

Red Roses Bridal Flowers

United Lutheran Church, Springfield, was scene of the ceremony Oct. 14 in which Miss Wendel became the bride of the late Mr. Wendel. The bride was daughter of the late Mr. Wendel of Junction City. She was given in marriage by a close friend, Carl Paeschke, occupied the place of the bride's parents, Mr. Paeschke is son of Mrs. G. C. Temple of Eugene and the late Mr. Paeschke.

length veil was fastened to a cap of the same lace. Four attendants preceded the bride to the altar. Miss Jewel Holt, maid of honor, wore white marquisette over rose taffeta and carried a fan of yellow roses and gypsophilla. Mrs. Melvin Gardner, in pink marquisette over aqua taffeta, and Mrs. Kenneth Hadley, in white marquisette over blue taffeta and Mrs. Clifford Jensen, in white marquisette over yellow taffeta, were bridesmaids. They carried fans of pink roses and gypsophilla. All three are daughters of the Paeschke's. Grover Temple was best man for his brother and ushers were another brother, Rolland, and two cousins, Dean Bailor and Delmas Glaspey. At the reception in the church parlors, Mrs. Busch cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Liedtke, Mrs. Edward John served punch and Mrs. W. W. Nelson served coffee. For traveling the bride wore a brown velvet suit with brown shoes and aqua hat.

All Flowers Deck Home

Flowers in shades of yellow and gold, accented with red roses, decorated the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Tinker at Pleasant Hill for the Oct. 10 wedding of Miss Helen Porter to Albert L. Bradshaw of Colorado Springs, Colo. The bride is daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Porter of Omaha, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bradshaw of Colorado Springs. Dr. Ward Rice, professor at Northwest Christian College and pastor at Pleasant Hill, officiated at 7 p.m. Floral decorations were of dahlias, gerberas and white roses. Mrs. Shariene Tinker lit the candles in candelabra. The bride wore a street length veil of brown crepe made in a style, with henna cummerbund and rhinestone button. Her pale green feather hat was made with shoulder-length beige veil, studded with rhinestones and her flowers were white carnations centered with an orchid which she wore as a corsage. She wore a white which had belonged to the mother of Mrs. Tinker. The latter acted as matron of honor, wearing a brown velvet dress with small brown hat off-the-face hat with white pom-pom. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums and salmon roses. George Bradshaw was best man for his brother. Mr. Donald Griswold served the wedding cake at the buffet supper following the ceremony and Mrs. Lloyd Strand served punch. Mrs. George Bradshaw had the guest book and Miss Deanne Louik and Miss Tinker assisted about the room. The serving table was laid with a lace cloth and centered by white candles flanking an arrangement of asters. The couple made their wedding trip by motor through eastern Oregon and Washington, the bride traveling in her wedding costume. They will live in Colorado Springs.

Faculty Club Holds Dance

University of Oregon Faculty Dancing Club will open the winter season with a dance Oct. 26, in the annex to Gerlinger Hall. Freddy Yahn's orchestra will play for the dance, which will be semi-formal. All newcomers to the faculty in the present year are asked to attend, as guests. Chairmen of the event are Mr. and Mrs. Sidney W. Little and Col. and Mrs. John H. Cunningham. Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sheffield, and the committee assisting them is comprised of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Marx, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Barnhart and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dixon.

MRS. GENE HERLOCKER (Phyllis Hanrahan) was married last Sunday in United Lutheran Church, and will be at home in Eugene. The wedding was largely attended by VLT members, both bride and groom being active in this group.

Miss Hanrahan Weds Mr. Herlocker

United Lutheran Church was filled with friends last Sunday afternoon for the marriage of Miss Phyllis Hanrahan to Gene Herlocker. The Rev. Charles Eple read the service at 3 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hanrahan, and Mr. and Mrs. Arne Strommer are the bridegroom's parents. Large baskets of chrysanthemums in shades of bronze, apricot and white, with autumn leaves, decorated the chancel, and altar vases held white pom-pom chrysanthemums. Before the ceremony, Ray Bednoschek sang "Only to See Thee" and "Because."

Miss Hanrahan was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white satin, simply made, embroidered at the wing collar and on the sleeve edge with seed pearls from her maternal grandmother's wedding gown. A heart-shaped cap held her fingertip veil, and she carried a classic bouquet of Green Light chrysanthemums and calla lily leaves. Mrs. Edward C. Pape Jr. was matron of honor, in a gown of turquoise taffeta, tucked across the bodice and about the skirt. She wore matching mitts and cap of taffeta, and carried a crescent-shaped arrangement of bronze chrysanthemums. William R. Woodie of Drain, brother of the bridegroom, was his best man, and ushers were Robert E. Beistel and Thomas L. Brown. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church hall. Mrs. G. L. Murray served punch and Mrs. Donald Coltrane cut the cake. Both are aunts of the bride. Serving were Mrs. Grant Chase and Mrs. J. Richard Larson. Mrs. William Woodie had the guest book, and Mrs. Olin V. Murray was in charge of gifts. Mrs. Ida Rudisill of Boise, Idaho, the bridegroom's grandmother, was among the guests. The couple left on a wedding trip, and will make their home in Eugene at 3111 Friendly St. For traveling, the bride wore a lilac suit with accessories in purple and an orchid corsage.

Engagements Announced

Miss Dorothy Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Robertson, "let the cat out of the bag" Friday evening and announced her engagement to Norman Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Peterson, also of Eugene. December 8 will be the wedding date of the pair. Guests were asked to the home of Miss Rena White where a real cat with the announcement news tied about its neck was released from a burlap bag. Favors were Slamese kittens in miniature burlap sacks, on which were the guests' names. Miss White helped Miss Robertson perform the trick. Miss Robertson is a graduate of Eugene High School and attended University of Oregon, where she was a pledge of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Mr. Peterson is a graduate in mechanical engineering from Oregon State College and a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roy Swanson of Deadwood announce the engagement of their daughter, Fredaberg Helene, to Augustus John Stores. He is the son of Mrs. Theresa Stores of Cheshire. The wedding is planned for Nov. 3. Eugene Soroptimist Club staffed the mobile chest X-ray units in downtown Eugene Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Mrs. Frank Wills, one of a flying squad of speakers from Eugene Toastmistress Club, spoke to the Soroptimists Tuesday at noon luncheon. The club moved to support the Crusade for Freedom, which is one of two projects backed by the American Federation of Soroptimist Clubs, and made a contribution of $10 to the local drive. Plans were laid for a rummage sale in the spring. An invitation was received for members to attend the reception for foreign students on the UO campus Tuesday evening.

Pfe. Rosella Jacobs' engagement to Cpl. Walter Miller of Sturgis, S. D., has been told by Greeting Cards....

FOR HALLOWE'EN!
FOR THANKSGIVING!
FOR SPECIAL OCCASIONS!

Special assortments of Christmas cards now on display... if you wish them imprinted, get your order in NOW as we are already receiving cancellations on some designs.

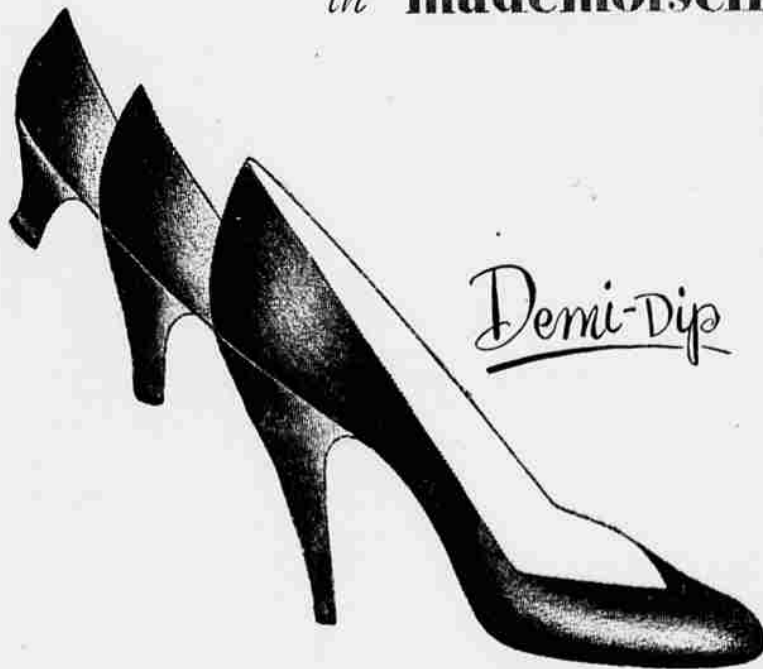

Lathryns

122 EAST BROADWAY

At BURCH'S

its a New Contour

in mademoiselle[®] shoes

A NEW silhouette in suede... a new tapered shape in pumps. Colors of Black, Blue, Brown and Grey. $14.95

Mail Orders Filled Promptly

EUGENE'S FINEST SHOE STORE FOR MORE THAN 20 YEARS

OPEN FRIDAY EVENINGS

1060 Willamette

Just one of Skeie's wide selection of Sterling patterns... "Chantilly." It's easy to own... A place-setting of five pieces costs just 29.75. And... with our Easy Budget Plan you may pay $5 down... $1 weekly... and, before you realize it the silver you've longed for is yours!

SKEIE'S
Jewelry
Store
1027 Willamette

here's oriental opulence... the quilted Coolie Coat by Evelyn Pearson

Cleverly co-partnered with black rayon pajamas. Sizes 10 to 20. $8.95

For elegant lounging, you'll love the luxury look of Evelyn Pearson's stunning coolie coat! Contrasting piping rims the mandarin collar... a dramatic appliqued motif accents the lap-across closing! Brilliant contrasting lining, two seam-inserted pockets above the side slit. In rich rayon taffeta. Aqua with flesh, flame with flesh, gold with tangerine and all with black embroidery. Sizes 10 to 20. 10.95

Hart Larsen's
CLOTHES for WOMEN

1080 Willamette

* CHARGE ACCOUNTS * LAY-AWAYS