involved in the bribe scandal. He said the players involved merely shaved points, and didn't throw games, and criticized New York newspapers for printing odds on basketball games.

In a talk at Lincoln, Neb., last Aug. 15, Rupp said the "gamblers couldn't get at our boys with a 10 foot pole." He said the players were under "constant and absolute complete" supervision while on the road.

Michigan State Comes From Behind To Top Penn Staters 32-21

STATE COLLEGE, PA., Oct. 20—(AP)—Mighty Michigan State, in trouble for the third successive week, showed its class by coming from behind to give Penn State a 32-21 licking Saturday.

The green-clad Michigan State Spartans pulled their long gaining plays out of the bag in the third quarter after Penn State had taken a 14-13 lead.

Jim Ellis, a sophomore speed merchant, galloped 57 yards returned a Penn State punt for a touchdown; Quarterback Al Dorow added another by pulling in a 41 yard pass from Don McAuliff, and Leroy Bolden, the first freshman sprinter, dashed 66 yards for the final score.

High Total

BEND, Oct. 20—(AP)—Nearly 90 per cent of the hunters taking part in the special doe-and-fawn hunt in the Silver Lake area are expected to make a kill before the season ends Sunday night, game commission officials said here.

John Reed, offensive fullback and defensive linebacker for the captain of the 1924 Ducks.

Princess 'Loses'

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 20—(AP)—Time and football games wait for no one, not even a princess.

The American-style college football game which the royal couple was scheduled to see here ended 15 minutes before Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip appeared, despite the valiant efforts of officials.

The University of British Columbia and Eastern Oregon College of Education took a 35-minute break between halves, a 10 minute break at the end of the third quarter, and unofficial time outs were called between every other play through the fourth

Stanford Rally Nets 21-14 Win Over Fired-Up Broncos

STANFORD, Calif., Oct. 20—(AP)—The Stanford Indians, driven to desperation by a fired-up Santa Clara offensive that refused to pass, defeated the Broncos 21-14 Saturday by pulling the game out of the fire in the last two minutes of play.

The Indians, undefeated and untied in four starts, were matched touchdown for touchdown for the first 58 minutes by a so-so Bronco team which already had been beaten three times in four outings.

WINNING SCORE

The game-winning Standard touchdown came as the clock ticked off the final two minutes. Gary Kerkerian passed to Bill McColl to the Bronco 20 and big Bob Mathias, the Olympic decathlon champion, knifed off tackle into the end zone.

Stanford opened the scoring

Junior Keglers Open Activities

Eighty-five junior bowlers turned out Saturday morning at Eugene Recreation to inaugurate Eugene's junior bowling program.

On hand for the ceremony was Lonnie Crawford, secretary of the Eugene Moose Lodge, sponsoring organization of the program which will teach juniors in the age range of 12 to 16 years how to bowl and introduce them to regular league play as members of junior bowling teams.

The first morning's activities included indoctrination and instruction by Ray Hoffman of Eugene Recreation. A similar instruction period will take place next Saturday morning and the third Saturday period will be given over to the formation of teams and leagues. League activities will be carried on for the remainder of the bowling season which ends sometime during next April.

The cost of bowling is being financed entirely by the Moose Lodge. Shoe rentals, record-keeping, pin boys and the necessary equipment are being furnished by Eugene Recreation so that participation in the program is entirely free to the juniors.

Saturday's inaugural group was as mixed as it is possible to have a group mixed. There were boys and girls from half a dozen different schools in the area. Willamette High School's delegation numbered an even 30 juniors. Parents and teachers came along to witness the first day's activities. The smallest boy present measured a scant four feet and there were a few youths present who, with their six-foot builds, looked like fugitives from football practice fields.

Juniors, in future sessions, will meet each Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at Eugene Recreation. Parents and teachers are urged to attend the sessions.

BIG SCORE

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Oct. 20—(AP)—A punt-blocking, fumble-grabbing Wisconsin team smothered Purdue 31-7.

Princess 'Loses'

quarter. Bu time wouldn't wait. The 6000 spectators who sat in a steady drizzle saw the University of British Columbia win its first football game in two years, defeating Eastern Oregon 13 to 8.

Both teams agreed to play a five-minute exhibition for the royal procession at 5:32 p.m.

The exhibition was played in darkness and spectators, including the royal couple could hardly see the players.

After the game, the Duke of Edinburgh went over to speak to tackle Dave MacFarlane, captain of the victorious UBC team. MacFarlane presented the duke with a football.

Schulz Motors advertisement for Oldsmobile and Cadillac cars, located at 8th & Pearl, featuring a garage and body shop.

Oakridge Trims Saints, 20-0

The Oakridge football team, with a quick two-touchdown outburst in the first quarter, rolled over St. Francis 20-0 in a District 5-A-2 contest at the Civic Stadium Saturday night.

Three plays after the opening kickoff, the Warriors drew first blood when halfback Walt Spriggs plunged center for seven yards. A 31-yard run by Bill Dumont plus another 17-yard jaunt by Ron Whitecliff set up the score.

The next time Oakridge got the ball, the Warriors moved 67 yards in five plays for a score. Quarterback Fred Richter's 54-yard dash around right end highlighted the march with Whitecliff hitting right guard for the final 10 yards.

Spriggs added the last touchdown after a bad St. Francis punt carried only to the Saint 18. Two plays moved to the 15 and Spriggs moved around right end for the score. Richter added the conversion.

St. Francis made its lone scoring threat in the final quarter when the Saints moved to the Oakridge eight-yard line. At the close of the game, the Warriors had stormed back to the St. Francis two.

Sammy Rebecca booted his second perfect placement to make it 14-7 for the invaders.

THIRD TOUCHDOWN

Before the half ran out, Karras put Illinois on the road to its third tally when he silked through tackle for 20 and fumbled into the hands of Guard Donald Gnidovic, who tacked on 19 more. The play left Illinois just a yard short of the goal, and Bill Tate slammed over. Rebecca missed the kick, leaving the halftime count at 20-7.

Washington came to life suddenly in the middle of the third period when Quarterback Sam Mitchell sailed a pass to Hurryin' Hugh McElhenny, who danced to the goal on a play good for 77 yards. McElhenny added a placement point and the Huskies, realizing they were back in the game again, dominated the play well into the fourth quarter.

Stalled by an Illinois defensive stand on the one-yard line, Washington got a second chance when Tackle Jim O'Brien intercepted one of O'Connell's partially-blocked passes on the Illinois 15. Running plays gained the Huskies nary an inch, but on fourth down Mitchell hit Bill Earley in the end zone for the tying touchdown.

SLATE CLEAN

ATLANTA, Oct. 20—(AP)—Georgia Tech's undefeated Yellow Jackets kept their slate clean by trouncing Auburn, 27-7.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 20—(AP)—Babe Parilli, Kentucky's All-America candidate, unlimbered his brilliant right arm to pitch four touchdown passes in a 35-13 football rout over previously unbeaten Villanova here Saturday night.

Advertisement for Paul D. Green's Tailoring, featuring 'ONE TIME CARBON SNAP OUT FORMS' and 'FAST SERVICE IS AS CLOSE AS YOUR PHONE'.

Fourth Quarter Passing Spree Downs Huskies

Late Rally Tops Washington 27-20

SEATTLE, Oct. 20—(AP)—Sophomore Tommy O'Connell, cool as a fall frost when the going was toughest, pitched Illinois to a fourth-quarter, tie-cracking touchdown and a 27-20 football victory Saturday over the ever-challenging Huskies of the University of Washington.

The invading Illini, ranked eighth in the nation, had freed two flying phantoms — Johnny Karras and Pete Bachourous—in the first half to run up a 20-7 margin before a stunned crowd of 54,000.

With seven minutes left, O'Connell launched an 81-yard drive to the victory. Plunges took the Illini to midfield, and when Washington threatened to halt the parade there, O'Connell went upstairs and pitched five strikes to reach the goal, throwing every one out of deep punt formation. There were only two minutes left — too little for the Huskies to generate a retaliatory drive.

QUICK SCORE

Illinois looked like money in the bank right from the opening kickoff, powering 65 yards in 12 plays to post a 7-0 advantage. The speedball team from the Big Ten never trailed, although Washington twice rallied to tie the score.

The home club matched the Illinois touchdown quickly, thrusting 66 yards in four plays. The big one was a 61-yard center by Sophomore Quarterback Dean Rockey, who faked a handoff and angled over left tackle into the clear. He was caught on the 5 by Herb Neathery, but plunged over from the 1 three plays later.

Karras, whose trick running had puzzled the Huskies in Illinois' first touchdown drive, was joined by Bachourous in the Illini's quick surge to a second touchdown. Between them they accounted for all but 15 yards in a 68-yard, five-play scoring campaign. O'Connell got the 15 on a blast through the line after faking a pass.

Don Stevens had plunged the last yard for the first Illini touchdown through right tackle for the second one.

Sammy Rebecca booted his second perfect placement to make it 14-7 for the invaders.

THIRD TOUCHDOWN

Before the half ran out, Karras put Illinois on the road to its third tally when he silked through tackle for 20 and fumbled into the hands of Guard Donald Gnidovic, who tacked on 19 more. The play left Illinois just a yard short of the goal, and Bill Tate slammed over. Rebecca missed the kick, leaving the halftime count at 20-7.

Washington came to life suddenly in the middle of the third period when Quarterback Sam Mitchell sailed a pass to Hurryin' Hugh McElhenny, who danced to the goal on a play good for 77 yards. McElhenny added a placement point and the Huskies, realizing they were back in the game again, dominated the play well into the fourth quarter.

Stalled by an Illinois defensive stand on the one-yard line, Washington got a second chance when Tackle Jim O'Brien intercepted one of O'Connell's partially-blocked passes on the Illinois 15. Running plays gained the Huskies nary an inch, but on fourth down Mitchell hit Bill Earley in the end zone for the tying touchdown.

SLATE CLEAN

ATLANTA, Oct. 20—(AP)—Georgia Tech's undefeated Yellow Jackets kept their slate clean by trouncing Auburn, 27-7.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 20—(AP)—Babe Parilli, Kentucky's All-America candidate, unlimbered his brilliant right arm to pitch four touchdown passes in a 35-13 football rout over previously unbeaten Villanova here Saturday night.

BUD COVEY Promising UO Cager

Brocher Trims UO Hoop Squad

Coach Bill Brocher expects to have his varsity basketball squad at the University of Oregon trimmed to 24 men within the coming week. Brocher, successful Marshfield High coach who recently replaced John Warren for the Webfoots, will work with the first 12 men and Don Kirsch, assistant basketball coach and head baseball coach, will work with the other 12 for a junior varsity team that will play a 20-game schedule.

Brocher said, however, that any of the 12 JVs are eligible to advance to the varsity, and visa versa.

Presently, after a week of practice, the over-all squad numbers 30. Two candidates have been particularly impressive—Cliff Noe, junior center, and Keith Farnham, junior forward. "They show hustle and ability, but we haven't worked a great deal on anything but fundamentals to date," Brocher said.

Asked about Bob Peterson, fine letterman forward on last year's varsity squad, Brocher said that he had cut Peterson from the squad because he "did not live up to the standards set for Oregon basketball players." If there is any change in Peterson's status it will have to come from him, "he knows our standards."

Others who have survived the first two cuts include Hank Bonnemann, Bud Covey, Ken Hunt and Mel Streeter, varsity; Jim Livesay, Bob Hawes, Doug Rogers and Ken Wegner, sophomores; Ron Bottler, Larry Chamberlain and Dick Koffard, freshmen, and Ed Halberg, transfer.

Oregon opens the season against Portland University in Portland, November 30-December 1, and the first home series will be against Utah, December 7-8 at McArthur Court.

Notre Dame Bounces Back Against Pitt

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 20—(AP)—Notre Dame, rebounding from its defeat by Southern Methodist last week, scored in every quarter for a 33-0 rout over Pittsburgh before 60,127 fans.

The victors capitalized on breaks for three scores and rolled 71 yards on the ground for another. It was the fourth defeat in as many starts for Pittsburgh.

SLATE CLEAN

ATLANTA, Oct. 20—(AP)—Georgia Tech's undefeated Yellow Jackets kept their slate clean by trouncing Auburn, 27-7.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 20—(AP)—Babe Parilli, Kentucky's All-America candidate, unlimbered his brilliant right arm to pitch four touchdown passes in a 35-13 football rout over previously unbeaten Villanova here Saturday night.

Advertisement for Paul D. Green's Tailoring, featuring a suit and 'AN INVITATION TO MEN WHO PREFER THE INDIVIDUALITY OF CLOTHES MADE FROM THEIR OWN CHOICE OF WOOLENS'.

SPORTS Eugene Register-Guard

Oregon Next Faces Tough WSC Cougar

One of the most hotly-contested football relationships in the northwest will be played at Pullman next Saturday when the University of Oregon and Wash-

Idaho Smashes San Jose 40-7

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 20—(AP)—The Idaho Vandals, beaten three times in four previous games, took it out on hapless San Jose to the tune of 40-7 Saturday. Idaho scored 27 points in the last 15 minutes.

It was a wet, cold and muddy struggle on fairly even terms for three quarters before the San Jose defenses collapsed and Idaho rushed over four touchdowns. Two were set up by blocked punts, another came on an intercepted pass.

Fleet Glen Christian, Idaho's senior halfback from Talent, Ore., scored three times and generally sparked a Vandal attack that got rolling for the first time this year.

His first score came after three minutes of play, a 3-yard plunge that ended a 75-yard drive. Christian hustled 37 yards for the biggest gain in the march. Then in the third period, with Idaho leading only 6-0, he skipped 27 yards for a touchdown and kicked the point to make it 13-0.

Then the roof fell in for the rain-soaked Californians whose line was unable to hold the charging Vandal forwards.

Although WSC defeated Oregon 21-13 here last year, the Vandals defeated the Cougars 21-0 in last appearance in Pullman, 1948. In the last ten meetings, teams have won four games and two others have been dead-

Advertisement for 'AB-SO-LUTELY!' car repairs, featuring a mechanic and 'EXPERT REPAIRS'.

Advertisement for 'TWO GREAT SPECIALS FOR TWO MORE WEEKS . . . BRAKE SPECIAL'.

Advertisement for 'FRONT SUSPENSION SPECIAL $5.50'.

Advertisement for 'G.M.A.C. BUDGET PLAN' and 'Dollar for Dollar you can't beat a PONTIAC'.