Sittner-Parsons Wedding Recent

Grace Lutheran Church was the scene of the wedding Sunday, Sept. 30 at which Miss Mary Jo Parsons was married to Harley E. Sittner. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Parsons and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sittner, all of Eugene.

The Rev. W. B. Maier officiated at 4 p.m. before an altar decorated with pink and yellow gladiolus. Music was by the church organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white satin, her fingertip veil falling from a beaded tiara. She carried a white prayer book on which was an orchid-throated white orchid. Her borrowed handkerchief had belonged to Mrs. Lucy Meyer, mother of Mrs. Ernest Sittner.

Three attendants, Mrs. Richard Vidoni, matron of honor and the bridesmaids, Miss Lois Sittner and Miss Lorraine Joelson, accompanied the bride to the altar. Mrs. Vidoni was in teal green satin with net skirt and carried a nosegay of gardenias and white and green asters. Miss Sittner was in pale blue net, her nosegay of gardenias and pink asters. Miss Joelson was in salmon pink net and carried a nosegay of gardenias and lavender asters.

Jerry Vitus was best man and ushers were James Wadman and Paul Detrick.

At the reception in the church basement blue candles were used as decoration. Serving were Mrs. James Wadman, Mrs. Mel Wadman and the two bridesmaids.

The couple went to Portland on their wedding trip, the bride wearing accessories in deep lilac with her brown suit. They are at home in Eugene.

Episcopal Ceremony Unites Couple

White gladiolus on the altar decorated St. Mary's Episcopal Church Thursday, Oct. 4, for the 10 a.m. wedding of Miss Gloria Blanc of Eugene and Floyd Dale Johnson of Creswell. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Johnson of Creswell, and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Blanc of Caldwell, Idaho.

The Rev. E. S. Bartlam, rector of St. Mary's, heard the couple repeat their vows. Mrs. Joseph Blanc of Caldwell was matron of honor, wearing a rust dress with black accessories. Grover Fulk was best man.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with striped jacket and navy accessories. She carried white gladiolus, with small pink rosebuds in the bouquet and tied into the streamers.

Pink dahlias and white candles decorated the home of Mrs. Lorraine Hazel where the reception was held. The couple went to Portland, Washington and Seaside on their wedding trip. They are now living in Eugene.

Gladiolus Decorate Altar At September Church Rites

Given in marriage by an uncle, M. S. South, Miss Patricia Ruth Hanford became the bride of Billy W. Cook in a ceremony Sept. 16, at First Congregational Church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mildred Hanford of Eugene and John C. Hanford of Los Angeles. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Maybelle Cook of Los Angeles and William T. Cook, Cheyenne, Wyo.

The bride's gown was of white satin with long sleeves pointed at the wrist and sweetheart neckline trimmed in pearls. The skirt ended in a train. The veil was net and lace with crown of pearls and her flowers an orchid with stephanotis.

Mrs. Howard Parsons of Springfield was matron of honor, wearing pastel blue chiffon. Her flowers were pink roses and stephanotis. Mr. Parsons was best man and ushers were Orson Sorensen and John Christensen.

Baskets of gladiolus decorated the altar, which was lighted with white tapers in two seven-branch candelabra. "I Love You Truly" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" were sung by John Billings, accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Magart. Dr. Wesley G. Nicholson officiated.

At the reception in Wheeler Room, Mrs. Emma Sorensen, Mrs. Oscar Rimmer, Mrs. Dorothy Edson, Mrs. Floyd Billings, Mrs. Vera Ward, Mrs. Orin Millaway and Mrs. Charles Chambers assisted.

For going away the bride wore a blue and red check dressmaker suit with harmonizing accessories. They will live near Eugene on Maxwell Road.
