

Marianne Cornell to Wed Arnold Hirtzel in Summer

Mr. and Mrs. Anson B. Cornell have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marianne, to James L. Magnusson of Rainier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hirtzel of that city. The wedding is planned for late summer.

News of the betrothal was told at two affairs, the first a dinner for girl friends, numbering about 12, at the Cornell home during the holidays. The next day Mr. and Mrs. Cornell made the announcement to a group of about 40 of their friends, who were invited to a cocktail party.

Both Miss Cornell and her fiancé are sophomores at the university, she a speech major and he in liberal arts. Her sorority is Gamma Phi Beta.

The engagement of Miss Josephine Caughell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Caughell of Salem, to John W. Loughary, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Loughary of Eugene, is announced. Both are seniors at the University of Oregon, where Miss Caughell is majoring in general arts and letters, and Mr. Loughary is a psychology major. Their wedding plans are indefinite.

The news was told earlier at a dinner in the Gamma Phi Beta sorority house, where Miss Caughell is president. Names on small cakes served at the dessert course revealed the secret.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Peck announce the engagement of their daughter, Janice, to Richard A. Ficker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton A. Ficker. The wedding is set for the fall. The announcement was made at an informal gathering at Miss Peck's home.

Mr. Ficker is attending University of Oregon, in his first year as a business administration major. Miss Peck is a freshman in secretarial science at Oregon State College.

The engagement of Miss Retha Mae Kirkpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kirkpatrick of Oakridge, to Thomas W. O'Connell, announced Christmas Eve. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connell, also of Oakridge. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Kirkpatrick is employed at the First National Bank, having transferred from her former home at Enterprise. She is a former resident of Springfield, where she attended schools through her freshman year in high school.

Mr. O'Connell is a graduate of Oakridge schools and is a clerk for the Southern Pacific Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ingwerson of Springfield have announced the engagement of their daughter, Joan, to Gene Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Davis, also of Springfield. No wedding date has been set. News of the engagement first was told to friends of the family in the bulletin of First Christian Church, Springfield.

Miss Ingwerson is a student at Springfield High School. Her fiancé was graduated from a Portland high school and will enter military service soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Qualls of Leaburg have announced the engagement of their daughter, Delena, to Daniel Lane of Springfield, son of Robert E. Lane and

I Love Playing

NANCY

on my new KIMBALL CONSOLETTTE

Some day I'm going to play pieces on the school programs!

GRANDMOTHER: Goodness, the playing my Kimball took... and still kept its beautiful tone! Even in my day the Kimball name was famous for quality pianos.

MOTHER: I was so thrilled when you bought me a Kimball. It brought me so many new friends. I want Nancy to have that advantage, too.

From Grandma's day, Kimball pianos have been preferred for beauty and superior musical qualities. Our new Kimball Consolettes are the best values we have ever offered... come in and see them!
