

Miss Kimball Wed to Paul R. Shiell

TRENT—In a setting of pink and white chrysanthemums and candelabra, Miss Betty Joy Kimball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Kimball of Trent, was married to Paul Roger Shiell. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Shiell of Trent. The ceremony took place Dec. 19 at 8 p.m. in the Trent Church of Christ. The Rev. H. V. Johnson officiated.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Kieth Kimball sang "I Love You Truly," "I Love You," and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. S. E. Stevens of Eugene.

Miss Kimball, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin dress, made with a train. It had a Chantilly lace apron. The fingertip net veil was held by orange blossoms. She carried a spray of red roses and stephanotis with an orchid at center.

Maid of honor, Miss Marvin Jo Churchill of Coos Bay, wore a dusty rose gown with net skirt, satin bodice and bolero. She carried lavender heather, with white and pink carnations.

The four bridesmaids were dressed alike in aqua gowns with net skirts, satin bodice and bolero with matching mitts. All carried nosegays of lavender heather and pink chrysanthemums. They were Mrs. Arthur

Nolan of Albany; Miss Margery Ann Fisher of Walla Walla, Wash.; Miss Virginia Simons of Eugene and the bride's sister, Miss Jeannette Kimball of Trent.

Ring bearer was Danny Kimball, nephew of the bride.

Two-year-old Dawn Gay Kimball, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was a copy of the honor attendant's.

Best man was Jim Norton of Goshen; ushers were James Kimball, Hershell Goodrich, Jerry Williams, and Joe McDonald.

Candlelighters were Miss Claudette Kime of Cottage Grove and Miss Dorothy Delp of Trent.

A reception was held after the ceremony. Mrs. W. L. Wheeler, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Arthur Lindley, an aunt, poured. Mrs. Frank Kimball cut the cake. Other helpers were Mrs. Alvin Lindley, Mrs. Donovan Kimball, Miss Phyllis Ranney and Mrs. Darle West. Miss Liona McVey had the guest book.

Miss Kimball's going away costume was a gun metal grey tailored suit, black hat and gloves, red shoes and purse. She wore the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. The couple spent a week at Yachats before Mr. Shiell returned to San Diego where he is stationed on the USS John R. Craig.

Eugene Girl Weds In Los Angeles

Parents and sister of Miss Emilie Cushman traveled from Eugene to Los Angeles for her wedding to Patrick Michael Edwards of Los Angeles Nov. 17 in Emmanuel Presbyterian Church there.

Dr. J. Robert Willis officiated in the church trimmed with white chrysanthemums, gladiolus and tapers. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon V. Cushman of Eugene.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore traditional white satin in a design she had made. A satin and seed pearl headdress held her illusion veil. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid and stephanotis bouquet.

The bride's sister, Mrs. George Bauer of San Bernardino, was matron of honor in rose satin carrying pink chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids, a sister, Miss Lenore Cushman of Eugene, and Miss Laverne Sagmaster of Los Angeles, wore pink satin and carried similar flowers. All wore sweetheart hats matching their gowns.

Paul Boghasian was best man, with George Bauer and Kenneth Huddleston ushering.

After the church reception, the wedding party had dinner together. The couple is now at home in Los Angeles after a honeymoon at Pacific Palisades.
