

Bride Wears Pale Green

Pale green satin was chosen by Miss Clara Mae Mattoon for her marriage to Eldred L. Smith Dec. 27 in the annex of First Christian Church. Assistant Pastor James H. Cornett performed the rites.

Decorations of red carnations and pale green candles were used for the informal ceremony. The bride's dress was street length, and with it she wore a corsage of red carnations, tied with silver. She wore white ballerina slippers.

For sentiment the bride wore a blue sapphire ring belonging to a friend, Mrs. Wilbur Wittliff.

"Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Mrs. R. C. Royston Jr., accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Steven Woodson.

A reception immediately followed the ceremony with Mrs. Woodson, Mrs. Harold Johnson and Mrs. Oakley Shay in charge of serving. Out-of-town guests included the bride's father and brother, William Mattoon and son Ray, of Graham, Wash., and Mrs. J. B. Smith of Albany, mother of the bridegroom. Other relatives attended from Swiss Home, Tangent, and Albany.

The couple now is at home in Eugene where Mr. Smith is employed as carpenter foreman for Stein Brothers.

Mrs. Yokum Hostess

Acorn Park Club meets Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Calvin Yokum, 3244 W. 16th Ave.

MRS. ROBERT A. SYLWESTER (Ruth Eileen Maier), married Dec. 28 in Grace Lutheran Church, of which her father, the Rev. W. B. Maier, is pastor, will make her new home in Vancouver, where her husband is a teacher.

Pastor Maier Performs Daughter's Wedding Rite

Guests at the wedding of Miss Ruth Eileen Maier of Eugene and Robert Alfred Sylwester of Vancouver, Wash., Friday, Dec. 28 at Grace Lutheran Church participated in the marriage service. They sang a hymn, "The Lord's My Shepherd," and the responses to the nuptial prayer and benediction.

Parents of the couple are the Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Maier of Eugene and Prof. and Mrs. F. W. J. Sylwester of Portland. The bride's father, who is pastor of Grace Lutheran, was officiating clergyman, as well as giver of his daughter in marriage.

Lighted Christmas trees, an altar of white chrysanthemums with poinsettias and red tapers in candelabra decorated the church. William O'Leary, baritone, sang "O Perfect Love" preceding the ceremony and, during the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer." Waldo B. Nielsen was the organist, playing Bach's Prelude in E Minor as an organ processional.

The bride was gowned in Chantilly lace over ice blue satin with fingertip veil falling from a tiara of satin and lace edged with seed pearls. The bodice of her gown was made with scalloped neckline and long sleeves, the floor-length skirt with a lace overskirt. She carried Willkie roses, peach-colored, with bouvardia and streamers in bouquet arrangement and wore the gift of her bridegroom, a gold chain and cross.

Miss Alice Maier was her sister's honor attendant, in iridescent purple taffeta, floor-length, with elbow-length sleeves and full skirt. She carried two large poinsettias. Miss Marian Briner and Miss Dolores Graham, the latter of San Francisco, each carried a large single poinsettia. Miss Briner in red taffeta and Miss Graham in green taffeta.

Completing the wedding party were the groom's brother, Alfred Sylwester of Oakland, Cal., as best man and four ushers, Dan Heins of Albany, Robert Becker of Salem, William Maier, brother of the bride and Eugene Maier, her cousin.

The reception was in the church parlor where aunts of the bride, Mrs. James Maier, cut the cake, Mrs. Henry Maier
