Bride Carries Prayerbook

Miss Colette Kann carried her mother's first communion prayerbook, white with mother-of-pearl inlays, when she was married Oct. 6 at St. Mary's Catholic Church to William Buhr of Iron Mountain, Mich. With the prayerbook she carried two bronze and chrysanthemum corsages.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mayme Kann of Eugene and the bridegroom the son of Mrs. Joseph Guizzetti of Green Bay, Wis.

The Very Rev. E. J. Murnane celebrated the High Mass at 9 a.m. Yellow and bronze chrysanthemums in two small bouquets on the altar and filling two large baskets were the decorations at the church. St. Mary's choir sang the High Mass and "Panis Angelicus" was sung by Dale Cooley and Robert Hammil. Mrs. Cooley was the organist.

The bride was gowned in white satin, made on princess lines and worn with a jacket of Chantilly lace. The skirt was short and full. With it she wore a cloche-type hat with short veiling and a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. Laurell J. Kann gave his sister in marriage.

Only attendant of the bride was her sister, Miss Charlotte Kann, who wore a short jacket and full skirt in toast color net over taffeta. Her headdress was of the same taffeta and net and she carried small yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

Eugene Evonuk was best man and Warren Wiley acted as the guests.

The small reception was at the Kann home where Mrs. Eugene Evonuk cut the cake and Mrs. Laurell J. Kann poured. Fall flowers decorated the rooms.

For going away the bride wore a gold suit with brown accessories. Their home will be 1156 1/2 Patterson St., Eugene.

No Defrosting! No De-freezing!

because there's never any frost in this moist-cold refrigerator!

No Dried Out Foods!

because you never have to shut off the cold, foods stay frozen, never get dried out.

Old way: This "cold plate" was left uncovered for four days in an ordinary refrigerator. All the foods are dried out, shriveled up... flavor is gone.

Dual-Temp way: This "cold plate" prepared the same time and sliced from the same food and cheese, was left uncovered for four full days in an Admiral Dual-Temp. Cool, dry air kept every slice moist, fresh, tasty.

Here, truly, are 2 appliances in 1! In the huge freezer compartment, temperatures range as low as 20° below zero (52° below freezing) and you can quick-freeze and safely store as much as 72 lbs. of frozen food.

In the giant Moist-Cold Compartment, the climate is perfect for preservation of foods—cool and moist yet completely without frost. Foods stay fresh as the morning dew, never need lids or wrappings.

Yet these wonderful Dual-Temps cost no more than many ordinary refrigerators which require defrosting. Come in and see them now.
