

Motorists Get Politest of Warnings
 QUINCY, Mass.—(UP)—Out-of-town motorists who violate minor traffic laws in this city receive a warning which reads: "You are probably on vacation and that visiting the scenic city of Quincy is part of your trip—we hope your stay here is a pleasant one."
 "However, you have violated certain traffic regulations. The police department urges you most sincerely but firmly to obey our traffic rules. . . . This card is a warning. Any further violation will be punishable."
 The YWCA is a Chest agency.

GIVES CHILDREN BREAK
 ROCHESTER, N.H.—(UP)—Anthony Sawicki couldn't bear seeing children being exposed to traffic dangers while playing in the street. He built for them in his backyard a miniature amusement park which includes swings, a ferris wheel, sandbox and a chute.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR PAYNE, whose ages are 82 and 75, recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary, and open house was held for them at the home of their daughter, Mrs. L. J. Black, and another daughter, Mrs. T. R. Buzzard of Seattle, assisted. The couple was married in Marion, Ohio, where they lived until coming here six years ago.

SPRINGFIELD HIGH NEWS

Curtis Drive was featured at an assembly Oct. 18. Mr. Eugene Bauman introduced prizes for Curtis Drive. The main prize this year is a suit of clothes, formal or $50 in merchandise at one of the Springfield stores. This drive is to last two weeks.
 Fifty per cent of the money made from the Curtis Drive goes for a new scoreboard and the other 50 per cent on new band uniforms.
Hi-Y Club Active
 Hi-Y members will go to the Ebbett Memorial Church Oct. 21. There will be 20 boys as a group. Twelve new members will be initiated Thursday, Oct. 18. They are Johnny Alexander, Dick Alexander, Gerry Orahnd, Gary Eddy, Clayton Curtis, Wilfred Salsberg, Paul Peppercue, Dean Inman, Don Peterson, Floyd Vilke, John Briscoe and Irvin Bostwick.
 The inter-club council of Springfield, Eugene and Willamette High had a meeting last Wednesday evening. Plans for an inter-club potluck supper were formed and also plans were made to meet with Hi-Y members of Corvallis.
 Resolutions were adopted by the Springfield Hi-Y from the Oberlin College in Ohio at the Hi-Y convention last year.
Usherettes Chosen
 Usherettes have chosen 11 new members. They are seniors, Jeanine Veich and Joyce Morton; sophomores, Elizabeth Maspin; freshmen, Myrna Pickett, Donna Mae Lindley, Janice Wood, Jeanne Peterson, Betty Lefever, Judy Saathaff, Betty Blackmon and Gracie Hamel.
 The lettermen are planning a dance. Those on the committee are Wayne Sabin, Bill Dellinger, Jerry Cherry, George Biderback, Doug Williams and Harley Mayfield. Officers for this year are: President, Ancel Troutman; vice-president, Doug Williams; secretary, Don Erne; sergeants-at-arms, Bill Pakulak and Darrell Willis. Adviser is Mr. John Young.
Princess Candidates
 The sophomore class has chosen three candidates to run for carnival princess. They are Claireen Lindloy, Zora Jensen and Mayzell Thomas. The other girls on the ballot were Anna Chatman, Inez Bowerman, Geneva Anderson, Mariann Veteto, Pat Wendt and Jo Eggelston.
 Junior class candidates are Yvonne Wright, Faye Haxby, Betty Bartz, Dawn Lundy, Phyllis Colvin and Daisanna Porter.
 The SHS Pep Squad is planning to go to Corvallis for their "away from home" game.
Debate Team to Travel
 The debate team has decided to go to two or three tournaments at Trent First Place to Report Having Frost
 TRENT—Old Man Winter made himself known here Wednesday morning with a blanket of white frost visible on the roofs. It is the first frost of the season, not being hard enough to do much damage.

ST. FRANCIS HIGH NEWS

A plan was adopted at a recent Student Council meeting to distribute the ordinary work connected with regular student body dances. It was decided to rotate the work among the classes. The organization of the "Kilowatt Club" was also chartered at the meeting. The club will be in charge of all school electrical equipment.
 A dance is scheduled for this Friday evening at the Knights of Columbus Hall. A "Kick-off" dance and a "Freshman Hello" dance were among dances conducted earlier in the season.
 The Student Body Treasurer is traditionally appointed at St. Francis, ane Campbell was appointed recently. A junior "A" student, she has been active in Pep Club work. Other significant appointments include the appointment of Sylvia Gustina as editor of the St. Francis News, and Shirley Shipman as editor of the yearbook, the Shield.
 Student Body President Mike McClosky reports that season ticket sales are progressing most satisfactorily. In fact, he states, sales are 280% above last year. He attributes the increase to exceptional spirit and sound planning. John Connell and Fred Cerkonoy were awarded the $20 prize for selling the most tickets. Ticket sales are being handled by the Lettermen and the Pep Club.
 Programs were printed for last Thursday's game with Willamette High through the efforts of the Pep Club. The Pep Club also has been selling small blue and gold megaphones throughout the school during the past week.
 A recent meeting of the Girls' League resulted in the election of De Lonna Morrow as president, Jane Campbell, vice-president, Joann Oswald, secretary, and Joyce Kemp, treasurer.
