NEW OFFICERS LEARN REBEKAH LODGE DUTIES

LORANE—Several officers were installed at Rebekah meeting this past week. Eleanor Brown was elected secretary to replace Mrs. John Montgomery who has moved away. Mrs. May Swinney was admitted to membership by card.

Those installed were Mrs. Gail (Dorothy) Woodward, right support noble grand; Mrs. Buck (Emmalee) Johnson, left support to the noble grand; Mrs. W. J. (Belle) Leach, chaplain; Mrs. Dennis (Lorena) Mitchell, inside guardian; Eleanor Brown, secretary.

MORE COMPETITION FOR POOR OLD REG-GUARD

JUNCTION CITY—Three members of Girl Scout Troop No. 81, Eleanor Dixon, Martha Files and Dianna Wright, have decided to publish a newspaper of their troop activities to help them in earning their journalist badge. Since their insignia is the Cardinal, the paper is to be named "The Cardinal Tribune."

Patty Gibson has invited the troop to her home for Halloween party Tuesday evening, Oct. 30. Troop meets Wednesday, Oct. 24, after school, with Martha Files.

TRENT PERSONALS

TRENT — Mrs. Donovan Kimball left Wednesday for Portland to take the Oregon State Board Nurses exams.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Huff and daughter Linda, of Myrtle Point, are visiting Mrs. Huff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bradshaw and family, drove to Portland Monday evening, taking with them George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Bradshaw, who took the United Air Lines plane from Portland back to their home in Colorado Springs. It was their first plane ride. Bradshaws were here to attend the wedding of their son Albert. An interesting thing was the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Bradshaw boarded the plane at 9:30 Tuesday a.m. and reached their destination at 3:30 M.S.T. The George Bradshaws lingered just long enough to have breakfast, then left for home arriving at Trent at 2:30 P.S.T., beating their parents by just ten minutes.
