MRS. VINCENT WILLIAM MASSON, JR., (Joan Randle) was a December bride at Grace Lutheran Church. The four attendants who preceded the bride to the altar each carried French heather.

December Bride Lives Here

Grace Lutheran Church was scene of the wedding Dec. 15 of Miss Joan Randle and Vincent William Masson Jr., both of Eugene, The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin R. Randle, the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Masson. Mr. Randle gave his daughter in marriage.

Gowned in white satin and lace, the bride carried a bouquet of gardenias, centered by an orchid. The dress was made with bodice of lace, a lace inset extending into the satin skirt and fan-shaped lace insets ornamenting the satin train. Applique outlined the line of the net yoke. She wore a veil of illusion falling from a Juliet cap of satin, seed pearls and ruching.

Miss Renee Masson was maid of honor in cerise taffeta made with wing collar, cap sleeves and gray maline overskirt. Her flowers were French heather with gardenia center and she wore sprigs of heather in her hair.

The bridesmaids, Miss Janet Randle in yellow, Miss Beverly Masson in lavender and Mrs. Dean Morris in green, carried spikes of French heather. Their dresses were made like the honor maid's.

Jack Masson was best man and ushers were Phil Pynes, Sherwin Jongeward and Dean Morris.

The Rev. W. B. Maier officiated and James Kays was soloist, singing "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because." Mrs. Oliver R. Hunt was organist.

The reception was in the church parlor where Mrs. Lester Yenne, Mrs. Edward Yenne, Mrs. E. O. Randle and Mrs. Daisy Bowers, all aunts, and Mrs. Arthur Tynes assisted.

For traveling to the coast and to Portland, the bride wore a red suit, with winter white and black accessories. They are at home in Eugene.

MRS. CONRAD J. HIGGINS (Shirley Ruth Schluckebier) designed and made the dress of satin and lace in which she was gowned for her wedding at the end of the year at Hope Lutheran Church.

Bride Carries Roses

In a holiday wedding at Hope Lutheran Church, Springfield, Miss Shirley Ruth Schluckebier of Springfield and Conrad J. Higgins of Eugene were married by the Rev. E. D. Busch Sunday, Dec. 30. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schluckebier of Springfield and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie O. Higgins of Eugene.

White chrysanthemums decorated the sanctuary for the wedding. Miss Carol De Rose sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord Is My Shepherd," with Mrs. Ed Busch accompanying.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a gown she designed and made with her sister's help. Bodice and long, pointed sleeves were of white Chantilly lace with a yoke of net and a small satin collar. The full white satin skirt ended in a train. She wore a fingertip veil of nylon net falling from a cap of lace matching the dress. Her pearls were a gift of the groom, and she carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

Miss Florence Schluckebier of Portland, maid of honor for her sister, wore a gown of deep nile green satin, made with net yoke on a satin bodice and full skirt. Her heart-shaped bouquet of shattered red and white carnations was tied with red streamers.

Twin cousins of the bride, Miss Viola and Miss Esther Tiedje, were bridesmaids in similar gowns of holly-red satin. Their bouquets were of white carnations with green streamers. Linda Schluckebier, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, and Miss Carol Lee Wiest and Miss Patricia Neu were candlelighters. The last three wore gold-colored dresses.

John R. Riedinger was best man, and ushers were Harvey McKee, Merle Harbour, Elmer Renken and Curtis Schluckebier.

At the reception in the church, Mrs. H. Liedke, assisted by Mrs. E. D. Busch, cut the cake while Mrs. Loris Fountain, Mrs. Raymond Fountain and Mrs. James Cane served. Mrs. Merle Harbour took care of the guest book. The bride's mother had baked the five-tiered wedding cake and the bride's aunt, Mrs. H. Tiedje, brought smilax from Orange, Calif., with which to decorate it.

For the wedding trip, the bride wore a matching gray suit and coat with red accessories. They are now at home in Eugene after a honeymoon at the coast.
