

Family Party News Wanted by Junction City's Pearl Hansen

By PEARL A. HANSEN
Register-Guard Correspondent

JUNCTION CITY—Greetings from Junction City via the Register-Guard Express: To the staff, the carriers and all the readers too: Our best wishes for a bright and prosperous '52.

Once again the Register-Guard sends Holiday Greetings to all its readers in the mythical kingdom of "Register-Guardia," and will attempt to print as many holiday items as possible up to and including the issue of Sunday, Jan. 6.

The County News Section will be devoted to stories of family parties through this Holiday Season and each family in this community is asked to send its news to Mrs. W. E. Hansen, Dial 8-2240. Remember, first come, first served and keep in mind that no holiday news will be printed after Sunday, Jan. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gribbskov and children were to spend Christmas Day in Portland with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Hill.

Sgt. Dean Borgard of the Air Force has arrived from Washington, D. C. to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Borgard.

Lester Myers and family of Eugene held a pre-Christmas celebration Sunday evening with his sister and family, the W. E. Hansens.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nielsen have as their guest, her sister Mrs. Olliver Wyman from Peoria, Mont. Miss Muriel Horton, a student at Emanuel Hospital in Portland, arrived the past weekend to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Horton. Their son Corwin, a student at Oregon

State College, is also home for the holidays.

Bill Hansen was to leave Wednesday morning for Seattle to spend the rest of the week visiting his aunt, Mrs. H. A. Shook.

Ernest Jager arrived home Friday night from Des Moines, Iowa, where he is a student at Grandview College, to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jager.

Gerald Jensen from Seattle is visiting with his parents and brothers, the Godfred Jensens, for the holidays.

Ed McNetney left Saturday for San Francisco where he will spend Christmas with his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Finito.

Mrs. Betty Burkhardt is to arrive this week to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ditto.

Lynx Hollow, Turkey Run Send Greeting

LYNX HOLLOW—Season's greetings from Lynx Hollow and Turkey Run to the Register-Guard and its staff.

The school children are enjoying a vacation from their school studies but school will open again Wednesday, Jan. 2, 1952.

Mrs. Royal Hinkson, son and daughter Johnny and Cecilia, have gone back to their former home at Council Bluffs, Iowa to make their home, and Johnny will undergo treatment for a heart condition there. Mr. Hinkson will remain here while with his logging.

Z. R. Davis has gone to Ceres, Calif. to make his home with a daughter, Mrs. Rissy Monroe. Davis has been with a daughter, Mrs. Ray Holbrook, here for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kimery, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Webb and daughter Sharon, all of Melba, Idaho, spent the Christmas holidays with their son Elmer Kimery and family.

Joe E. Farmer was brought home Christmas eve from the Cottage Grove hospital. Farmer suffered a broken leg Dec. 20 while at work at Porter Bros. mill as turn-down man on the carriage.

Mrs. George William arranged a program of Christmas numbers and there was gift-giving.

The Home Economics club enjoyed their annual party with a pot-luck dinner and gifts. Next meeting of the HEC will take place at the home of Mrs. Leslie Peters in Waltherville, Jan. 8. All grange women are welcome.

Grange meets Jan. 1, New Years Night, at the community center.

Long Tom Grange at their recent meeting appointed committees, heard reports, received a gift, discussed play festival, and heard the suggested program of work. The new officers were in charge.

The committees for the coming year are Jack Mahony (chairman), Wallace Moffett, Glen Nordyke, agriculture; Mrs. Cora Harper (chairman), Bob McCullough and Mrs. Clovis Buchanan, legislative; Mrs. Ruth Barto and Mrs. Cedric Moffett will audit the books; Mrs. Ray Becker, lecturer, has asked Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Barto and Ed Rogers to assist her with the play festival; the grange with a large flag which a friend had given her to give to some organization. The grange gave her a rising vote of thanks.

The Home Economics Club chairman reported on the Christmas party and announced Mrs. Gene (Ruth) Kellogg is the new chairman and that a meeting will probably be held early in January. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Small were given their third and fourth degree work.

At Pleasant Hill

PLEASANT HILL—Returning to Pleasant Hill for Christmas were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Erickson. Erickson's spent two weeks in California in and around Pomona.

Mrs. Erickson reports that she had to come back to Oregon to get warm.

Donald Lee Miller, sixth grader at Pleasant Hill School and son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Miller, is confined to bed with rheumatic fever. Mrs. Ira Truesdale also is suffering from the same ailment. Jerry Olson is responding nicely to treatment for rheumatic fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Truesdale are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Truesdale during the holidays. Truesdale is with the merchant marine and his wife, Dorothy, has been with her parents in Idaho, and is teaching school there.

News All Week Of Monroe Parties

MONROE—Please turn in your holiday news items to your local news stringer. Our Monroe community has entered for a few days "the mythical kingdom of Register-Guardia." The royal printing press will feature the holiday news and would like to have one item from each family. But we must work fast. At the mythical kingdom of Register-Guardia, the mythical kingdom of Register-Guardia will be printed. Local holiday items may be turned in to your news stringer for mailing by Friday, Jan. 4. Phone them to 3361, 10-12 a.m. and 6-9 p.m.

Send News From Elmira's Holidays

ELMIRA—News of holiday visitors and entertaining will be welcomed by the Register-Guard for publication up to mail time Friday, Jan. 4. Following this date no more holiday personals can be accepted. Mail or phone to Mrs. Gordon Bourgeois, box 111, Elmira, Venable 2528.

CRESWELL VISITOR RECEIVES BAD BURNS

Mrs. Julia Alexander of Centralia, Wash. is very ill as a result of being badly burned recently. Mrs. Alexander visited her son, Oscar Alexander and family here, some months ago.

Oakridge CC Will Nominate Wednesday

OAKRIDGE—Chamber of Commerce will hear nominations from the floor at their noon meeting Wednesday, Jan. 2 at Jamison's Cafe. The nominating committee made a report last week, the election of officers will be at the noon meeting, Jan. 7.

"NEW CITIZENS" NOTED IN YONCALLA HOMES

YONCALLA—Word has been received here from southern Oregon of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gordon, Dec. 20. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gordon and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fast.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jason Jackson at the Cottage Grove Hospital, Dec. 24. This is their first son. They have two girls. The girls were with Mrs. Fred Backman while Mrs. Jackson was in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Atkinson and family have sold their home west of town to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Telkamp of Medford, who took immediate possession. Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson have bought property in Drain and moved there.

Charles Kirkile has been discharged from the hospital in Portland, and he and Mrs. Kirkile are visiting friends at McMinnville, but will be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Grass and baby have moved from a cabin at Coffee Flat to the Samler house.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hopkins and baby moved to Drain this week.

Tom Powers to Speak On Bonds For Wilhi P-TA

DANEBO—The Willamette High School will hold their PTA meeting, Thursday, Jan. 3 at 8 p.m., in the school "cafeteria." A talk on the bond election will be given by Tom Powers. A one-act, all girl play "Pickles in Pickles" will be presented under the direction of Howard Zimmerman. Refreshments will be served.

Pleasant Hill P-TA Indefinitely Deferred Until Furnace Ready

PLEASANT HILL—The Parent-Teachers Assn. meeting which was planned for Thursday, Jan. 3 has been indefinitely postponed because of additional time needed to "set" the concrete in the newly-installed oil heating system at the school. Watch the Register-Guard for the meeting date.

Westfir Women Form New Team For Softball

WESTFIR—All women interested in playing softball are invited to the M. L. Spellmire's Friday, Jan. 4, 7:30 p.m. to complete organization for 1952 and elect a manager and assistant manager. Spellmire's house is 154 near the service station.

Greetings From Leaburg "Village of Lights"

LEABURG—Greeting from Leaburg, village of lights with "Christians" and "Shiblers" the winners.

Their efforts made beauty every night.

For travelers, saints and sinners.

The Christmas Lane made us happy and mellow.

It started a feeling sincere that will keep the spirit of Christmas aglow.

All through the coming year.

Reg-Guardia Bardia

By CORA E. WEARIN

WALTHERVILLE—Waltersville sends its New Year's wish to the whole land of Register-Guardia:

We hope you'll read between the lines

For this poor struggling bardia

For every year this rhyming gets

Harder and harder.

But Happy New Year to you all,

From Waltherville-on-McKenzie;

I'll get a rhyme for this last line

When I come to the end-zie.

Send 'Em In From Fall Creek

FALL CREEK—The Register-Guard send their Christmas greetings again this year to their town and country readers in the mythical kingdom of "Register-Guardia." They will attempt to print at least one holiday item for every family.

Each family is asked to send their news item immediately to their correspondent, Mrs. Royal Carpenter.

You may send stories of family parties, and through the holidays no details will be edited out, so give any outstanding decorations, lists of guests. This will hold up to and including news mailed by the correspondent, Jan. 4, Friday. First come, first served.

LOWELL VISITOR

LOWELL—William J. Willis of Maupin, Oregon, is here to visit his brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Willis Jr., until after New Years.

Special Meeting Called to Scan Building Needs

YONCALLA—The polo drive will open this year on Jan. 2, Wednesday.

Friday, Jan. 4, at 8 p.m. special school meeting at the grade school for discussion on Yoncalla Grade School's new building to relieve the crowded condition and eliminate the use of the Pleasant Valley building which is inadequate. Architects, Wilmsen and Endicott, the schools attorney, John Luvas, and a representative of the state superintendent of public instruction will all be present.

Friday evening, Saddle club meets at City Hall.

Due to illness the annual Christmas party of the Yoncalla Women's Study was postponed until their meeting, Thursday, Jan. 3.

Elwood McClure Heads Alumni On McKenzie

BLUE RIVER—The McKenzie High School Alumni Association held its annual holiday dinner and business meeting Thursday, Dec. 27, at Phil's Place, several miles above Blue River.

New officers were elected: president, Elwood McClure; vice-president, Roy Belknap; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. June Taylor. Outgoing officers included Doug Stoble and Mrs. Doris Richardson.

Special alumni guests were the many boys home from service. Some of these were not actually McKenzie High School graduates, but nevertheless were close friends and one-time attendants of McKenzie School.

Those honored included: Don Harbick, Alan Vitus, Robert Seal, James Rookard, Larry Padden, Rod Rasmussen, E. J. (Ned) Kauford, Dale Pettit, Muriel Coulter, Bill Turriton, Buddy Harbick, Dale Waddell, and Darwin McClure.

After the dinner the alumni moved to Blue River Theatre for several hours of social dancing with friends.

This dinner and dance concluded the series of holiday events sponsored annually by the Alumni Association. Wednesday evening the Alumni formed a basketball team to play the present McKenzie High School team. The present team was noosed out by the old timers by a score of 46 to 41.

Church Expands Veneta Services

VENETA—The Veneta Gospel Mission is starting a Sunday school with the New Year, according to announcement from their pastor, the Rev. F. L. Franzenburgh. Robert Sutherland will be superintendent. Mrs. Frank Flick will teach the beginners; Mrs. Vern Lowry will have the intermediates; Vern Lowry will teach the young people; Elmer Olson will have the adult class.

The Mission has not previously had a Sunday school. All children, young people, and adults are cordially invited to come. Classes will open at 10 a.m.; the church worship service is at 11. The first Sunday of the new year, Jan. 6, will be opening day, for the Sunday school. The International Standard Course of instruction will be given.

City, County, and State Employees Celebrate With Holiday Potluck

OAKRIDGE—More than 60 attended the Christmas-New Year's annual party given by employees of the City of Oakridge, Saturday, Dec. 29, at the Fire Hall. The tables were decorated with red streamers and silver balloons for the potluck dinner. Misses Mary Alice and Susan J. Helikson sang, and Dale Hunter entertained with magic.

Special guests were Keith David, state police officer for this district, and Mrs. David; Harry Swank, sheriff's deputy, and Mrs. Swank; volunteer firemen and volunteer librarians and their families, and other Oakridge, Lane, and State of Oregon employees of this area.

Feature of the planned-potluck menu was the baked ham, prepared by John Johnson, cook at Pope and Talbot. Mrs. Vern Williams was chairman for food; Mrs. George Bouhey supervised the decorating committee; Roy Temple was chairman of the hall committee; Loren Gerspach arranged for the entertainment.

Two Boys Arrive At Westfir Clinic At Year's Ending

WESTFIR—Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Heimbarger of Westfir are parents of a baby boy born Saturday evening, Dec. 29, at the Westfir Clinic. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Case of Crescent City, Calif., also had a boy, born Monday, Dec. 31.

Creswell Star Meets

CRESWELL—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Scott, Mrs. H. W. Bryden, and Mrs. W. O. Spencer will serve refreshments following Eastern Star, Thursday evening, Jan. 3.

