MRS. PETER DENNY, who was Miss Louise Gibbons before her marriage, wore a gown of pale blue Chantilly lace for her wedding, which was just before Christmas at Central Presbyterian Church.

Bride is Third Generation To Be Wedded by Minister

Wedding vows of Miss Ardye Jane Mitchell and Roy Stewart Makinson, married Dec. 16 at Triangle Lake Memorial Church, Blachly, were heard by the same minister who officiated at the wedding of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Mitchell. The Rev. Rollo J. Phelps, Evangelical minister, also performed marriage ceremonies for the bride's maternal grandmother, as well as for two of her uncles and aunts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Makinson of Greenleaf are parents of the bridegroom.

Gold and white chrysanthemums in baskets and tapers in candelabra decorated the church for the 3 p.m. ceremony. Red bows and branches of hemlock marked family pews. Mrs. Winifred Hult played a program of organ music and traditional wedding marches.

Vocal music was by Miss Maevee Johnson, singing "A-ways" and, as a prayer, "Today, O Lord, They at Thine Altar Stand"; and Thomas Minter, singing "Because." Mr. and Mrs. James Dysinger sang "Tell Me Why," in duet arrangement. Mrs. Hult played accompaniments for Miss Johnson and Mr. Minter and "Jesus, Savior Pilot Me," while the candles were being lighted by Robert Foster, cousin of the groom, and Walter Howell, cousin of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length dress of white moire taffeta, designed by herself and made by her mother. The fitted bodice was made with scalloped neckline, Chantilly lace over-bodice, sleeves and peplum, the bodice pointed at front and back to join the full gathered skirt.

Zonta Club Lists Dessert

Dessert and monthly business meeting of Zonta Club will be Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Woman's Club. The social committee will be Mrs. Mable Hillstrom, Mrs. L. B. Schmidt, and Mrs. Lester R. Collier.

Seed pearl trim outlined the neckline. The bride's illusion veil was attached to a tiara of seed pearls and trimmed with Chantilly lace. Her flowers were white and pink candy carnations arranged with white satin streamers on a white Bible. With it she carried a handmade lace and linen handkerchief made and carried by her maternal grandmother.

Attendants were Mrs. Dan Walls, matron of honor and bridesmaids, Mrs. Roland Ritchie of Eugene and Miss Patricia Minter of Horton. Mrs. Walls was in green marquisette over a matching taffeta skirt and lace over the fitted taffeta bodice. She carried pink carnations. The bridesmaids were dressed in identical gowns of shrimp pink net over matching taffeta. They carried yellow carnations.

Flower girl was Carol Jean

Foster, cousin of the groom, in green taffeta.

Gordon Brewer was best man and ushers were John Burch and Chester Mitchell Jr., brother of the bride.

The bridegroom's boutonniere matched the flowers in his bride's bouquet and the best man and ushers wore carnations matching those carried by the attendants.

For the reception in the church parlors the fireplace was decorated with hemlock boughs and red candles. Tiny angel candles, lighted, surrounded the wedding cake. Mrs. Floyd Foster, aunt of the groom, cut the cake. Miss Loretta Syphers served punch and Mrs. Myron Howell, aunt of the bride, presided at the guest book.

For a trip up the McKenzie and other places, the bride wore a gray suit, with Kelly green accessories and the corsage from her wedding bouquet. The bridegroom is with the Seabees and will report back to San Francisco at the end of his leave. Both bride and groom are graduates of Triangle High School.

Among the wedding guests were Mrs. Clara Steward of Stayton, maternal grandmother of the groom, and Mrs. M. Ruth Phelps of Florence, maternal grandmother of the bride.
